EDUCATION AND PROFESSIONAL CAREERS:

Susan Samueli was born and raised in Los Angeles. She earned her bachelor's degree in Mathematics from UC Berkeley in 1972. From 1972 to 1985 she was with IBM Corporation, where she worked initially as a software programmer in the Federal Systems Division, Westlake Village, Calif., and then as a Systems Engineer in the National Marketing Division, Los Angeles, providing technical marketing and sales support for IBM's mid-range computer systems. In 1985 she left IBM and focused her energy on raising her children, at which time she developed a keen interest in integrative health care, studying in the areas of nutrition, homeopathy and Chinese herbs. Susan subsequently received a Ph.D. degree in nutrition from the American Holistic College of Nutrition in 1993 and a diploma in Homeopathy from the British Institute of Homeopathy in 1994.

Henry Samueli was born in Buffalo, N.Y. and grew up in Los Angeles. He earned his B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in Electrical Engineering from UCLA in 1975, 1976 and 1980, respectively. From 1980 to 1985 he was employed in various engineering and management positions in the Electronics and Technology Division of TRW, Inc., Redondo Beach, Calif., a military communications defense contractor now part of Northrop-Grumman. Since 1985 he has been a professor in the Electrical and Computer Engineering Department at UCLA, and since 2003 he has also served as a Distinguished Adjunct Professor in the Electrical Engineering and Computer Science Department at UC Irvine. In 1991 he co-founded Broadcom Corporation, a global leader in providing semiconductor solutions for wired and wireless communications. Henry took a leave of absence from UCLA in 1995 and joined Broadcom full-time as Chief Technology Officer (CTO). In 2016 Broadcom was acquired by Avago Technologies Limited and renamed Broadcom Inc. Henry retired as CTO of Broadcom in 2018 and now serves as Chairman of the Board.

SPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT OWNERSHIP:

In 2003 Susan and Henry took over management of the Honda Center sports and entertainment venue in Anaheim, Calif. and in 2005 they purchased the Anaheim Ducks National Hockey League (NHL) franchise from the Walt Disney Company. In 2007 the Anaheim Ducks became the first California team ever to win the Stanley Cup championship. Henry is a member of the Executive Committee of the NHL Board of Governors. The Samueli's also own the San Diego Gulls American Hockey League (AHL) franchise, which serves as the Ducks' minor-league affiliate in San Diego. In 2020, the Samueli's announced their endeavor to create OCVIBE, a one-of-a-kind immersive district surrounding Honda Center. The $4 billion privately funded 100-acre development is designed as a sustainable community emphasizing walkability, health and wellness, and lifestyle amenities near transit. OCVIBE will include a 6,000 capacity concert venue, 35 restaurants, 1,500 residential units with a commitment of 15% affordable housing units, 20 acres of public space with unique plazas and urban parks, two hotels, four parking structures and 1 million square feet of office space. Construction began in 2023 with parking structures opening in 2025 and the first phase opening in 2026.

COMMUNITY SERVICE AND PHILANTHROPY:

The success of Broadcom has provided Susan and Henry the opportunity to support many worthwhile non-profit organizations. After Broadcom went public in 1998 they created the Samueli Foundation, and to date they have gifted over $1 billion primarily in the areas of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) Education, Integrative Health, Youth Services, Social Justice, and Jewish Culture. In 2012 they joined the Giving Pledge, initiated by Warren Buffett and Bill and Melinda Gates, whose members pledge the majority of their wealth to philanthropy.

Susan serves on the Board of the Orangewood Children's Foundation, a leading provider of foster youth services in Orange County, Calif., and she is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Samueli Academy, an innovative public Charter High School in Santa Ana, Calif. that focuses on project-based STEM learning for community, underserved and foster youth. She also serves on the Advisory Board of the Susan Samueli Integrative Health Institute at UC Irvine which provides education, research and clinical care built around integrative practices and emphasizes whole-person healing and wellness. Henry serves on the Dean's Advisory Board of both the Henry Samueli School of Engineering and Applied Science at UCLA and the Henry Samueli School of Engineering at UC Irvine. Both Susan and Henry serve on the Advisory Board of the Susan & Henry Samueli College of Health Sciences at UC Irvine.

In 2019 they created Irvine Ice Foundation (IIF). IIF built and opened Great Park Ice in Irvine, Calif. which features four ice sheets, including FivePoint Arena that seats 2,500 spectators. The 280,000-square-foot complex offers a variety of ice sports including youth and adult hockey programs, figure skating, curling, broomball, sled hockey, public open skating and is the official practice facility for the Anaheim Ducks.

Michael Schulman

Chief Executive Officer, Anaheim Ducks
Managing Director, H&S Ventures
Chairman of the Board, OC Sports & Entertainment
Chairman of the Board, Anaheim Arena Management

Michael Schulman serves as Chief Executive Officer of Anaheim Ducks Hockey Club (ADHC), Chairman of the Board of OC Sports & Entertainment (OCSE), Chairman of the Board of Anaheim Arena Management (AAM), and Chairman of the Board of the Anaheim Ducks Foundation. He is also an Alternate Governor for both the NHL and AHL Board of Governors, and serves on the board of NHL Enterprises.

In addition, he is Managing Director of H&S Ventures, the entity that manages the Samueli Family Office and all companies in the Samueli family portfolio. Schulman reports directly to owners Dr. Henry Samueli and Dr. Susan Samueli, and is responsible for managing and long-term planning of their profit and nonprofit entities.

Schulman was the lead negotiator on behalf of the Samueli family in the acquisition of the Honda Center management agreement from the bankruptcy court and the City of Anaheim, and played the key role in extending the lease of AAM and acquiring various properties around Honda Center which formed OCSE.

He acts as liaison between the Samueli family and AAM management, and supervises all financial, legal, and charitable decisions of the arena; as well as with the other partners of AAM and the City of Anaheim.

Schulman also represented the Samueli family in purchase negotiations with Disney for the Anaheim Ducks, and in qualifying the Samueli family for the purchase of the team with the NHL.

Schulman was involved with the family in changing the team name and logo, and forming the Anaheim Ducks Foundation. Schulman led the negotiation with the American Hockey League (AHL) in forming the new AHL Pacific Division along with four other NHL teams. He was the lead negotiator in purchasing the Norfolk AHL team and moving the team to San Diego. He also formed the San Diego Gulls Foundation.

He is responsible for developing additional ice and inline rinks in the Orange County area and was instrumental in the purchase and development of several ice and inline rinks, including Great Park Ice and FivePoint Arena, and Irvine rinks, and KHS, Lakewood, Poway and Yorba Linda ice rinks. Schulman spent over 10 years working with the City of Irvine in developing Great Park Ice and FivePoint Arena, and forming the Irvine Ice Foundation, which was responsible for the building of and operating the complex.

Schulman serves on the boards of AAM, ADHC, Anaheim Sports Holdings, Anaheim Ducks Foundation, San Diego Gulls Hockey Club and Samueli Foundation. He is also a current member of the board of the Telluride Ski and Golf Company.

Schulman also serves on many nonprofit boards. He has been a member of the University of California, Irvine Foundation Board since 1991, and CEO Leadership Alliance (CLA-OC) since 2019. He was one of the founding members and past chair of the UCI Planned Giving Leadership Council.

After earning his Bachelor of Arts in Economics from University of California, Berkeley, Schulman went on to the University of Santa Clara Law School. In addition, Schulman studied economics for one year at the University of Leeds in England.

Following law school, he was hired as a full-time law professor at the University of Southern California, after which he was a practicing attorney for a number of years and a partner with the law firm of McDermott, Will & Emery.

A native of California, Michael and his wife, Sherry, reside in Laguna Beach and have three children: Danielle, Bryant and Natasha.

Aaron Teats

Club President, Alternate Governor, Anaheim Ducks
Chief Executive Officer, San Diego Gulls

Aaron Teats serves as President of the Anaheim Ducks Hockey Club and Chief Executive Officer of the San Diego Gulls Hockey Club. Named to his current post in February 2022, Teats continues to have oversight of OC Sports and Entertainment's sports properties, which include the Ducks and San Diego Gulls. Teats also serves as CEO of The Rinks Foundation and President of the Irvine Ice Foundation.

Now in his 30th season with the Ducks, he most recently served as Anaheim's President of Business Operations, where in addition to his leadership role with the Gulls and The Rinks, he led all ticket sales, premium seating, business intelligence, broadcasting, communications, community relations, entertainment, fan development, marketing, merchandising, publications/digital content and social networking.

He also spent six years as the club's Chief Marketing Officer, where he was integral in several business initiatives advancing the brand and financial impact of the Ducks in the community as well as the front office. He created the Ducks' internal merchandise division in 2014, which included the design and creation of the new Ducks Team Store, and a business intelligence division in 2017.

Teats oversees the club's broadcast agreements, and led the team's efforts to bring innovative television, streaming and audio broadcasts to Ducks fans. In 2024, he spearheaded partnerships with A Parent Media Co. Inc. (APMC) and KCOP-TV (Fox 11 Plus) to stream/televise all regional Ducks games free of charge to 100% of the team's regional market via stream (Victory+ via APMC) or traditional television (KCOP). In the fall of 2022, he oversaw the team's creation of Ducks Stream, a 24/7 audio network with the most comprehensive team-focused coverage in the NHL.

Teats has helped lead an organization recognized as a leader in charitable programming and community engagement. He also helped create programs benefiting public education, health and wellness, access to youth hockey, and grassroots marketing. Twice in recent years, Ducks were named a finalist for Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year by ESPN (both 2018 & 2019). The award "represents a sports club/team that demonstrates how teamwork can create a measurable impact on a community or cause." The club has also been continually recognized by ESPN The Magazine in its annual "Ultimate Standings" edition for successes both on and off the ice. The magazine has recognized the Ducks as a top franchise among 122 professional sports teams (NHL, NFL, MLB & NBA), ranking in the top eight three times.

Teats began his career within the broadcasting ranks in 1994. He served 11 years as both an Emmy Award-winning producer and director of the Ducks radio and television broadcasts before permanently transitioning to the business office in 2007.

During his Ducks tenure, Teats has spearheaded successful initiatives which led to organizational growth. He helped lead the launch of the John Wayne Airport Breakaway Bar and Grill (2011) and its move to a larger location in 2024, a Ducks-themed restaurant at Orange County's international airport. Teats was also instrumental in the celebration and honoring of Ducks legends Teemu Selanne (2015), Paul Kariya (2018) and Scott Niedermayer (2019), who each had their jerseys retired by the club. Kariya and Niedermayer's jersey retirements took place during the club's 25th Anniversary Season (2018-19), which was also led by Teats. He also oversaw the club's 2024 brand evolution launch with new logo, home and away jerseys.

Additionally, Teats is on the Advisory Council for Anaheim Boys & Girls Club after serving on the board of directors for the previous 13 years, and the Advisory Committee for Cal State Fullerton's "PRactical ADVantage" student-run advertising for the last three years. He is also on the Board of Directors for the newly formed OC Sports Commission.

Teats began his career for the then-California Angels in 1992. He received his bachelor's degree from Cal State Fullerton in 1992.

Aaron and his wife, Justine, currently reside in Anaheim Hills and have two sons: Nolan and Colin.

Pat Verbeek

General Manager

Pat Verbeek is in the midst of his fourth season as General Manager of the Anaheim Ducks, overseeing the club's hockey operations.

Named the sixth General Manager in Ducks history on Feb. 3, 2022, Verbeek joined Anaheim with two Stanley Cups on his resume and 36 years of NHL experience, 16 as an executive and 20 as an NHL player. He won Stanley Cups as a player (1999) and Professional Scout (2008), and helped build foundational pieces of Tampa Bay's eventual back-to-back championship teams in 2020 and 2021.

Under his leadership, the Ducks hockey operations department added additional scouting and player development staff, implemented a full-scale performance department based on data and sports science, and grew the analytics staff focused on video scouting, research, development, data science and engineering.

Prior to his current role, Verbeek spent three seasons as Assistant General Manager of the Detroit Red Wings (2019-22) where he was involved in all hockey operations matters with a focus on player personnel decisions. Prior to the 2021-22 season, Verbeek was named General Manager of the Grand Rapids Griffins, Detroit's primary development affiliate in the American Hockey League (AHL). He also served as a Professional Scout for Detroit from 2006-10, serving on the Red Wings staff for the team's 2008 Stanley Cup championship.

Verbeek also spent nine seasons with the Tampa Bay Lightning as Assistant General Manager and Director of Player Personnel (2012-19), and Director of Professional Scouting (2010-12). Verbeek was responsible for oversight of the team's professional scouting operations, player recruitment, contract negotiations and overall support of the hockey operations department. During his tenure, the Lightning made an appearance in the 2015 Stanley Cup Final in addition to four Conference Finals (2015, 2018, 2020, 2021). A total of 17 Lightning players that won consecutive Stanley Cups in 2020 and 2021 were drafted, signed or acquired while Verbeek was an executive with the organization.

Verbeek also served as Director of Player Personnel for Team North America at the 2016 World Cup of Hockey and won a gold medal as part of Canada's management staff at the 2015 World Championship.

As a player, he won a Stanley Cup with Dallas in 1999 and appeared at two NHL All-Star Games (1991 and 1996) during a 20-year NHL career. Originally selected by the New Jersey Devils in the third round (43rd overall) of the 1982 NHL Draft, Verbeek scored 522-540=1,062 points and 2,905 penalty minutes in 1,424 NHL games with New Jersey (1982-89), the Hartford Whalers (1989-95), New York Rangers (1994-96), Dallas Stars (1996-99, 2001-02) and Red Wings (1999-01). He served as Hartford's captain for four seasons from 1991-95.

A native of Sarnia, Ontario, Verbeek represented Canada at several international tournaments as a player, including medals at the 1994 (gold) and 1989 (silver) World Championship. He also appeared at the 1996 World Cup of Hockey and 1983 World Junior Championship.

Pat and his wife Dianne have five children, including one son, Kyle, and four daughters: Stephanie, Kendall, Haley and Georgeanne.

Scott Niedermayer

Special Advisor to Hockey Operations

Scott Niedermayer is in his fourth season as Special Advisor to Hockey Operations after being named to his current role Feb. 8, 2022. He rejoined the club after spending nine seasons in various roles within the club's hockey operations, including development coach (2015-19), assistant coach (2012-15) and team consultant (2010-12).

Niedermayer spent five seasons as a player with the Ducks from 2005-10, serving as the captain of the Stanley Cup championship team in 2007 when he won the Conn Smythe Trophy as playoff MVP. He scored 60-204-264 points in 371 regular-season games with Anaheim, and recorded 8-26-34 points in 56 playoff games. In 2006-07, he set the Ducks franchise record for most points (15-54-69) and assists by a defenseman in a single season.

In 18 NHL seasons with Anaheim and New Jersey, Niedermayer scored 172-568-740 points in 1,263 NHL games. He is a four-time Stanley Cup champion, winning one Cup with Anaheim (2007) and three with New Jersey (1995, 2000 and 2003). He is the 2004 James Norris Memorial Trophy winner, a three-time First Team All-Star (2004, 2006, 2007), six-time NHL All-Star (1998, 2001, 2004, 2007, 2008, 2009), and 1993 NHL All-Rookie Team member. His 13 regular-season overtime goals are the most by a defenseman in NHL history.

The first player in hockey history to have won a Stanley Cup, Olympic gold medal, World Championship, World Cup, Memorial Cup and World Junior Championship, Niedermayer is also the only player in hockey history to win four Stanley Cups and two Olympic gold medals.

Niedermayer helped lead Canada to gold medals at the 2002 and 2010 Olympic Winter Games, serving as captain in 2010. He won the 2004 World Championship, 2004 World Cup title and 1991 World Junior Championship. He also won the 1992 Memorial Cup with Kamloops of the Western Hockey League (WHL) and was named Memorial Cup MVP.

Niedermayer was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame on Nov. 11, 2013. His No. 27 was retired by the Ducks on Feb. 17, 2019 and also retired by the New Jersey Devils on Dec. 16, 2011. He became the eighth player in NHL history to have his number retired by two NHL teams.

Jeff Solomon

Vice President of Hockey Operations & Assistant General Manager

Jeff Solomon enters his fourth season as Vice President of Hockey Operations and Assistant General Manager of the Anaheim Ducks.

In his role, Solomon oversees strategic budget planning in relation to the NHL's Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) and the salary cap, player contract negotiations, salary arbitration case preparation and management, and player evaluation and analytics. Solomon was named Interim General Manager of the Ducks Nov. 16, 2021 and served until Pat Verbeek was hired as General Manager Feb. 3, 2022.

Solomon joined the Ducks May 24, 2021 after previously working for 35 years in the NHL as a team executive and player agent. He spent 15 years as a hockey operations executive with the Los Angeles Kings from 2006-21, most recently serving as Executive Vice President/Hockey Operations and Legal Affairs. Solomon was part of a pair of Stanley Cup championships with the Kings in 2012 and 2014. He was responsible for the negotiation of player contracts, development of strategic salary cap plans and management of all matters related to the CBA.

Prior to joining the Kings, Solomon spent 20 years as an NHLPA Certified Agent, representing players such as Chris Kunitz, Tony Granato, Bryan McCabe and Steve Sullivan. Solomon has extensive experience in player contracts and negotiations, including restricted and unrestricted free agents, salary arbitration and how they all relate to the NHL's CBA.

Solomon earned a Juris Doctorate from the University of San Diego School of Law in 1983 following a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Rutgers University in 1980. Solomon previously practiced law in California, specializing in tax and estate planning while also working as an international tax specialist and financial consultant.

Solomon has two children: Lexy and Drew. He resides in Rancho Mission Viejo.

Mike Stapleton

Assistant General Manager

Mike Stapleton enters his first season as Assistant General Manager and 10th with the Ducks overall. Named to his new role May 14, 2024, Stapleton maintains extensive knowledge of all NHL personnel, and aides the hockey operations department in the procurement of players via free agency, trade and the NHL Draft.

Stapleton previously spent two seasons as Director of Player Personnel (2022-24) and seven as a professional scout (2015-22) with the club. He also worked with the Anaheim scouting department on a part-time basis and served as an assistant coach for the club's primary development affiliate in the American Hockey League in 2010-11 (Syracuse). Stapleton also served as Head Coach for Sault Ste. Marie of the Ontario Hockey League (OHL) from 2011-13.

Before joining the organization in 2010, Stapleton spent four seasons as an Assistant Coach and Associate Coach in the OHL with Sault Ste. Marie (2008-10) and Erie (2006-08).

Originally selected by Chicago in the seventh round (132nd overall) of the 1984 NHL Draft, Stapleton played 14 NHL seasons from 1986-2001 with seven different teams (Chicago, Pittsburgh, Edmonton, Winnipeg/Phoenix, Atlanta, NY Islanders and Vancouver). He appeared in 697 career NHL games, collecting 71-111-182 points with 342 PIM. Stapleton also skated in 34 career Stanley Cup Playoff games, recording one goal and 39 PIM.

Stapleton is the son of former NHL defenseman and 1972 Summit Series Team Canada member Pat Stapleton. Mike and his wife, Laura, have two sons: Luke and Nick.

Martin Madden

Assistant General Manager, Director of Amateur Scouting

Martin Madden enters his 17th season with the Ducks, his fifth as Assistant General Manager. He was named to his current role June 23, 2020 after spending the previous 12 seasons with the club as Director of Amateur Scouting (2008-20).

In his role, Madden oversees all of the club's scouting efforts (professional and amateur) and assumes an expanded role in a majority of hockey operations directives and initiatives. He continues to evaluate top prospects throughout North America and attends all major European junior tournaments. He also plays a key role in producing the final prospect list leading up to the NHL Draft.

A native of Quebec City, Madden spent three seasons as an amateur scout for Carolina (2005-08), winning the Stanley Cup with the Hurricanes in 2006. Prior to his time in Raleigh, he served as a scout for the New York Rangers for seven seasons from 1998-05. Madden received his first scouting position with the Halifax Mooseheads of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League in 1997-98 while completing his MBA in Finance at HEC Montreal.

Madden played hockey as a youth until Midget AAA. He walked on as a freshman for the McGill University hockey team but stopped playing to concentrate on his studies, completing a degree in engineering.

Madden currently resides in Quebec City with his girlfriend, Catherine, and their child, Alex (7). He racks up countless kilometers cycling around different areas of the province and is also passionate about golf, tennis, NFL football, wine and music.

Tony Hrkac

Director of Pro Scouting

Tony Hrkac is in his first season with the Ducks as Director of Pro Scouting in 2024-25. Hrkac joins the Anaheim organization after spending the past nine seasons as a Professional Scout with the Tampa Bay Lightning, winning Stanley Cups in 2020 and 2021, and helping the club to two additional Stanley Cup Finals appearances (2015 and 2022).

Prior to his stint with Tampa Bay, Hrkac spent one season as an Assistant Coach with the Madison Capitals of the United States Hockey League (2014-15) and five seasons as Head Coach of Concordia University Wisconsin from 2007-12 (NCAA Division III).

As a player, Hrkac won championships at every level of hockey, including the Stanley Cup with the Dallas Stars in 1999, a Calder Cup (AHL) with Milwaukee in 2004 and an NCAA title at North Dakota in 1987. Selected by St. Louis in the second round (32nd overall) of the 1984 NHL Draft, Hrkac's NHL career spanned 13 seasons, scoring 132-239-371 points in 758 games with Anaheim, Atlanta, Dallas, Edmonton, New York Islanders, Quebec, San Jose, St. Louis. His AHL career spanned six seasons, scoring 50-84-144 points in 197 games in addition to 49 points in 53 career postseason games (17-32-49). His No. 26 was retired by Milwaukee March 14, 2008 after two stints with the organization, serving as the club's captain in 1996-97 and 2004-05.

Hrkac won the Hobey Baker Award as the NCAA's top collegiate player in 1986-87, recording 46-70-116 points in 48 games at North Dakota and still holds the NCAA record for points in a single season. He was also named the International Hockey League (IHL) Most Valuable Player in 1992-93 with Indianapolis after leading the league in scoring (45-87-132).

A native of Thunder Bay, Ontario, Hrkac and his wife, Kathy, have two daughters: Allison and Courtney. The family resides in INSERT.

Jim Johnson

Director of Player Development

Jim Johnson enters his third season as Director of Player Development for the Anaheim Ducks. In his role, Johnson prepares and educates Anaheim prospects on succeeding in professional hockey.

Johnson has spent 24 seasons in the NHL, 11 as a coach and 13 as a player. He served as an assistant coach for numerous NHL clubs, including the Phoenix Coyotes (1999-00), Tampa Bay Lightning (2008-10), Washington Capitals (2011-12), San Jose Sharks (2012-15), Edmonton Oilers (2015-18) and St. Louis Blues (2020-21). He also spent time in amateur hockey, including an assistant coach for Team USA at three World Junior Championships while also serving in the same capacity at the United States National Team Development Program from 1999-02.

Signed as a free agent defenseman by the Pittsburgh Penguins in 1985, Johnson appeared in 829 career games with the Penguins, Minnesota North Stars/Dallas Stars, Washington and Phoenix, recording 29-166-195 points and 1,197 penalty minutes. He also earned 1-11-12 points in 51 Stanley Cup Playoff games in six postseason appearances. He also represented Team USA at the 1992 Canada Cup and four World Championships (1985, 1986, 1987, 1990).

A native of New Hope, Minn., Johnson played four seasons at the University of Minnesota-Duluth (1981-85), earning 13-70-83 points and 402 PIM in 174 NCAA games. He captained the Bulldogs in 1983-84 while helping the team to consecutive WCHA championships in 1984 and 1985.

Johnson and his wife, Jody reside in East Gull Lake, Minn. The family has two children: Derik and Mia. Derik has been apart of the Los Angeles Kings organization for the last six seasons (2018-present), spending five season as a video coach and part of last season as assistant coach.

Sudarshan Maharaj

Director of Goaltending

Sudarshan “Sudsie” Maharaj (Sud-DARE-shun MAH-ha-raj) was promoted to Director of Goaltending July 10, 2024. In his new role, he oversees all aspects of the organization’s goaltending, including coaching, development and scouting. Ducks Goaltending Coach Peter Budaj and San Diego Gulls Goaltending Coach Jeff Glass both report to Maharaj while supporting the club’s goaltending objectives.

Diagnosed with pancreatic cancer in 2023, Maharaj is now cancer-free after a very low chance of survival. He faced long odds undergoing major surgery removing his entire gallbladder, parts of his small intestines, pancreas and stomach, with 11 rounds of chemotherapy and numerous other challenges throughout his courageous fight.

Maharaj is in his 12th season with the organization, spending the prior seven seasons as goaltending coach. Under his leadership, the Ducks established a franchise-record with a .923 SV%, which co-led all NHL teams in 2017-18. In addition, both Ryan Miller (.928) and John Gibson (.926) surpassed the individual single-season franchise record for SV% (.924, Jonas Hiller in 2010-11, Gibson in 2016-17).

Maharaj joined the Ducks organization prior to the 2013-14 season in a consultant role focused on the club’s AHL affiliate in Norfolk, Va. Maharaj continued in the role throughout the team’s transition to San Diego for the 2015-16 season, where he helped Gulls goaltenders to a 39-23-8 record, 2.87 GAA, .906 SV% and a berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs.

A native of Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago, Maharaj spent eight seasons with the New York Islanders from 2003-06 (goaltending coach) and 2009-12 (goaltending consultant). He also helped develop the National Goaltending Development Program for Hockey Canada (2005-07) and served as goaltending consultant for the Korean national hockey team in preparation for the 2018 Olympic Winter Games.

Raised in Toronto from the age of six, Maharaj was a member of the 1984-85 National Hockey Championship York University team and played six seasons of pro hockey in Sweden.

Sudarshan and his wife, Yvonne, have two daughters, Alexandra (22) and Katherine (19).

Chris Kenyon

Senior Vice President, Ticketing Strategy & Analytics

Chris Kenyon is in his fifth season with the Anaheim Ducks in an executive management role, his first as Senior Vice President, Ticketing Strategy & Analytics.

Kenyon joined the Ducks in 2012 and most recently served as Director of Ticket Sales from 2017-20, while previously holding managerial positions in new business development and retention, and group and inside sales.

Throughout his tenure with the Ducks, Kenyon has implemented exclusive mobile ticketing, developed dynamic pricing models, designated season ticket holders as the Orange Alliance while enhancing benefits to the membership, and created the Terrace Saver Program, which was rated the No. 1 most valued season seat in the NHL. He also launched a corporate hospitality department to host and entertain corporate events at Honda Center.

Kenyon spent two seasons with the Oakland Raiders (2010-12) as Premium Sales Manager and also served as Manager of Professional Services for Aerotek for three years.

A native of San Diego, Kenyon earned a bachelor's degree in political science at Point Loma Nazarene University.

Chris and his wife, Terri, have three children: Sydney, Riley and Reese. The family resides in Rancho Santa Margarita.

Merit Tully

Senior Vice President & Chief Marketing Officer

Merit Tully is in his 25th year with the Anaheim Ducks, his first as Chief Marketing Officer. Named to his current position in August 2024 after spending the prior four years as Vice President of Marketing, Tully oversees business intelligence, broadcasting, communications, community relations, entertainment, fan development, marketing, merchandising, publications/digital content and social networking. Tully provides oversight of the club's broadcast agreements, and led the team's creation of Ducks Stream, a 24/7 audio network with the most comprehensive team-focused coverage in the NHL.

Tully was instrumental in the hockey club's 2024 brand evolution with the club's new logo, home and away jerseys in collaboration with ownership, the NHL and Fanatics. He also led the business' efforts to unveil and launch the refreshed identity.

Under his leadership, the Ducks were named by the NHL as the winner of the 2024 Stanley Award for the league's Marketing Campaign of the Year as part of the club's Vans Campaign which released three branded shoes in collaboration with the shoe company founded in Anaheim, California. The award recognizes achievements, innovation, creativity and results across NHL clubs via a program intended to promote the club's brand and/or a related product, service or business initiative.

He helped spearhead the organization's efforts to bring the U.S. Women's National Team to Honda Center for a Rivalry Series game vs. Canada in 2020. Through the club's efforts, the contest set an all-time attendance record for the Women's National Team in a game on U.S. soil.

Tully previously spent three seasons as the Ducks' Director of Marketing and Brand Management, overseeing all team marketing elements, premium sales marketing, graphic design and fan development, including S.C.O.R.E. (Scholastic Curriculum of Recreation and Education), the club's education-based youth hockey program which has reached more 400,000 school children since 2005.

Tully served as the Director of Media and Communications for Honda Center from 2007-16, acting as the primary liaison between the arena and media for all non-hockey events. He coordinated several major announcements for the arena, including facility upgrades such as the Shock Top Terrace (now Brewery X Biergarten), the most extensive upgrade in venue history.

He joined the Ducks in 2000 as a Communications Manager, helping enhance the overall image of the hockey club and assisting in the club's public relations efforts through three lengthy playoff runs, as the team won the Stanley Cup in 2007 and advanced to the Stanley Cup Finals in 2003 and Western Conference Finals in 2006.

A graduate from Fresno State with a degree in Communications & Advertising, Tully began his career as a Publications and Media Coordinator for the Arizona Coyotes in 1999. He serves on the Anaheim Transportation Network Board.

Merit and his wife, Heidi, have a daughter, Payton, and son Cullen. The family resides in Mission Viejo.

Greg Cronin

Head Coach

Greg Cronin enters his second season as Head Coach of the Anaheim Ducks in 2024-25 following his first season as an NHL head coach last season. Cronin has 37 years of coaching and player development experience, including 12 years as an NHL assistant coach, and roles in the American Hockey League (AHL), NCAA and at USA Hockey.

Hired to his post June 5, 2023, Cronin joined Anaheim after spending five seasons as the head coach of the Colorado Eagles, the Colorado Avalanche's primary development affiliate in the AHL. He led the Eagles to a 164-104-30 record (.601%) and also guided the club to Calder Cup Playoff appearances in four of his five seasons, going 12-10 in the postseason (.545%). As a head coach in the AHL with Colorado (2018-23) and Bridgeport (2003-05), Cronin led his teams to a 242-165-51 record in 458 games (.584%).

Prior to his role with Colorado, Cronin spent seven straight seasons as a coach in the NHL. He spent four seasons with the New York Islanders, three seasons as assistant coach (2014-17) and one as associate coach in 2017-18. He also served as an assistant coach with the Toronto Maple Leafs from 2011-14, helping the club to its first playoff appearance in nine seasons in 2013.

Cronin's first stint with the Islanders organization spanned seven seasons, including two as head coach of the Bridgeport Sound Tigers (2002-05), the Islanders' primary development affiliate in the AHL, and five seasons as Assistant Coach from 1998-03. He also served as the club's Director of Player Development from 2002-05.

Cronin spent six seasons as the Head Coach of Northeastern University from 2005-11. He was named the Hockey East's Coach of the Year in 2009 after guiding the team to a 25-12-4 record and the school's first NCAA tournament appearance in 15 years. He was an Assistant Coach at the University of Maine from 1988-90 and 1993-95, while he served as interim head coach from December 1995 to December 1996. He was also an assistant coach at Colorado College (1990-93) where he helped the Tigers reach the WCHA Tournament final in 1992 for the first time in 14 years.

A co-founder of the United States National Development Program (USNTDP), Cronin spent the inaugural season of the program as Director of Player Development in 1996-97 and served as Head Coach in 1997-98. Cronin assisted in developing players from the inaugural USNTDP team to be selected in the NHL Draft, including the first overall selection in 2000, Rick DiPietro. Additional top drafted players include Ron Hainsey (13th overall in 2000), Jordan Leopold (second round in 1999), Brad Winchester (second round in 2000) and John Michael-Liles (fifth round in 2000).

Cronin played four seasons of collegiate hockey at Colby College from 1982-86, helping the team to ECAC Division II Final Four appearances in 1983 and 1984, while he received the Most Improved Player Award in 1984 and the Coach's Award in 1986. He began his coaching career at his alma mater in 1987-88. He earned a master's degree in business at the University of Maine in 1990 while serving as a graduate assistant for the hockey program.

The Arlington, Mass. native served as an assistant coach for Team USA at three World Championships (1997, 2011 and 2012). He was also an assistant coach at back-to-back World Junior Championships in 1997 and 1998, helping the U.S. to a silver medal in 1997.

Brent Thompson

Assistant Coach

Brent Thompson is in his second season as assistant coach of the Anaheim Ducks. He brings nearly 20 years of coaching experience, most recently serving as the head coach of the Bridgeport Islanders of the American Hockey League (AHL) the prior nine consecutive seasons. He was also the head coach in Bridgeport in 2011-12 (10 total seasons). As the head coach of the New York Islanders' primary development affiliate, he led Bridgeport to a franchise record 328 wins (328-286-73) in 687 AHL games behind the bench. In 2022-23, Bridgeport went 34-30-8 while he led the club to a division championship in 2011-12. Thompson also served as the New York Islanders' assistant coach in 2012-13 and 2013-14.

Under his leadership in Bridgeport, Thompson helped current NHL players develop in Bridgeport prior to their NHL careers, including Ryan Strome, Casey Cizikas, Calvin de Haan, Scott Mayfield, Adam Pelech, Ryan Pulock, Devon Toews, Carter Verhaeghe and Oliver Wahlstrom.

He spent two seasons as the head coach of the Alaska Aces (ECHL) from 2009-11, compiling an 83-50-11 record. College Preparatory for the 2021-22 season.

As a Student Physical Therapist, he completed a clinical internship at the UFC Performance Institute in Las Vegas in 2021. He also served as a Student Strength and Conditioning Coach at California State University, Monterey Bay from 2016-18, working with the athletic department's women's soccer and women's volleyball teams. He also volunteered as a Sports Medicine Intern at West Valley College from 2015-16.

Lencioni earned his DPT in Physical Therapy at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas. He earned a bachelor's degree in Kinesiology and Exercise Science from California State University, Monterey Bay.

Josh Chapman

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Josh Chapman enters his second season with the Ducks as Assistant Athletic Trainer and ninth in professional hockey. Prior to joining the organization, Chapman spent the previous four seasons with the Grand Rapids Griffins (AHL) as the club's Athletic Trainer from 2019-23.

He also spent three seasons as the Head Athletic Trainer of the ECHL's Orlando Solar Bears, managing all medical and training operations for the club. Chapman has also spent time as an Assistant Athletic Trainer for the Tampa Bay Rowdies of the North American Soccer League (2015-16), an Athletic Trainer for CORA Physical Therapy and Rehabilitation Centers, including oversight of Tampa Catholic High School (2014-15).

He began his sports career as an intern with the Tampa Bay Lightning's medical staff from 2014-16 and served as an athletic training student for both the University of Tampa (2012-14) and Merrimack College's hockey team (2011-12).

Chapman earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training at the University of Tampa. In addition to being a certified and licensed athletic trainer, Chapman is a certified Corrective Exercise Specialist through the National Academy of Sports Medicine, a certified Performance Specialist through EXOS, and an ImPACT Trained Athletic Trainer. He also has emergency medical training and once held an EMT Basic national certification.

Mike Griebel

Massage Therapist

Mike Griebel is in his eighth season as Massage Therapist of the Anaheim Ducks. Griebel previously served as manual therapist for the Arizona Coyotes for seven seasons (2010-16). He joined the Coyotes from the Tampa Bay Lightning, where he spent 10 years, including Tampa Bay's 2004 Stanley Cup championship season.

Prior to joining the Lightning, Griebel served six years as resident massage therapist for Gold's Gym of Venice, CA.

A graduate of the Nova Institute of Health and Technology and the Southern California Sports Massage Clinic, Griebel is a specialist in the Hemme approach to soft tissue and certified in the Mattes method of active isolated stretching. Griebel and his wife, Lauri, have four children: Kristina, Jessica, Soren and Trevor.

PERFORMANCE STAFF

Justus Schafer

Head Strength & Conditioning Coach

Justus Schafer enters his sixth season with the Anaheim Ducks organization and third as Head Strength and Conditioning Coach. He spent the prior two seasons (2019-21) as the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach for the San Diego Gulls, working with Anaheim's primary development affiliate to maximize the athletic potential of the club's players.

Schafer previously spent three years in the San Antonio Spurs organization (2016-19). He held the position of Athletic Development QAA for two years in San Antonio and held the same position for one year with their G league affiliate, the Austin Spurs.

Schafer, an NSCA certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), earned a bachelor's degree in Applied Exercise Physiology and a master's degree in Sports Physiology from Texas A&M University.

A native of Grapevine, Texas, Justus and his wife, Laura Lee, reside in Irvine.

Jesse Wang

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Jesse Wang enters his third season as Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach with the Ducks in 2024-25. Wang joined the Ducks in 2022 after four seasons with the San Antonio Spurs organization. He most recently served as Assistant Performance Coach in 2021-22 after spending two seasons as Sports Science Quality Assurance Assistant (2019-21).

He began with the NBA organization in 2018 as Athletic Performance Quality Assurance Assistant for the Austin Spurs. Prior to joining the Spurs, Wang spent a season with the Cincinnati Bengals as Strength and Conditioning Fellow.

Wang earned a bachelor's degree in human physiology from the University of Oregon while also working as a Sports Science Assistant with Ducks football team.

David Keyes

Data Scientist & Recovery

David Keyes is in his third year in Data Science & Recovery for the Anaheim Ducks. In his role, Keyes manages the sports performance data and the recovery program for the Ducks.

He joined the Ducks in 2022 after spending two years working with the internal research team at the Gatorade Sports Science Institute. Keyes also spent four years (2017-21) with EXOS at the Mayo Clinic as a Performance Specialist working with athletes of all sports and levels to improve their performance and return from injury.

He held two internships in college athletics, serving as Strength and Conditioning/Sports Science Intern at Rutgers University (2016-17) and Strength and Conditioning Professional Intern at the University of Minnesota (2015-16).

Keyes earned a bachelor's degree at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in Kinesiology and is currently working to complete his master's degree in Applied Exercise Physiology at Concordia University Chicago. He is also a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist.

Jillian Chaney

Nutritionist

Jillian Chaney is in the midst of her fourth season as Nutritionist of the Anaheim Ducks. A Registered Dietitian Nutritionist (RDN), Chaney joined the Ducks during the 2021-22 season, focusing on player and staff nutrition, and overall wellness.

In addition to her role with the Ducks, she is a Performance Athletic and Nutrition Coach. Chaney is a certified coach for USA Triathlon (USAT) and USA Cycling (USAC), coaching athletes to successful Ironman 70.3 and 140.6 kilometer triathlon race finishes, including podium and world championship qualifying performances. She also currently serves as a clinical dietitian at Landmark Health, providing home-based care to chronically and critically ill patients, using food choices to prevent and treat illnesses by delivering nutrition assessment, care planning, progress monitoring, education and counseling.

Prior to earning a master's degree in Nutrition, Healthspan and Longevity from the University of Southern California, Chaney spent 17 years at Deloitte. She earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Duquesne University, a dual major in Management Information Systems and Accounting.

Chaney is a five-time Ironman Finisher while she represented Team USA in International Triathlon Union long course world championships.

Chris Aldrich

Head Equipment Manager

Chris Aldrich is in his seventh season as the Anaheim Ducks' Head Equipment Manager in 2024-25. Currently in his 18th season with the organization, he previously served nine seasons as an Assistant Equipment Manager with the Ducks from 2009-18.

Aldrich has more than 30 years of experience in professional hockey, working his 2,500th game Apr. 9, 2023 when the Ducks hosted Colorado. He also previously served as the Equipment Manager of previous Anaheim AHL affiliates in Iowa (2008-09) and Portland (2007-08).

Prior to joining the Ducks organization in 2007, he spent 10 seasons as Assistant Equipment Manager of the Boston Bruins. Aldrich also had AHL stints with Providence and Maine from 1990-96. In addition to his time with the Ducks and Bruins, Aldrich served as an equipment manager for Team USA at the 2010 IIHF World Championship in Germany.

A native of Windham, Maine, Aldrich majored in history at Rhode Island College. When away from the rink, he enjoys playing tennis and following NASCAR. Aldrich is also an avid runner, having completed the Boston Marathon on three separate occasions. Aldrich and his wife, Susan, reside in Yorba Linda with their son, Andrew (17).

Justin Penna

Assistant Equipment Manager

Justin Penna is in his first season with the Anaheim Ducks as Assistant Equipment Manager.

He joined the Ducks following three seasons with the Ontario Reign from 2021-24, most recently serving as the club's Head Equipment Manager during the 2023-24 season.

Penna was previously the Assistant Athletic Director, Equipment Services at Western Michigan University, where he worked primarily with the school's men's hockey program. He joined the Western Michigan Athletics staff as an Equipment Manager in 2015 after earning a bachelor's degree in athletic training in 2014. He also earned his master's degree from the university in business administration in 2020.

He served as the Equipment Manager for Team USA at two Ivan Hlinka Gretzky Cup tournaments (2019 and 2021), as well as the 2020 Winter Youth Olympic Games in Lausanne, Switzerland, where the U.S. earned a silver medal.

A native of Saugus, Calif, Justin now resides in Huntington Beach.

Jeff Tyni

Assistant Equipment Manager

Jeff Tyni is in his 20th season with the Ducks and his 10th as an Assistant Equipment Manager. Tyni previously worked with the Ducks as a Locker Room Assistant from 2005-15.

The Orange County native played in the Southern Professional Hockey League (Fayetteville) and served as a backup goaltender for several NHL and ECHL clubs. Before joining Anaheim's Hockey Operations staff, Tyni worked at Anaheim ICE as a Zamboni driver and with Honda Center's Event Crew. Tyni received a bachelor's degree from California State University, Fullerton.

Away from the rink, Tyni enjoys playing golf, traveling to Canada and spending time with his family. Tyni resides in Orange with his wife, Mira, and sons, Blake (7) and Luke (2).

HONDA CENTER

AND THE COMMUNITY

Spanning over 100 acres across the heart of Anaheim, OCVIBE is an immersive entertainment district that reimagines downtown culture for Orange County. It is a hub for a vibrant culture and a community connected through shared experiences with unique venues, extraordinary events, welcoming spaces and seamless amenities. OCVIBE is anchored by Honda Center, with additional entertainment, dining and living spaces currently in development to create an easily accessible, walkable district. Under the visionary leadership of the Samueli family, OCVIBE is committed to culture and economic impact in the region.

This new epicenter for Orange County will offer a new 5,700-capacity concert venue, 35 restaurants, two new hotels, new office space, a new residential community anchored by a neighborhood park, and 20 acres of publicly accessible parks and plazas. There will also be a network of pedestrian bridges and walkways, including a landmark bridge over Katella Avenue.

The proposed development will create more than 10,000 construction jobs, 3,000 permanent jobs upon completion. The Samueli family's $4 billion investment in OCVIBE is projected to generate more than $10 million per year in direct revenue for the city, while creating jobs that will enrich the surrounding communities.

OCVIBE will be built in phases, with the first opening to the public in 2026. At the heart of the development there will be four unique public plazas surrounding Honda Center. The Urban Park to the west will be more than three acres in size and anchored by a 5,700-capacity concert venue, a 60,000-square-foot market hall and multiple floors of creative office space, and landscaped boulevard called the Paseo, featuring retail and dining opportunities. The southern-facing plaza will be a hub of activity focused on sports with elevated walkways and ample opportunities for dining. The northern plaza will feature a collection of smaller entertainment experiences, and the eastern plaza will provide a garden setting with terraced seating, ideal for respite and special events. In addition, OCVIBE will feature ten acres of parks, including a five-acre riverfront park providing ample space for community gatherings, special concerts and events.

OCVIBE will also offer more than 1,500 residential apartments, filling a critical need for housing in Orange County, and includes a commitment of 15% affordable housing units onsite. These residential communities will have full access to the entertainment and lifestyle amenities including 20 acres of open space and more than three miles of trails.

A new 325,000-square-foot office tower will attract top employers to Anaheim, and when combined with other new and existing office buildings, the office campus will be over one million square-feet. OCVIBE will also feature two new hotels with 550 total rooms, providing a unique hospitality choice in the Anaheim marketplace focused on lifestyle and entertainment.

OCVIBE will be a transit-oriented community. The Master Plan integrates the existing transit center, known as ARTIC, into the broader district. Ridesharing will also be thoughtfully designed into the project, with onsite pickup and drop-off areas. OCVIBE is supported by a series of parking structures combined and increased road capacity, engineered to improve traffic flow and circulation.

Intentionally designed to be for everyone. OCVIBE is a one-of-a-kind, immersive, technology-enabled entertainment district. Whether visitors come here to relax, dine, be entertained - or perhaps all the above and more - they're sure to find experiences that fit their mood of personalized touches that make getting around so easy.

HONDA CENTER

Honda Center is one of the nation's premier venues for sports and entertainment, proudly serving as the home of the 2007 Stanley Cup champion Anaheim Ducks. Known for hosting world-class concerts, thrilling sporting events, and family-friendly shows, Honda Center remains a cornerstone of Southern California's live entertainment scene. Owned by the City of Anaheim and operated by Anaheim Arena Management, LLC, the arena first opened on June 17, 1993, with a sold-out performance by Barry Manilow just two days later. Formally named Arrowhead Pond, the venue made its debut as the home of the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim on October 8, 1993.

As the anchor of the OCVIBE mixed-use district, Honda Center is poised for an exciting new chapter. With upcoming enhancements on the horizon, the venue will continue to offer exceptional experiences while maintaining its legacy as a top destination for live entertainment. OCVIBE, a state-of-the-art district designed to bring people together through immersive experiences, positions Honda Center at the heart of this innovative vision for Anaheim.

Celebrating its 30th anniversary in 2023-24, Honda Center partnered with multi-platinum artist and hometown hero, Gwen Stefani, for a commemorative concert, kicking off the milestone year. The yearlong celebration culminated in a concert by Orange County's iconic punk rock band, The Offspring, marking the 30th anniversary of their hit album SMASH and Honda Center's three decades of impact in the community.

Situated in the heart of Orange County, just east of the 57 freeway on Katella Avenue, Honda Center is conveniently accessible by five major freeways (57, 22, 5, 91, 55), all located within a five-mile radius of the facility.

THE RINKS

The Rinks Development Program consists of eight local hockey and skating facilities throughout Southern California, offering a variety of hockey, skating and community programs for participants of all ages and ability levels. The Rinks include six ice rinks (Great Park Ice and FivePoint Arena, The Rinks - Anaheim ICE, The Rinks - KHS ICE, The Rinks - Lakewood ICE, The Rinks - Poway ICE, The Rinks - Yorba Linda ICE), as well as two inline facilities (The Rinks - Corona Inline and The Rinks - Irvine Inline).

Launched Feb. 13, 2009, The Rinks offer a variety of hockey and skating programs for participants of all ages and ability levels, and are home to thousands of youth and adult hockey players as well as recreational skaters to competitive Olympic figure skaters. The eight facilities combined welcome more than two million participants and visitors annually.

Programs include daily public ice skating and roller skating sessions, youth and adult hockey programs and leagues, figure skating, Learn to Skate and Learn to Play programs, curling, birthdays, group events, and other local corporate and community events.

The Rinks have been the official practice facility of the Anaheim Ducks for 28 years, with Great Park Ice now serving as the team's practice facility.

Home to the Jr. Ducks and Lady Ducks, San Diego Jr. Gulls and Lady Gulls, and the Anaheim Ducks High School Hockey League (ADHSHL), The Rinks have helped lead California to the fastest rate of youth hockey growth (40%) in the U.S. since 2015, while developing top hockey players and figure skaters. With the addition of The Rinks - KHS ICE, the Jr. Ice Dogs program, consisting of seven youth hockey teams from ages 8-18.

Athletes from The Rinks have become top NHL draft selections, Team USA Olympic Figure Skating gold medalists, USA Hockey Women's World Championship gold medalists, NCAA Women's Champions, USA Hockey Varsity High School hockey champions, (2013, 2018, 2019), U.S. Figure Skating Champions, Professional Skaters Association Hall of Fame coach and Coach of the Year.

The Ducks 'Learn to Play' program began at The Rinks in Orange County in 2011 with 330 skaters and has now grown to more than 4,600 annual participants (including expansion into San Diego in 2017). Since the program's debut, over 18,000 skaters have been introduced to the sport of hockey (13,500 youth/4,500 adults).

In 2016, USA Hockey recognized The Rinks, Jr. Ducks and Lady Ducks as Model Club Associations dedicated to age-appropriate, age-specific skill development, in accordance with USA Hockey's American Development Model. It marked the first time USA Hockey has honored three programs within an organization, while the program became only the 21st in the nation to be honored as a Model Club.

Great Park Ice is a state-of-the-art public ice facility at the Great Park in Irvine, Calif. Opened Mar. 7, 2019 and located in the Orange County Great Park, the 280,000-square-foot facility is the largest in California and one of the nation's most expansive ice facilities.

The $115-million Great Park Ice facility welcomes one million participants and visitors annually. Financially supported by the Samueli Foundation with zero taxpayer dollars, the facility includes four sheets of ice along with a 7,000-square-foot dryland training center, including FivePoint Arena which features seating for 2,500 spectators and a video board above center ice.

Great Park Ice is home to a 20,000-square-foot practice facility for the Anaheim Ducks, where the club also hosts its annual training camp and prospect development camp. The facility is also home of the Jr. Ducks and Lady Ducks programs, and serves as a training facility for U.S. Figure Skating. Great Park Ice hosts youth and adult hockey programs, regional and national tournaments, Learn to Skate and Learn to Play programs, sled hockey, figure skating, speed skating, curling, broomball, public recreational skating, the Top Flight program designed for participants with special needs, the Anaheim Ducks High School Hockey League and other local corporate and community events.

FivePoint Arena was the home of

San Diego Gulls during the 2020-21 American Hockey League (AHL) season during the COVID-19 pandemic, hosting 22 games. The facility also hosted the AHL's 2021 Play-In Round of the Pacific Division playoff tournament, hosting three contests of a single-elimination play-in tournament.

The Anaheim Ducks hosted their first-ever Rookie Faceoff tournament at Great Park Ice, Sept. 7-10, 2019, a six-team rookie tournament featuring nine total games. The Rookie Faceoff featured the Ducks, Los Angeles Kings, Vegas Golden Knights, Arizona Coyotes, San Jose Sharks and Colorado Avalanche. Great Park Ice also hosted the SoCal Clash series between the Harvard Crimson and Arizona State University Sun Devils, Dec. 28-29, 2019, marking the first NCAA Division I games in California since 1999.

Additional elements for the state-of-the-art complex include administrative offices, 24 locker rooms, a full-service sports-themed restaurant overlooking two sheets of ice, one concessions stand, an 800-square-foot Team Store, a 1,900-square-foot Pro Shop and over 1,000 free parking spots available. In addition, the facility is LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Silver certified as part of the NHL Green initiative.

All proceeds generated from the Great Park complex go to further the growth of ice sports and activities locally.

THE NAME, LOGOS & COLORS

HOW IT ALL BEGAN

On Oct. 2, 1992, Walt Disney Pictures released the hit movie “The Mighty Ducks” and created a new wave of excitement among the nation’s youth and the ice hockey community. Starring Emilio Estevez and a band of kids who learn to play and win as a team, “The Mighty Ducks” grossed $51 million at the box office and served as the inspiration for the name of the Walt Disney Company’s NHL club.

The original official team colors and logo were unveiled June 7, 1993, and Mighty Ducks merchandise immediately propelled into one of the top sellers in all of professional sports.

Plum, jade, silver and white were chosen as the team’s colors while an attractive crest featuring a duck head-shaped hockey mask was chosen to give the club its own unique identity. As a testament to the logo’s popularity, the original Ducks jersey was named the “most fashionable” uniform in all of sports at the inaugural ESPY Awards in 1997.

2024 BRAND EVOLUTION

On June 26, 2024, the Ducks unveiled the club’s new logo, home and away jerseys as part of a brand evolution featuring the classic and world-famous Ducks logo. Revolutionized by a vibrant transformation of the iconic duck mask with a refreshed twist now framed in vibrant orange as the bold primary color reflective of the team’s home in Orange County.

A return to the pinnacle of ‘90s hockey fashion, a new, powerful identity at home and on the road are not just apparel; they are an emblem of the team’s identity, embracing unexpected aggression that defines a path forward. Intended to align the club’s history, ambition and vision, a simplified design with sharper angles, clean lines and sharp contrasts were inspired by the vibrant culture, colors and energy of Orange County, elevating orange for a bold impactful look present throughout the uniforms, including the pants, helmet, socks and gloves.

A dynamic, aggressive orange eye in the Duck mask with a fearless expression symbolizes the evolving primary mark, a revolution to be faster, more exciting and more aggressive than ever before, both on and off the ice. The eyebrow has a more rounded, aggressive curve, marking an on-ice tenacity the team has developed over its three decades of existence and reflective of the miles of powerful Pacific Ocean rock reef and beach-break waves that crash up and down the coast. Elegant gold accents complete the look within the logo, adorning a shimmer effect to give a glimmer of Orange County’s iconic beaches.

Anaheim’s primary home jersey blends the past with the present, a cohesive design both modern and timeless. Anchored at the center of the bold jersey lies the refreshed iconic mask framed by a bold orange base. Accented by horizontal waist stripes and chevron shapes on the sleeves is a contrast of black, white and gold stripes transitioning into a black sleeve cuff.

The Ducks’ new away jerseys adorn a white base with bold, rounded orange throughout the shoulders. The accented horizontal waist stripes and chevron sleeves mimic the primary jersey with an orange sleeve cuff.

Both jerseys incorporate a bold new typeface and number palette modeled after Orange County’s turn of the century art deco styling commonly used in the citrus industry at that time. A modernized number typography includes shading elements of orange, black, gold and white.

PRIMARY JERSEYS

The club’s new look in 2024 will be the fourth set of primary jerseys since the Ducks’ inception in 1993. Following the inaugural Mighty Ducks jerseys (1993-2006), a new era as the Anaheim Ducks with a typographic mark (2006-14) featured prior to the most recent iteration of the integration of the stylized “D” that echoed the image of a duck’s foot (2014-24).

In the spring of 2005, Henry and Susan Samueli entered into an agreement with the Walt Disney Company to purchase the Ducks franchise. On June 22, 2006, a new era began for the franchise as the team became officially known as the Anaheim Ducks. In addition, a new logo and color scheme were unveiled. A classic color palette of black and metallic gold was developed, with an accent of orange as a metaphorical link to the team's Orange County home.

The result was a strong, typographic mark anchored by a stylized "D" that echoed the image of a duck's foot or footprint. The custom typography had a powerful forward momentum and was made up of metallic gold letters with orange drop-shadows and a black holding shape. The uniforms were an evolution of the earlier sweater design but with gold, white and orange sweeping stripes influenced by the curves of the "D" in the Ducks logo. Set with a new look for the 2006-07 season, the Ducks made history and won the Stanley Cup.

Beginning with the 2014-15 season, the club's 2010-14 black third jersey was transformed into the new primary sweater. A white "road" version of the jersey was added in 2014-15. Both versions of the jersey now incorporate white laces and permanent integration with the "D" on both sweaters.

THIRD JERSEYS

The Ducks have worn eight alternate looks in club history. The original Third Jersey began with a cartoon Duck breaking through a sheet of ice in 1995-96. The next iteration of a Third Jersey from 1997-2000 saw a white home jersey sporting the Mighty Ducks crest accompanied by jade, plum and silver stripes covering the sleeves and shoulders. The 1997-98 season also introduced a "fourth" sweater of the same striping style but with a green sweater base through the 1999-00 campaign. The club moved to a more classic approach with its next sweater, using black with dark plum, silver and white accenting as its color palette for the alternate jersey with an "Anaheim" script across the chest worn during the 2003-04 and 2005-06 seasons.

The fifth alternate jersey made its initial appearance Oct. 16, 2015 and featured the original Mighty Ducks logo set on an orange jersey accented with gold, black and white trim. The jersey was reintroduced on Oct. 5, 2019 through 2022-23 following appearances from 2015-17.

Anaheim's third jersey in 2018-19 (25th anniversary season) featured the original Mighty Ducks crest with eggplant and jade striping from the Ducks iconic look of the team's inaugural 1993-94 season. The sweater incorporated orange in the crossed hockey sticks of the team's original mark and featured silver as a primary accent color, paying tribute to the team's 25th anniversary season in 2018-19.

In 2020-21, the seventh alternate jersey made its debut as part of the adidas and NHL's Reverse Retro collection. Anchored in white with eggplant and jade striping, the Ducks Reverse Retro jersey features the design from the team's iconic "Breakout" Jersey worn during the 1995-96 season. The Reverse Retro collection returned in 2022-23, with the bold jersey design finds its inspiration in the Ducks inaugural season uniform, remixed in today's team colorway.

The 2023-24 saw the 30th anniversary honor the club's history with the jersey anchored in plum and jade as an ode to the original 1993-94 season road jersey. At the heart of the jersey, a mark familiar to most, took center stage with a crest featuring the original circular "Mighty Ducks" shoulder patch with Wild Wing.

STADIUM SERIES

The Anaheim Ducks and Los Angeles Kings wore specially designed jerseys and uniforms for the 2014 Coors Light NHL Stadium Series™ contest at Dodger Stadium Jan. 25, 2014. Anaheim's first-ever orange jersey featured a chrome-treated "D" logo, unique to the 2014 Coors Light NHL Stadium Series™ contest and inspired from the chrome details in the NHL shield.

Anaheim's orange jersey for the game included enlarged player numbers for improved visibility in an outdoor venue, as well as a shoulder logo to signify the geographic rivalry between the Ducks and Kings. An interlocked "OC" logo appeared on the left shoulder of the jersey. The NHL Stadium Series jersey was designed with creative input from the Ducks, Reebok and the NHL.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Commitment to community is one of the fundamental values of the Anaheim Ducks organization. The Ducks strive to be actively involved in the local community, ranging from outreach and fundraising events, in-kind donations, charity tickets and the dedicated involvement of the players, coaches, broadcasters, staff, Orange Alliance members, corporate partners and fans.

Under the guidance and example set forth by our owners, Henry and Susan Samueli, philanthropic support and giving is not only our responsibility as a member of the Southern California community, but something that is ingrained in the identity and culture of the team, staff and fan base.

ANAHEIM DUCKS FOUNDATION

The mission of the Anaheim Ducks Foundation is to facilitate and support programs that produce positive change for children and families throughout Southern California by providing educational opportunities, broadening access to the sport of hockey, and addressing the health and wellness needs of our community. Through funds raised, the Ducks are able to support the Anaheim Ducks S.C.O.R.E. program, Learn to Play and inclusive hockey programs, and provide grants to a variety of local nonprofits.

S.C.O.R.E. (Scholastic Curriculum of Recreation & Education)

The Anaheim Ducks S.C.O.R.E. program offers free educational, standards-based curriculum to over 300 schools in five counties, reaching over 45,000 unique students annually. Impacting over 775,000 students since its inception in 2005, the S.C.O.R.E. program was developed to provide students access to valuable educational resources. Ducks S.C.O.R.E. provides physical education materials, science programming and school supplies while supporting teachers and educators with resources to foster a positive classroom environment, using hockey as a vehicle to teach and create opportunity.

Learn to Play

Learn to Play offers first-time hockey players the chance to get on the rink in full hockey equipment for free. Players receive instruction on the basics of hockey and skating. Participants in Anaheim Ducks Learn to Play are provided with full equipment to use for the four-week session. Since 2013, close to 25,000 children and adults have laced up their skates and hit the ice. In addition, the Anaheim Ducks Foundation provides all children who graduate from Learn to Play and sign-up for The Rinks in-house league a complimentary first set of gear to start their hockey careers, with more than 7,000 sets provided to date.

Inclusive Hockey Programs

In collaboration with the NHL's Hockey is for Everyone initiative, the Anaheim Ducks and The Rinks have created a variety of programs supporting adaptive and inclusive hockey. To make sure that the sport of hockey is accessible and available to all, the Ducks adaptive hockey programs include Top Flight, which teaches street hockey, ice hockey and ice skating to individuals with intellectual disabilities; sled hockey, which is designed for physically disabled youth and adults; blind hockey which provides opportunities for individuals with visual impairments; and deaf/hard of hearing hockey for individuals who have been diagnosed with a hearing loss.

ANAHEIM DUCKS FOUNDATION SIGNATURE EVENTS

Anaheim Ducks Annual Golf Classic

The annual Anaheim Ducks Golf Classic presented by Honda features Anaheim Ducks players as the celebrity fifth player for a round of golf alongside Ducks fans and supporters. The event features on-course competitions include a putting contest, longest drive, a hockey shot, closest to the pin, the "Penalty Kill," beat-the-pro contests and more.

All proceeds raised benefit the Anaheim Ducks Foundation. Since 2008, the Golf Classic has raised over $1.5 million to benefit the Anaheim Ducks Foundation.

Go Orange for Orangewood

Go Orange for Orangewood stands as the team's annual themed cocktail party that gives Ducks fans and Orangewood Foundation supporters the chance to cheer on the Ducks during a Go Orange for Orangewood themed game and mix and mingle, alongside Ducks players post-game.

Since 2005, over $1.6 million in proceeds from the event have gone to assist 44 Women for Orangewood, an auxiliary of Orangewood Foundation, to support college scholarships and Peer Mentor programs for former foster care youth.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Dux in Tux

Dux in Tux presented by Honda is an Anaheim Ducks signature event where players take on the role as celebrity sous chefs, joining Orange County's finest chefs to provide guests an evening of fabulous food and fun - all to benefit a great cause. Proceeds from Dux in Tux presented by Honda benefit the Anaheim Ducks Foundation.

The evening includes a silent auction, opportunity drawing, and live auction filled with Ducks memorabilia and unique player experiences. Dux in Tux presented by Honda is the ideal night for Ducks fans to interact with their favorite Ducks players, all while enjoying a night of fine dining, quality service and exceptional cuisine. In the 22-year history, this fan-favorite event has raised nearly $6.5 million to support the community.

Anaheim Lady Ducks Fashion Show

In the spring, the Anaheim Lady Ducks - wives and significant others of players, coaches, and executive management - show off their fashion sense by hosting the Anaheim Lady Ducks Fashion Show benefiting Children's Hospital of Orange County (CHOC).

The event gives attendees the chance to spend the afternoon enjoying lunch with Ducks players and a fashion show featuring members of the team, their wives/significant others and CHOC ambassadors walking the runway as they show off the latest spring fashion trends. Since 2008, the Lady Ducks have fundraised over $2 million to support CHOC.

Ducks Alumni Golf Tournament

Introduced in 2023, the annual Ducks Alumni Golf Tournament features former Ducks players hitting the links alongside Ducks fans to raise funds for Merging Vets & Players (MVP), a local military veteran transitional service through the Anaheim Ducks Foundation. The day full of golf and fun with fan-favorite Ducks of the past culminates with cocktails and awards at the 19th Hole Reception where course competition winners and top finishing foursomes are recognized for their achievements.

ANAHEIM DUCKS COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Holiday Shopping Spree

Anaheim Ducks players, significant others, and staff serve as holiday helpers during the holiday season as part of the annual Shopping Spree, which provides students from The Wooden Floor - a nonprofit organization serving low-income Santa Ana youth - the unique opportunity to load up their shopping carts with necessities and gifts for their families in celebration of the holiday season. The Anaheim Ducks players, joined by the Lady Ducks, assist The Wooden Floor students as they shop for new clothes, toys, and other essentials as a special holiday treat, all underwritten by the Anaheim Ducks and Anaheim Ducks player families.

Power PLAY!

Each season, Ducks staff, Orange Alliance members and corporate partners of the Anaheim Ducks and Honda Center team up to volunteer for a day of beautification projects at local S.C.O.R.E. elementary schools. From installing a street hockey rink to painting murals, building gardens and planting trees, the Power PLAY! is a great day for the volunteers to give back to the community. Twelve rinks and counting have been gifted to local schools to help their S.C.O.R.E. programs continue to grow.

Staff Volunteering

The Ducks, Honda Center, OCVIBE and The Rinks employees share the Anaheim Ducks commitment to the community and throughout the year are actively engaged in assisting the community through volunteer service. From beautification projects at local schools and nonprofit organizations, supporting families in-need with gifts during the holiday season, to sharing their professional experience as a resource for those looking to get back in the workforce, our staff are inspired volunteers always willing to do their part.

Anaheim Lady Ducks

The Anaheim Ducks wives and significant others group, the Lady Ducks, are dedicated to assisting the local Southern California community through fundraising and volunteerism. This inspired group of ladies have assisted such organizations as CHOC, The Wooden Floor and the Jessie Rees Foundation. In addition to hosting the annual Fashion Show, the Lady Ducks have also assisted in game-night activities such as Hockey Fights Cancer awareness night at Honda Center and with them Ducks holiday activities such as the toy drives, ornament sales and Families Helping Families gift program.

Anaheim Ducks Alumni Association

The Anaheim Ducks Alumni Association is composed of former Ducks players who are actively involved in the Ducks community initiatives. Ducks Alumni members have participated in charitable events such as Ducks Alumni charity hockey games, serving as sous chefs at Dux in Tux and assisting with

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

The Rinks youth hockey programs. The alumni are an enthusiastic group, looking to contribute to the community goals of the organization and provide a fantastic way for fans to interact with some of their favorite Ducks of the past.

Donations

The Anaheim Ducks are dedicated to assisting charitable organizations throughout Southern California to raise funds by providing auction items for local events. Organizations interested in requesting a donation must be a 501(c)(3) agency located in Southern California. Requests must be submitted at least eight weeks prior to the date of the event online through the Ducks website: AnaheimDucks.com/DonationRequest.

IN-GAME PROGRAMS & ACTIVITIES

Anaheim Ducks games are a terrific opportunity to feature local nonprofit organizations and highlight the needs in the community. Each season, the Ducks host a variety of activities at home games, including awareness nights for the NHL initiative Hockey Fights Cancer Night presented by UCI Health, Military Appreciation Night presented by Pacific Premier Bank, PRIDE Night, Green Night presented by Arrowhead Water, and CHOC Night. In addition, the Ducks hold toy drives throughout the month of December with Anaheim Fire & Rescue.

Launched during the 2020-21 season, the Anaheim Ducks added We Care Wednesdays to their in-game efforts. On Wednesday games throughout the NHL season, the Anaheim Ducks and Anaheim Ducks Foundation celebrate the amazing work of select nonprofit partners who make a positive impact in our community. We are proud to recognize the spirit and strength of our nonprofit partners and invite our fans to support the important services being provided to assist our community.

50/50 Raffle

The 50/50 Raffle is an exciting chance for fans to win a cash prize while also helping the Anaheim Ducks Foundation continue to expand the reach of its community programs throughout Southern California. One lucky fan receives half of the jackpot total from the raffle ticket sales that game and the other half benefits the Anaheim Ducks Foundation. The 50/50 Raffle has raised close to $2.2 million dollars directly benefiting the Anaheim Ducks Foundation.

Surprise Puck Fundraiser

Each season, the Anaheim Ducks Foundation sells a commemorative series Surprise Puck set, featuring four limited edition pucks with proceeds benefiting the Anaheim Ducks Foundation. Fans pick an individually wrapped puck at random and receive either a Ducks player-autographed commemorative puck or one of 23 surprise orange pucks. The lucky winners of the commemorative Surprise Puck fundraiser win a variety of great Ducks prizes.

Samueli Academy T-Shirt Design Contest

The Samueli Academy T-Shirt Design Contest tasks design students from the Samueli Academy with a project to create an Anaheim Ducks branded t-shirt. The Samueli Academy is a project-based learning curriculum, so the contest allows for the students to hone their design skills, work in a group environment as well as make a formal presentation to pitch their designs.

Winners of the Samueli Academy T-Shirt Design Contest are recognized during a pre-game ceremony where their winning designs are revealed to the Ducks fans and then made available for purchase with proceeds from the sales of the shirts benefiting the Samueli Academy.

Community Corner presented by Western National Property Management

The Anaheim Ducks Community Corner presented by Western National Property Management is a season-long program that provides complimentary tickets to every Anaheim Ducks preseason and regular season home game to local nonprofit organizations through the generous sponsorship of corporate partners. The Community Corner program was established to provide the opportunity to experience Ducks hockey to individuals and groups who may not be able to do so otherwise.

Launched in 2015, the Ducks began the tradition of creating a spot on their Opening Night roster for the 21st Duck to honor a fan who embodies perseverance, character, and courage, and inspiration, or is making significant contributions to our community. Each fall, the Ducks receive hundreds of submissions for the 21st Duck, inviting fans to share inspirational stories of Ducks fans who have demonstrated resilience and dedication. Each season, the chosen submission is introduced as the team's 21st Duck as part of the club's home opener at Honda Center.

Trent Sullivan - 2023-24

Trent Sullivan was introduced as the 2023-24 21st Duck on Oct. 15, 2023 vs. Carolina when the club opened its home schedule for the 30th Anniversary season. Sullivan was born with a congenital heart defect and needed a heart transplant when he was just days old. Since then he has also undergone a kidney transplant, pacemaker surgery and chemotherapy.

Sullivan, who is basically a walking, talking miracle, turned 30 this year. Seemingly nothing can slow Sullivan down, volunteering for Camp del Corazon, American Heart Association, Children's Health of Orange County (CHOC) Miracle Network and Renal Support Network, four worthy causes that aid and support patients and families that are in situations similar to his.

He is also a part of Grant's Wishes, a non-profit set up by his family that honors his late brother Grant who died from childhood cancer in 2002.

Ethan Baroldi - 2022-23

The Ducks introduced 10-year-old Ethan Baroldi as the 2022-23 21st Duck on Oct. 12, 2022 vs. Seattle. Ethan has battled through four heart surgeries, the first coming when he was six weeks old, the most recent in 2020. After the initial surgery, Ethan also suffered a stroke and was airlifted to the hospital, which led to two of his heart surgeries. Through it all, Ethan persevered and began skating at age six as part of the Ducks Learn to Play Program Powered by Ryan Getzlaf and Corey Perry.

As Ethan fell in love with hockey and his beloved Ducks, another potential roadblock would arrive. In 2020, in the middle of the COVID-19 pandemic, doctors would recommend a fourth heart surgery. Not to be denied and after a year away from hockey, Ethan made the Jr. B Ducks team in 2021.

A grateful Ethan and his family have given back to those who were critical in his treatment. His family organized Team Ethan Factor 5 as part of the Orange County Ronald McDonald House Walk for Kids at Honda Center. They also support the American Heart Association, with Ethan inspiring his classmates to join the Jump Rope for Heart campaign.

Luke Gane - 2021-22

Luke Gane became the sixth 21st Duck honoree on Oct. 13, 2021, during Anaheim's home opener vs. Winnipeg. In 2008, before football practice, Luke Gane experienced a nosebleed that lasted over an hour. The Edison high school junior had high hopes to earn a football scholarship that year but soon found himself at CHOC hospital needing a bone marrow transplant. His diagnosis: severe aplastic anemia. Luke needed a transplant quickly and out of his four younger brothers, his youngest two (identical twins) brothers were matches. When asked who would help their older brother, 10-year-old Jacob raised his hand just before his twin brother Noah. With chemotherapy and a successful bone marrow transplant from Jacob, Luke had a four month stay at CHOC.

With determination and great support from his family, friends and coaches, Luke returned for his senior year in high school as a starter on the football team. He was able to help his team to an undefeated regular season and went on to play on the UCLA football team as a preferred walk-on.

Now, Luke, a special education teacher at Westminster High School, jumps at the chance to encourage and inspire CHOC patients. To this day, his doctors will call him to speak to new patients with similar diagnoses and their families to provide words of encouragement and inspiration. He is also a supporter and advocate for the Aplastic Anemia Foundation (AAMDS).

Luke has been a Ducks fan since he was three years old. He loved wearing his Paul Kariya jersey everywhere and played inline hockey throughout his childhood, even inspiring his brothers and his father to take up the sport as well. Today, Luke continues to play ice hockey in a recreational league at The Rinks. He loved it when the Ducks players would visit him during his CHOC stay and has remained a steadfast supporter of his favorite hockey club.

Angelique Fong - 2020-21

Angelique Fong became the fifth 21st Duck on Jan. 18, 2021. Angelique is a two-time cancer survivor and mentor to cancer patients. Seven weeks after marrying the love of her life, Angelique, was diagnosed with breast cancer at age 39. Despite no symptoms, she had started on a cycle of mammograms and MRIs at the age of 35 because her mother was a two-time breast cancer survivor.

Already familiar with Susan G. Komen Orange County because of her mother's fight against cancer, Angelique served as a mentor to newly diagnosed breast cancer patients, volunteered at their free mobile mammography unit, and was a spokesperson at fundraising events. She turned her passion for running into a purpose: she has run over 40 half marathons and three marathons and counting, including a 48-mile challenge over four days twice, dedicating each mile to fellow cancer warriors.

Five years after winning her first battle, Angelique received the news that her breast cancer returned in April 2019 despite a double mastectomy. After three surgeries, Angelique created a "Radiate Kindness" initiative, including 33 random acts of kindness, one for each of her radiation treatments, to turn her radiation treatment into an opportunity to help others. Gestures ranged from monetary donations to her favorite causes; in-kind donations- homemade blankets to fellow cancer patients and children at CHOC, pet supplies to OC Animal Care, donating books to the library; and pay-it-forward surprises at the drive-thru window.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Angelique was unable to be introduced during the home opener of the 2020-21 season, but the team flipped the script on her. On Feb. 17, 2021, the Ducks players, coaches and staff sat in the Honda Center seats and surprised Angelique with a standing ovation as she was introduced and walked out onto the ice for the first time.

As a longtime season ticket holder, Angelique credits the Ducks with being an important part of her life and throughout her cancer journey. Because of her perseverance and bravery, Angelique was honored with the Susan G. Komen Orange County 2019 "Most Inspirational Breast Cancer Survivor" Award.

Lera Doederlein - 2019-20

Lera Doederlein was introduced as the fourth 21st Duck at Honda Center on Oct. 3, 2019.

Born in Russia and adopted at the age of 21 months, Doederlein wore leg braces and used crutches most of her life due to being born with a condition called Arthrogryposis Multiplex Congenita (in both legs). After several surgeries and facing life in a wheelchair, Doederlein decided to take control of her mobility in 2017 and elected to have a double above-knee amputation. She was just 14 years of age at the time. Lera became dedicated to finding and creating her own way in sports as a bilateral amputee, as well as advocating and serving as an ambassador for adaptive sports.

Not long after her surgery, Lera was shown the sport of sled hockey at a sport amputee clinic and quickly fell in love with the game. Originally from Arizona, Lera began playing for the Arizona Coyotes sled program, and in 2018, she moved to San Diego where she joined the San Diego Ducks Sled hockey team. Beginning on the youth team, she served as a mentor to her teammates through her leadership, kindness and passion for the sport and scored 10 of the team's 19 goals in leading the team to the USA Hockey Disabled Hockey Festival's national championship.

Lera serves as a featured athlete for the Challenged Athletes Foundation, which provides opportunities and support to people with physical challenges, so they can pursue active lifestyles through physical fitness and competitive athletics.

In 2022, Lera represented Team USA at the Paralympic Winter Games in Beijing. She participated in the Sprint Biathlon, Middle-Distance Biathlon, Sprint Cross-Country, Middle-Distance Cross-Country.

Michael Lu - 2018-19

Michael Lu became the third 21st Duck when he was introduced at Honda Center on Oct. 8, 2018. A dedicated Ducks fan since 1993, Michael was diagnosed with Parkinson's at 28. He plans on not only finding a cure for Parkinson's, but to inspire others that this disease is solely just a disease. Parkinson's is a part of him, but it does not define him.

Michael was raised playing roller and ice hockey since age four in the Jr. Ducks program. He continued playing locally until his diagnosis in 2017. Even though he cannot play at the level he once did, he continued to work as a hockey instructor in the Ducks Learn to Play Program where he helped grow children's hockey skills and love for the game.

Michael earned a master's degree in Educational Psychology to counsel children with disabilities. Michael is optimistic and hopeful about life and his journey with Parkinson's. He works with the nonprofit organization Parkinson's Resource Organization as a member of the Board of Directors and is making it his mission to take his diagnosis to help raise awareness for Parkinson's to find a cure.

Katie Hawley - 2017-18

Katie Hawley became the second 21st Duck on Oct. 5, 2017, when she was introduced at Honda Center. Katie has been battling neuroblastoma since the age of nine, a rare childhood cancer. Katie had defeated cancer twice and endured countless surgeries, chemotherapy sessions, radiation treatments, scans, and blood transfusions. When Katie was diagnosed with cancer for the third time in December 2016, her spirits were low, and she told her parents that she did not want to fight anymore. Katie was given tickets to attend a Ducks game with her family. She credits watching that game and her favorite player, Rickard Rakell, as a key to reenergizing her drive to beat the disease.

Katie not only continues to fight the disease, but she also inspires others. Katie is a Courageous Kid with the Jessie Rees Foundation, a nonprofit organization ensuring that every child fighting cancer has the support to "Never Ever Give Up!" She has also helped raise awareness through the Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation's 5K run, the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life and has created her own way to give back to patients in need through S.O.S., Stuff Our Slippers.

As part of her 21st Duck experience,

Katie joined the team for practice to prepare for her Opening Night skate onto Honda Center ice - joined Rickard Rakell on the pre-game Orange Carpet - and then was led out onto the ice by Rakell and Corey Perry for player introductions, where she told them both to score goals that night. Perry had two goals in the game, and Rakell broke a 4-4 tie with the eventual game-winner late in regulation.

Kai Quinonez - 2015-16

Kai Quinonez is the inaugural 21st Duck. He was introduced to a sold-out crowd during the Ducks home opener on Oct. 12, 2015, at Honda Center through the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Orange County and Inland Empire. A youth hockey player, Kai was diagnosed with aplastic anemia when he was nine, and through the Make-A-Wish Foundation, he was afforded the opportunity to practice with the Ducks and join them for the home opener.

Kai was originally granted a day with the team and took part in a practice with Ducks players but was surprised by the club in what was the start of an inspiring new tradition. Kai, then 13 years old, arrived for Opening Night to walk the Orange Carpet with his favorite player, Hampus Lindholm. Kai skated out onto the Honda Center ice during the player introduction and was introduced as the 21st member of the Ducks for the 2015-16 season.

As part of his Make-A-Wish, Upper Deck surprised Kai by unveiling his very own Upper Deck Young Guns rookie card during the game at Honda Center in front of his family and fans in attendance. With a dream to play hockey, Kai played in multiple seasons for Los Alamitos High School in the Anaheim Ducks High School Hockey League from 2017-19.

YOUTH HOCKEY AND FAN DEVELOPMENT

The Anaheim Ducks are committed to growing the game of hockey in Southern California. Together with the NHL and USA Hockey, the team strives to provide opportunities for people from all walks of life to take part in the game.

FAN DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS

The award-winning Anaheim Ducks S.C.O.R.E. (Scholastic Curriculum Of Recreation & Education) program was developed by the Ducks in 2005 with the goal of making a positive impact with youth in local schools and hockey communities throughout Southern California. Based on the team's goals in the community and through funding from the Anaheim Ducks Foundation, Ducks S.C.O.R.E. has been made free of charge to all its participants. The program uses the sport of hockey to teach educational themes, encourage healthy and active living, reinforce the importance of positive character building, and reward youth for their dedication of pursuing academic excellence.

Through its initiatives, Ducks S.C.O.R.E. has contributed to the educational landscape within traditional and non-traditional settings while impacting over 45,000 students annually. It provides educators with viable alternatives to costly programming, especially during times when funding for extra-curricular programs have decreased, or in some cases, cut entirely. As a testament to the program's success in its community, Ducks S.C.O.R.E. has received local, state, and national awards from educational organizations; it has also inspired local educators, organizations, and museums to include the use of hockey within the walls of their educational settings. Ducks S.C.O.R.E. in its entirety, is a multifaceted program. It is comprised of two major parts, an in-class education initiative and a physical education curriculum featuring street hockey.

Reading is the Goal

Reading Is the Goal is part of the Anaheim Ducks S.C.O.R.E. In-Class Education Program and rewards fourth grade students for their time spent reading per day within a flexible 30-day period. Its goals are to convey the importance of reading as the foundation to success and to help students cultivate a life-long love for reading. Since its inception, Reading Is the Goal has made significant contributions within schools. It has raised students' reading proficiency as well as test scores among its participants. Through its work in the community, Reading Is the Goal has received awards from the International Reading

Association (IRA).

Reading Is the Goal is an effective literacy program implemented in classrooms with flexibility and with a minor time commitment. Over a 30-day period, students record their daily reading times on an official Reading Is the Goal form. The Ducks reward students based upon their participation and personal achievement reaching various plateau levels of 600, 1200, 1800, and 3000 total minutes read. To help encourage all students to read, they can work together to win great prizes for their entire classroom. Teachers who participate in this free program will receive an official Ducks Reading Is the Goal Kit containing materials to supplement student engagement in the program. These materials include a Reading Is the Goal two (2) pocket folders, pencil pouch, pencil, eraser, and reading chart.

Reading Is the Goal Day is the Anaheim Ducks' annual event used to promote literacy and the importance of education to students locally. Each year, the Ducks select a school from its Ducks S.C.O.R.E. Reading Is the Goal participants from the previous year as a recipient of this exciting day. Ducks executive and front office members visit each classroom to interact with students as well as read to them. The event concludes with an all-school assembly with Anaheim Ducks players reading a children's book, conduct a question-and-answer session, and present gifts to the school.

First Flight Field Trip

Part of the S.C.O.R.E. curriculum, the annual First Flight Field Trip that transforms Honda Center into the largest science of hockey classroom in North America with over 16,000 students from 150 schools per year. First Flight encourages students to engage in and explore science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) through a variety of activities and demonstrations. STEM education is a fundamental part of the Anaheim Ducks S.C.O.R.E. program and is utilized to ignite students' interest and passion in the STEM fields.

Recognized as an educational event for all ages by the California State Assembly and as a contributor to informal education by the National Science Teachers' Association, First Flight is completely free to participating schools and students, and the curriculum has been designed to meet the state's educational content standards for grades 3-6. First Flight was the recipient of the 2010 Michael Faraday Science Communicator Award from the NSTA for its contributions to informal education through its unique and innovative methods to communicate in-class subjects such as math and science. The award was created in 2003 when the Discovery Channel teamed with NSTA, to honor individuals/organizations that are not classroom teachers but who work in or have developed a compatible setting for science communication (e.g., museum, nature center, zoo, state park, aquarium, radio, television, internet, and other science-rich institutions and/or media).

Captain's Challenge

The Captain's Challenge is a health and fitness program that was created to help students learn to become a captain like the Anaheim Ducks captains of past and present. Through lessons on leadership, perseverance, integrity, courage, and accountability, students will understand how to lead themselves and others to better health and fitness. This month-long program was designed to inspire, motivate, and empower students while placing minimal burden for implementation in the classroom. As an added benefit of participating in the Captain's Challenge activities, students will be better prepared for their fifth grade California Physical Fitness Test.

The Captain's Challenge Fit Finals is the culminating experience for schools in the Captain's Challenge Program. This event helps teachers administer five of the six required testing areas [aerobic capacity, abdominal strength, trunk extensor strength, upper body strength, and flexibility] for the State of California Grade Five Physical Fitness assessment. Anaheim Ducks and community partners are on hand to record students' scores and encourage them in a highly exciting and energetic atmosphere similar to a marathon or 10k race.

Street Hockey Program

The Anaheim Ducks S.C.O.R.E. Street Hockey program is a free program designed to promote the game of hockey and physical fitness currently implemented in 75 public and private schools throughout Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino Counties.

The 10-day curriculum is intended to be taught as an in-school PE module and is guaranteed to be received by students with excitement. With the help of local educational organizations such as the Orange County Department of Education, the curriculum was created to follow the physical activity, fitness, balance, motor skills, and movement concepts listed in the California Physical Education Standards for fourth grade students. Street hockey, according to these organizations, is an age-appropriate sport for fourth graders as it addresses many of the physical and mental outcomes for these students. Schools in the program receive a full donation of street hockey equipment which includes sticks, balls, nets, goaltender protection, and student instruction workbooks.

The Anaheim Ducks S.C.O.R.E. Street Hockey Shootout is an annual event inviting all schools from its physical education program to participate in a one-day street hockey festival at Honda Center. The featured portion of the event is a street hockey tournament in which fourth grade students from these schools compete against other schools for the perpetual Ducks S.C.O.R.E. Shootout Cup.

YOUTH HOCKEY PROGRAMS

Irvine ICE Foundation consists of the Anaheim Jr. Ducks, Anaheim Lady Ducks, and the Anaheim Ducks High School Hockey League. It is a youth hockey organization dedicated to the development of players at every skill level. The IIF youth hockey programs have 20-plus years of tradition as one of the premier hockey programs in Southern California. USA Hockey recognized The Rinks, the Jr. Ducks and the Lady Ducks as Model Club Associations dedicated to age-appropriate, age-specific skill development, in accordance with USA Hockey's American Development Model. It marked the first time USA Hockey has honored three programs within an organization, while the program became only the 21st in the nation to be honored as a Model Club. The youth hockey programs offer competitive teams for boys (ages 6-18) and girls (ages 6-19).

The IIF programs have produced four first-round NHL Draft picks and 10 players overall the last five years. The program also develops numerous men's and women's NCAA Division 1 and 3 student athletes. Four players developed by the Jr. Ducks were selected in the 2024 NHL Draft, including the highest selection by a Jr. Ducks player, Zeev Buim (12th overall) by the Minnesota Wild.

The Lady Ducks are the leading girls hockey program in Southern California and all of the Western United States, with over 150 athletes signing at the NCAA Division I and III as well as ACHA College Hockey. The San Diego Jr. Gulls joined IIF in October 2020. The Jr. Gulls are the largest youth hockey program in San Diego and one of the top programs in California having consisted of teams from 8-under to 18-under for more than 40 years. There are currently 11 Jr. Gulls teams. The Jr. Gulls have developed players that have progressed to the NHL, other professional leagues, NCAA, Junior A Tier 1 & 2, and the U.S. National Team Development Program (USNTDP).

The Lady Ducks program has developed several of the top players in women's hockey. Notable Lady Ducks alumni include two-time Olympian and NCAA National Champion, Cayla Barnes. She was selected by Montreal in the first round (fifth overall) in the 2024 Professional Women's Hockey League (PWHL) Draft.

Anaheim Ducks High School Hockey League

The Anaheim Ducks High School Hockey League (ADHSHL) began with one team in 2008, growing to over 55 teams from over 30 schools in Southern California. The league consists of five divisions (varsity divisions 1-3 and two junior varsity divisions). The ADHSHL All-Star Games take place annually in January and feature some of the best high school hockey players in Southern California. The league features weekly games at various rink locations operated by The Rinks & Great Park Ice, including Anaheim ICE, Great Park Ice & FivePoint Arena, Honda Center, Lakewood ICE and San Diego Ice Arena.

The goal of the ADHSHL is to provide student-athletes a positive high school hockey experience on the ice, as well as academically and socially. The league has also won three National Championships at the USA Hockey Nationals, with Santa Margarita winning in 2013, 2018 and 2019 (finalist in 2015). In addition, seven local teams affiliated with the Ducks programs won California State Championships in 2015 with three additional teams winning the Southern California Amateur Hockey Association Championships. In 2021, the Capistrano Coyotes were a Finalist in the Division 2 National Championship. Numerous players have been drafted by NHL.

G.O.A.L. Hockey

The Anaheim Ducks G.O.A.L. (Growth Outreach & Awareness Locally) Hockey program is a grassroots initiative created to develop community-based projects that promote and educate local Orange County youth about the sport of hockey and the Anaheim Ducks. G.O.A.L. strives to develop new ways to keep our community and youth involved in hockey, whether it be street, inline, or ice. With tournaments, leagues, clinics, or events throughout the NHL season, G.O.A.L. has several programs available to help grow the sport in Southern California.

G.O.A.L. takes pride in implementing a programmatic pathway that molds local youth into hockey players in the community. After youth participate in the S.C.O.R.E. Street Hockey program, participating schools have the opportunity to sign their students up for the i3 Roller Hockey League. Here, students will have the opportunity to continue playing the sport of hockey through 8th grade. Following i3, numerous participants have graduated from roller hockey and take on the new endeavor of ice hockey in the Anaheim Ducks High School Hockey League (ADHSHL).

i3 Roller Hockey League

The Anaheim Ducks i3 (Interscholastic Inline Initiative) Roller Hockey League is an interscholastic league offered to students in 5th-8th grade. The season takes place from March through May with all games taking place directly after school. The league currently consists of junior varsity and varsity divisions, with teams from ten Orange County schools. The Anaheim Ducks host the annual i3 Showcase Games and Skills Competition at The Rinks-Irvine Inline, which features at least one representative from each team. Each representative is selected by their coaches based on their commitment to academics and their team. At the culmination of the season, all participating teams advance to the playoffs for the opportunity to be crowned champions. The Anaheim Ducks have provided opportunities to several Title I schools to assist in providing students the opportunity to play in the league.

- Scored 12-17=29 points in 55 games as a rookie, with his 12 goals tied for the most by a teenager in Ducks history (also Stanislav Chistov; 12 in 2002-03).
- Led all NHL players 20-and-under with eight third period goals.
- Among NHL rookies, was tied for second in PPG (4) and seventh in points per game (.53, min. 41 GP).
- He also led all Ducks rookies in goals and points and was tied for fourth in PPG (4), fifth in goals and seventh in scoring among all Ducks players.
- Scored his first career goal in his NHL debut, Oct. 19 vs. DAL. At 18 years, 297 days, became the second-youngest player in Ducks history to score a goal in his debut, trailing only Mason McTavish (18 years, 256 days). He also became the third-youngest player in franchise history to record a point, trailing only Oleg Tverdovsky (18 years, 250 days, Jan. 23, 1995 @ WPG; 0-3=3) and McTavish. He is the third-youngest Duck to score a goal and second-youngest European to do so (Tverdovsky, 18 years, 259 days, Feb. 1, 1995 @ DAL).
- Became the third-youngest player in Ducks history with a multi-point game (1-1=2), Oct. 26 @ PHI (18 years, 304 days).
- Became the 10th 18-year-old in NHL history (first Ducks player) to record a primary assist on an OT goal in the regular season, Oct. 26 @ BOS. The assist marked the first of his career and his first OT point.
- Scored his first shootout goal (game-deciding goal) as a part of a multi-point effort (1-1=2), Dec. 2 vs. COL
- Scored his first career hat trick, Nov. 10 vs. PHI (3-0=3). At 18 years, 319 days, was the sixth 18-year-old to score a hat trick in the past 30 years, the youngest Duck to net three goals and the only 18-year-old in Ducks history to score multiple goals. Is also one of three Ducks rookies to record a hat trick (also Sam Steel and Bobby Ryan).
- Carlsson (No. 2 overall), Connor Bedard (No. 1; 0-1=1 on Oct. 10 w/ CHI) and Adam Fantilli (No. 3; 0-1=1 on Oct. 12 w/ CBJ) all recorded a point in their debut this season. The 2023 draft class became the second in NHL history to feature the top three picks each finding the score sheet in their League debut in the ensuing regular season, following the 2009 draft class (John Tavares, Victor Hedman & Matt Duchene). Carlsson was the only 2023 NHL Draft selection to score a goal in his NHL debut.
- Missed 18 games due to injury, including 10 with a sprained MCL (Dec. 21-Jan. 13) and eight from Mar. 1-15 (upper-body).

CAREER

- Was named the Swedish Junior Hockey Player of the Year in 2022-23 with Orebro, recording the most points (10-15=25 in 44 GP) and assists by a junior player in the league as an 18-year-old. Led SHL players 20-and-under in points per game (.57), was second in goals and third in points and assists.
- His 25 points were the fifth-most all-time by a draft-eligible player in the SHL, trailing only Daniel Sedin (42 points in 1998-99), Henrik Sedin (34 points in 1998-99), Elias Lindholm (30 points in 2012-13) and Nicklas Backstrom (26 points in 2005-06).
- Had 1-8=9 points with a +8 rating in 13 SHL Playoff games in 2023, helping Orebro to the semifinals. Led Orebro in postseason assists and ranked second in scoring. Among all SHL Playoff leaders after the semifinals concluded, ranked tied for second in assists, third in plus/minus, and fifth in points.
- His eight playoff assists tied him for the most all-time by a draft eligible player in the SHL (also Daniel and Henrik Sedin). His nine points trailed only Daniel Sedin (12) and Henrik Sedin (10).
- As a 17-year-old, had 3-6=9 points in 35 SHL games with Orebro in 2021-22.
- Signed a three-year entry-level contract, July 12, 2023.

2023-24

- In his 11th season with Anaheim, posted a 13-27-2 record with a 3.54 GAA and .888 SV% in 46 appearances (44 starts).
- Has started more than half of Anaheim's games in each of the last eight seasons.
- Stopped a season-high 50 shots, Feb. 24 @ LAK.
- Became the Ducks all-time games played leader by a goaltender with his 448th appearance, Dec. 2 vs. COL (4-3 shootout win), surpassing Jean-Sebastien Giguere (447 GP).
- Appeared in his 442nd career game, surpassing Guy Hebert for sole possession of second place on the club's all-time list for games played by a goaltender, Nov. 19 vs. STL.
- Over the last four seasons, is one of four goaltenders with 5,000-plus saves (5,533), joining Connor Hellebuyck (WPG, 6,648), Jussi Saros (NSH, 6,529) and Andrei Vasilevskiy (TBL, 5,901). Also ranks 10th in starts (187) and 11th in appearances (190) since the start of 2020-21.

- Enters 2024-25 first among all-time franchise leaders in appearances (466), saves (13,294), second in wins (193), and third in shutouts (24).
- Stopped 50-plus shots in three February 2023 games (53, Feb. 10 vs. PIT; 51, Feb. 20 @ FLA; 51, Feb. 25 @ CAR), becoming the second NHL goaltender with three outings with 50-plus saves in a single month (also Gump Worsley, Jan. 1963; three times).
- Set an NHL single-season record for most shots against per 60 minutes (39.6, minimum 10 appearances).
- His career-high 1,783 saves in 2022-23 were the most by any NHL goaltender in his first 53 games of a season since Gump Worsley stopped 1,893 shots for the NYR through 53 games in 1962-63 (60 seasons ago). Worsley (three times: aforementioned 1962-63, 1,854 in 1960-61 and 1,853 in 1955-56 all with NYR) and Jacques Plante (1,874 in 1963-64) are the only goaltenders to stop more shots through 53 games in NHL history.
- Is the only Ducks goaltender to represent the club at three All-Star Games, including 2022 in Las Vegas, 2016 in Nashville and 2019 in San Jose.
- Surpassed the individual single-season franchise record for SV% in 2017-18 (.924, Jonas Hiller in 2010-11, Gibson in 2016-17) with a .926 mark (Ryan Miller also topped the previous record with a .928 SV%).
- Combined with Frederik Andersen to win the first William M. Jennings Trophy in franchise history (192 GA) in 2015-16. Recorded his first career 20-win season (21-13-4).
- At 20 years, 297 days, stopped all 18 shots to become the youngest NHL goaltender since Buffalo's Darren Puppa (Nov. 1, 1985 @ EDM; 20 years, 223 days) to record a shutout in his NHL debut.
- Signed an eight-year contract extension through 2026-27, Aug. 4, 2018.

INTERNATIONAL

- Has represented Team USA at the 2013 World Championship (bronze), back-to-back World Junior Championships in 2012 and 2013 (gold) and 2011 U-18 World Championship (gold). Also played for Team North America at the 2016 World Cup of Hockey.
- During the 2013 WJC, became the first U.S. goaltender and second American overall to be named MVP after Zach Parise in 2004. Was also the first goaltender overall since Steve Mason (Canada) in 2008.

PERSONAL

2023-24

- Appeared in his third NHL season, recording a career-high 19-23=42 points in 64 games.
- Also set a career-high in goals and eclipsed the 40-point plateau for the second straight season.
- Led Anaheim with a 51.7 FOW% and ranked third among leaders in goals and scoring.
- Had a career-long seven-game point streak Oct. 22-Nov. 5 (5-5=10), one of two players in Ducks history with a seven-game point streak before age 21 (also Paul Kariya, eight games in 1994-95).
- Recorded the most points by a Ducks player in franchise history prior to age 21 (32-44=76 points in 131 GP).
- Earned a career-tying three points four times, with his six career three-point outings the most by any NHL player drafted since 2021: Oct. 30 @ PIT (2-1=3), Nov 22 vs. MTL (2-1=3), Dec. 27 vs. VGK (0-3=3) and Feb. 19 @ BUF (0-3=3). His two three-assist contests also tied a single-game best.
- Recorded his first career OT GWG, Oct. 26 @ BOS.
- Scored two goals (2-1=3) Oct. 30 @ PIT, becoming the fifth player in NHL history with a go-ahead SHG at 19:47 of the third period or later (regular season/playoffs), the latest such goal in nearly 35 years. He also became the fourth player in franchise history with a go-ahead goal at 19:47 of the third period or later, joining Paul Mara (19:58 on Nov. 7, 2010), Shaun Van Allen (19:55 on April 24, 1995) and Oleg Tverdovsky (19:47 on Feb. 6, 2002).
- Recorded his fourth career multi-goal game Nov. 22 vs. MTL (2-1=3), surpassing Trevor Zegras and Paul Kariya for the most by a Ducks skater before age 21.
- Was named the NHL's Third Star of the Week (Nov. 5), earning 3-2=5 points with points on all three of Anaheim's decisive goals.
- Became first Ducks player to record a point in his first three season-opening games with his goal Oct. 14 @ VGK. Also Oct. 13, 2023 vs. WPG (1-1=2) and Oct. 12, 2022 vs. SEA (0-2=2).
- Missed 18 games due to injury, including the final six contests due to a sprained MCL (Apr. 5-18).

CAREER

- In his first full NHL season in 2022-23, scored 17-26=43 points in 80 games, ranking fourth in Ducks history for single-season points by a rookie: Trevor Zegras (61 in 2021-22), Bobby Ryan (57 in 2008-09) and Dustin Penner (45 in 2006-07).
- Recorded a career-high four points (2-2=4) and his first career multi-goal game, Jan. 6, 2023 vs. SJS, his second straight game with multiple points (3-3=6). Was the first player in Ducks history and fifth NHL player the last 10 seasons to record six (or more) points in two games before age 20 (McTavish is 19 years 341 days), including Connor McDavid (twice, 2016), Patrik Laine (2018), Tomas Hertl (2013) and Elias Pettersson (2018). Became the third teenager to record a multi-goal game as a Duck: Cam Fowler (19 years, 343 days) and Hampus Lindholm (19 years, 356 days).
- In his NHL debut, Oct. 13, 2021 vs. WPG, became the youngest Duck to score a goal at 18 years, 256 days, surpassing the previous mark set by Oleg Tverdovsky (18 years, 259 days) on Feb. 1, 1995 at DAL. Also added an assist in his NHL debut, becoming the sixth player in Ducks history to record multiple points in his NHL debut (last: Jamie Drysdale, Mar. 18, 2020 vs. ARI; 1-1=2). Only two players in Ducks history tallied more in their NHL debut with the club: Stanislav Chistov (1-3-4 on Oct. 10, 2002 @ STL) and Alex Hicks (2-1-3 on Nov. 15, 1995 vs. COL).
- Became one of four Ducks to appear in the club's season-opening contest following their respective NHL Draft selection, joining Cam Fowler (2010), Chad Kilger (1995) and Oleg Tverdovsky (1994).
- Combined for 20-27=47 points with a +30 rating and 31 PIM in 29 OHL games with Hamilton and Peterborough following his NHL debut in 2021. Was named to the OHL Second All-Star Team after ranking seventh among OHL players in points per game (1.62) and goals per game (.69) and ranked fifth among OHL leaders in FOW% (57.5 min. 300 attempts).
- Helped Hamilton to an OHL championship and to the Memorial Cup final in 2020-21, scoring 16-13=29 points in 19 playoff contests. Ranked second in goals and fifth in scoring among all skaters. Was named to the Memorial Cup All-Star Team, scoring 6-2=8 points in five tournament games.
- Spent 2020-21 with Olten of the Swiss League (Switzerland's second division), scoring 9-2=11 points with a +4 rating in 13 regular-season games. Led all players 19-and-younger in points per game (.85) and co-led in goals. Also scored 2-5=7 points in the 2021 Swiss League playoffs, recording at least one point in each of his four postseason games.
- Was named to the OHL Second All-Rookie Team in 2019-20 after ranking second in rookie scoring with 29-13=42 points in 57 games with Peterborough. Ranked third among Peterborough leaders in goals, the most goals by a Petes rookie since 2009-10 (Matt Puempel, 33).

- In his first NHL season, recorded 4-24=28 points with 24 PIM in 63 games, ranking second among Anaheim blueliners in scoring and assists.
- Among all-time Ducks rookie defensemen in a single season, ranks fourth in assists and fifth in points.
- Among NHL rookies, ranked fourth in assists, while also ranking third among NHL rookie blueliners in scoring and assists.
- Recorded his first career three-assist/point game (0-3=3), Feb. 21 vs. CBJ, becoming the sixth rookie defenseman in Ducks history with a three-assist game.
- In his NHL debut Oct. 14 @ VGK, became the sixth-youngest Ducks defenseman to appear in a game (19 years, 322 days).
- Became the fifth youngest Ducks defenseman (19 years, 324 days) to score his first career goal Oct. 15 vs. CAR. At the time of his first goal, only four Ducks defensemen scored their first goal at a younger age: Oleg Tverdovsky (18 years, 259 days), Cam Fowler (18 years, 316 days), Jamie Drysdale (18 years, 344 days) and Hampus Lindholm (18 years, 290 days).
- Recorded his first NHL assist Oct. 19 vs. DAL, becoming one of three players in Ducks history to begin his career with points in each of his first two home games.
- At 19 years, 339 days, he tallied his first career multi-point game (0-2=2), Oct. 30 @ PIT. He became the fifth-youngest defenseman in franchise history at the time of his first career multi-point game, trailing only Oleg Tverdovsky (18 years, 250 days; 0-3=3 on Jan. 23, 1995), Cam Fowler (18 years, 342 days; 0-2=2 on Nov. 12, 2010), Jamie Drysdale (18 years, 344 days; 1-1=2 on March 18, 2021) and Hampus Lindholm (19 years, 266 days; 0-2=2 on Oct. 13, 2013).
- Became the 10th teenage defenseman in NHL history to collect his 10th assist prior to his 20th career game (only active players to do so are Cam Fowler and Zach Werenski (17 GP in 2016-17)). Mintyukov is one of six defensemen 20-and-under in NHL history to record 10 points in their first 15 games in the last 35 years and the 13th to do so all-time (first since Quinn Hughes, 2018-19).
- Recorded his 17th assist, Jan. 9 @ NSH. His 19 points are the third most by a Ducks rookie defenseman through 40 career games behind only Francois Beauchemin (4-20=24 in 2005-06) and Cam Fowler (3-20=23 in 2010-11).
- He tallied two assists for the second time in his career Dec. 17 @ NJD (0-2=2), becoming the second Ducks defenseman in club history to record 15 points through his first 30 career games, joining Cam Fowler (3-14=17 in 2010-11).
- Recorded his third goal and 20th career point (3-17=20) in his 42nd game, becoming the second fastest defenseman in Ducks history to reach 20 career points (Cam Fowler, 38 GP), Feb. 15 @ OTT.
- Missed 19 games due to injury, including 11 due to a separated shoulder (Jan. 11-Feb. 9) and eight with a bone contusion (Mar. 31-Apr. 18).

CAREER

- Was named the OHL Defenseman of the Year in 2022-23, combining for 24-64=88 points in 69 games with Ottawa and Saginaw. Was the only OHL defenseman to rank in the top-25 in league scoring. Was also named to the OHL's First All-Star Team and the CHL's Second All-Star Team.
- Led all Canadian Hockey League (OHL, QMJHL, WHL) defensemen in points, and led all OHL defensemen in points and assists, was tied for second in goals and fifth in plus/minus (+33). Among all OHL leaders, ranked fourth in assists, eighth in plus/minus and 14th in points.
- His 88 points in 2022-23 were the most by an OHL defenseman in nine years (Tony DeAngelo, 89 in 2014-15) and the third-most since 1998-99 (Ryan Ellis, 100 in 2010-11 and 89 in 2008-09, and DeAngelo).
- Became the first defenseman in the OHL's 90-year history to be named OHL Defenseman of the Month three consecutive times (October, November, December).
- Since the start of 2021-22, he was second among all CHL defensemen in points (41-109=150), goals and assists, trailing only Ducks defenseman prospect Olen Zellweger (46-112=158).
- Also recorded nine assists (0-9=9) with a +3 rating in 11 OHL Playoff contests to lead Ottawa blueliners in points and assists.
- In 2021-22, led the Saginaw Spirit of the OHL in scoring with 17-45=62 points in 67 games. Became Saginaw's first-ever defenseman in franchise history to lead the club in scoring.

- In his ninth NHL season and second with Anaheim, set career-highs in points (37-23=60), goals, PPG (13), GWG (7) and shots (272). Was the only Ducks to appear in all 82 games.
- Led Anaheim in points, goals, PPG, GWG, shots and PPP (13-7=20).
- Surpassed his career high of 24 goals in 2018-19 w/ FLA and his 41 points in 2022-23 w/ ANA (22-19=41).
- His 13 PPG were the most by a Ducks skater in 13 seasons (14, Corey Perry in 2011-12).
- Became the 11th player in Ducks history to reach 30 goals in a season, the first of his career.
- Tied the Anaheim club record for most hat tricks in a season (3: Oct. 15 vs. CAR, Oct. 28 @ PHI, Apr. 18 @ VGK), while also becoming the lone skater in Ducks history to score a hat trick in the season finale. He tied Teemu Selanne (3) and Corey Perry (2010-11 and 2014-15), with two of his milestones including an even-strength goal, power-play goal and shorthanded goal.
- He is one of five players in NHL history (first in 28 years) to score two hat tricks in a single-season with goals at even-strength, on the power-play and shorthanded, joining Mario Lemieux (twice, 1988-89 and 1995-96), Petri Skriko (1986-87), Bernie Nichols (1983-94) and Phil Esposito (1972-73). Vatrano's seven multi-goal games are tied for the most by a Ducks player in a season since 2014-15 (Corey Perry, 7).
- Scored his 50th goal as a Duck (141 GP) becoming the fifth fastest player in club history to reach the mark.
- Represented Anaheim at the 2024 NHL All-Star Weekend in Toronto, his first appearance. Scored two goals in the All-Star Game.

- Recorded his 200th career NHL point (assist), Feb. 27, 2023 vs. CHI.
- Scored his first goal as a Duck in his Anaheim debut, Oct. 12, 2022 vs. SEA.
- Helped the Rangers to an appearance in the 2022 Eastern Conference Final, scoring 5-8=13 points in 20 Stanley Cup Playoff games, ranked tied for fourth in assists and tied for fifth in goals among Rangers postseason leaders.
- Scored two goals in 18 seconds, Mar. 27, 2022 vs. BUF, marking the fastest two goals by a Ranger since Jaromir Jagr in 2005 (15 seconds).
- In 2020-21, led Florida with seven game-winning goals, three OT goals and 10 third-period goals. Appeared in all 56 contests, ranking second among team leaders in shots (158) and even-strength goals (16), third in goals (18), fifth among club forwards in hits (69) and takeaways (23) and sixth in blocked shots (21).
- Acquired by the Rangers for a 2022 fourth-round selection in the NHL Draft, Mar. 16, 2022, recorded 8-5=13 points in 22 games with the Rangers and 10-9=19 points in 49 games with the Panthers.
- Scored a goal in his NHL debut, Nov. 7, 2015 w/ BOS @ MTL (Mike Condon) and in his Stanley Cup Playoff debut, Apr. 12, 2017 w/ BOS @ OTT (Craig Anderson).
- Appeared in 43 career AHL games with Providence, leading the league in goals (36) in 2015-16. Was named to the First All-Star Team and the All-Rookie Team after recording 36-19=55 points in 36 games.
- Spent two seasons at the University of Massachusetts-Amherst (2013-15), scoring 18-10=28 points in 37 NCAA contests and led the Minutemen with 18 goals in 2014-15 (18-10=28).

SAN DIEGO GULLS HISTORY

On Jan. 29, 2015, the Anaheim Ducks announced that the National Hockey League (NHL) club would purchase the Norfolk Admirals American Hockey League (AHL) franchise and relocate it from Norfolk, Va., to San Diego. The Ducks joined affiliates from the Los Angeles Kings (Ontario, Calif.), San Jose Sharks (San Jose, Calif.), Calgary Flames (Stockton, Calif.) and Edmonton Oilers (Bakersfield, Calif.) in the newly created AHL Pacific Division.

The official logo and team colors of blue, orange and black were unveiled at a free event Feb. 22, 2015. More than 8,500 eager hockey fans waited in a line, wrapping around Pechanga Arena San Diego for the opportunity to be a part of hockey's return to San Diego. Dallas Eakins was named the first Head Coach of the Gulls June 26, 2015.

In eight AHL seasons, San Diego owns an all-time record of 258-213-28-14, including 137-98-15-6 at home and 121-115-13-8 on the road to rank second in the Pacific Division in all-time wins and tied for third in all-time points (558) since the division's inception in 2015-16. The Gulls are one of two teams in the Pacific Division to finish among the top four teams in the division in five of the division's eight AHL seasons.

The Gulls have made the playoffs in five of their seven seasons that the AHL has hosted a postseason (2020 Calder Cup Playoffs were canceled due to COVID-19 pandemic, 2021 Pacific Division was the only AHL division to host a postseason during the COVID-19 pandemic return to play season). The Gulls are the lone Pacific Division club to advance to the Division Finals on three occasions (2016, 2017 and 2019). San Diego (three times), Toronto (four times), Charlotte (three times), Chicago (three times) and Hershey (three times) are the only AHL clubs to advance to the Division Finals three or more times since the inception of the current division format in 2015.

The San Diego Gulls took the ice Oct. 10, 2015 to open their inaugural AHL season in front of a sellout crowd of 12,920 at Pechanga Arena San Diego. Nick Ritchie, selected by Anaheim in the first round (10th overall) of the 2014 NHL Draft, scored the first AHL goal in Gulls history en route to a 4-2 victory over the Grand Rapids Griffins.

San Diego concluded the inaugural 2015-16 season with a 39-23-4-2 record, earning second place in the Pacific Division. The Gulls made their first appearance in the Calder Cup Playoffs Apr. 21, 2016 at the Texas Stars and won their first-ever playoff series vs. Texas (3-1). The Gulls advanced to the Pacific Division Finals, eventually falling to the Ontario Reign in five games (4-1). In the inaugural season, San Diego ranked second among league leaders in average attendance (8,675), bringing nearly 300,000 fans to watch Gulls hockey at Pechanga Arena San Diego.

Following the 2016-17 season which saw the Gulls advance to the Pacific Division Finals after a 43-20-3-2 record in the regular season, San Diego was recognized as winners of the President's Award as the AHL Team of the Year, given to an AHL organization for overall excellence as voted on by all AHL team presidents. One of the highlights of 2016-17 was the introduction of Gulls hockey to the masses, as the club televised its first AHL game Feb. 12, 2017 (a 4-0 win vs. Bakersfield), the highest level of San Diego hockey broadcast in the region on FOX 5 San Diego. The televised game was also the first TV broadcast by a club in the newly created AHL Pacific Division.

San Diego finished its 2017-18 season with a 36-28-3-1 record and 76 points, tied for fourth in the Pacific Division. Off the ice, the Gulls led the AHL in attendance in 2017-18 (9,305 avg.), setting new club marks for a third consecutive season in average and overall attendance (316,368), in addition to a franchise record six sell-outs. San Diego became the first team in 12 seasons to usurp the Hershey Bears atop the league's attendance charts. For a third consecutive season, San Diego was named the AHL's ticket sales department of the year.

In 2018-19, San Diego led the AHL in attendance for the second straight season (9,021 avg. per game). The 2019 postseason saw the Gulls advance to the Western Conference Finals for the first time in club history after eliminating the top seed in the Western Conference (Bakersfield) in six games. The Gulls also defeated San Jose in four games (3-1) in the First Round.

On July 15, 2019, Kevin Dineen was named the second Head Coach in Gulls franchise history after Eakins was named the 10th head coach in Anaheim Ducks history June 17, 2019. The Gulls completed their fifth season in the AHL's Pacific Division with a 30-19-6-2 record in 57 games, with the May 11 cancellation of the 2019-20 regular season and 2020 Calder Cup Playoffs due to the COVID-19 outbreak.

San Diego spent its 2020-21 season based out of Irvine, Calif. at Great Park Ice and FivePoint Arena due to the COVID-19 pandemic during a season that restricted the AHL to interdivision play during the shortened season. The Gulls earned a berth into the Pacific Division Playoffs, the only division in the AHL to hold a postseason format to determine a division champion. Gulls right wing Andrew Poturalski won the John B. Sollenberger trophy as the American Hockey League's top point-getter (9-34=43) in 2020-21, becoming the first player in San Diego Gulls history to win an AHL season award and the first Anaheim Ducks prospect to win the AHL scoring title.

On July 9, 2021, Joel Bouchard was named the third Head Coach in Gulls franchise history. The Gulls concluded their 2021-22 season earning their fifth appearance in the AHL postseason. The season also brought the return of hockey to Pechanga Arena San Diego following the COVID-19 pandemic shortened season the previous year. San Diego ranked fourth in AHL attendance and second in the Western Conference (6,992 avg. per game) in the league's return to full capacity arenas.

On May 3, 2022, the Anaheim Ducks named Rob DiMaio Assistant General Manager in addition to his role as General Manager of the San Diego Gulls. On July 12, 2022, DiMaio introduced Roy Sommer as the fourth Head Coach in Gulls franchise history. Sommer joined the Gulls as the AHL's all-time leader in wins (808) and games coached (1,736) after spending the prior 26 consecutive seasons as a coach in the San Jose Sharks organization. In the 2022-23 season, the Gulls missed the Calder Cup Playoffs for the first time since the 2017-18 campaign.

On April 25, 2023, the Anaheim Ducks named Matt McIlvane as the fifth Head Coach in franchise history. McIlvane joins the organization following a successful stint in Europe, winning five league championships as a head coach and assistant coach in the last 10 seasons. He joined San Diego after serving as head coach of EC Red Bull Salzburg of the ICE Hockey League (International Central European Hockey League), the top-tier league in Austria, featuring additional teams from Hungary, Italy, and Slovenia, from 2019-23. McIlvane led Salzburg to back-to-back league championship in 2021-22 and 2022-23.

On May 14, 2024, the Anaheim Ducks promoted Rick Paterson to General Manager of the San Diego Gulls. Paterson completed his 20th season with the Ducks last season, his second as Director of Professional Scouting. He served as the Director of Player Personnel from 2009-20 and was also the Director of Professional Scouting for two other stints with Anaheim (2005-09 and 2020-21). Paterson has over 40 years of experience as a player, coach and scout, and has won the Stanley Cup four times. Along with his Stanley Cup championship with the Ducks in 2007, he won titles with Tampa Bay (2004) and Pittsburgh (1991 and 1992).

Rick Paterson

General Manager, San Diego Gulls

Rick Paterson is in his first season as General Manager of the San Diego Gulls, Anaheim's primary development affiliate in the American Hockey League (AHL). The 2023-24 season also marks Paterson's 21st season with the Ducks organization.

Paterson spent the previous two seasons as Director of Professional Scouting with the club and has over 40 years of experience as a player, coach and scout, and has won the Stanley Cup four times. Along with his Stanley Cup championship with the Ducks in 2007, he won the title with Tampa Bay (2004) and Pittsburgh (1991 & 1992).

Prior to joining the Ducks, Paterson spent seven years with the Tampa Bay Lightning, winning the Stanley Cup in 2004 as the club's Chief Professional Scout. He was inducted into the Kingston & District Sports Hall of Fame (Ontario) on May 4, 2012.

As a player, Paterson spent 10 years in the Chicago Blackhawks organization from 1978-1988. He was drafted by the club in the third round (46th overall) of the 1978 NHL Entry Draft. He appeared in 430 NHL games, scoring 50-43=93 points. Paterson also appeared in the Stanley Cup Playoffs eight times with Chicago, scoring 7-10=17 points in 63 games. Primarily known as a defensive specialist and top penalty killer, Paterson set a Blackhawks record for the fastest two shorthanded goals when he scored twice in 2:30 against Winnipeg Jan. 16, 1985.

At age 15, Paterson was considered one of the top hockey players in Ontario. He played with the Cornwall Royals of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League from 1973-78, scoring 128-237=365 points in 342 games. In his final year in Cornwall (1977-78), he exploded with 58-80=138 points in 71 games. Paterson was inducted into the club's Hall of Fame in 2002. In addition, he won the Bronze Medal at the 1978 World Junior Championships with Team Canada.

After retiring from the NHL as a player, Paterson joined the Pittsburgh Penguins as an Assistant Coach from 1988-93, winning the Stanley Cup in 1991 and 1992. He coached the Penguins' International Hockey League affiliate in Cleveland from 1993-97 and joined the Tampa Bay Lightning as Assistant Coach in 1997-98. Paterson remained in that role until being named a Professional Scout prior to the start of the 1999-00 season.

Assistant General Manager

Bob Ferguson enters his 17th season with the Anaheim Ducks organization and 10th in the San Diego Gulls Hockey Operations department. Ferguson is a hockey lifer, having been involved in either professional or amateur hockey for the past 44 years, either as a player, coach or member of a front office.

In his nine prior seasons with the Gulls, Ferguson served as General Manager from 2015-21. He has helped San Diego to a 258-213-28-14 record in nine seasons, second in the Pacific Division in all-time wins and tied for third in all-time points (558) since the division's inception in 2015-16.

Under Ferguson, San Diego reached the Western Conference Finals for the first time in 2019, following a regular season that saw the club earn a 36-24-5-3 record for 80 points and third in the Pacific Division. The 2016-17 club went 43-20-3-2 for 91 points, second in the Western Conference and third in the AHL, while defeating Ontario in the first round of the postseason before falling in the Pacific Division Finals to San Jose (five games).

The Gulls were named winners of the 2016-17 President's Award as the AHL Team of the Year, given to an AHL organization for overall excellence as voted on by AHL team presidents. In the club's inaugural season in 2015-16, the team finished with a 39-23-4-2 record for 84 points, earning second place in the Pacific Division and the club's first berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs. Under Ferguson's guidance, San Diego won its first-ever playoff series over the Texas Stars, 3-1, prior to falling to Ontario in the second round (five games).

Ferguson was the Assistant General Manager of the Norfolk Admirals for the previous three seasons (2012-15) and prior to that manned the same position for the Ducks' prior AHL affiliates, the Syracuse Crunch (2010-12) and Iowa Chops (2008-09). He also spent one season as a college/amateur scout for the Ducks in 2009-10.

Before joining the Ducks organization, Ferguson spent 26 seasons on the bench as a head coach in the professional and junior ranks. He had head coaching stints with Augusta (ECHL, 2005-08), Florida (ECHL, 1998-2001) and Indianapolis (IHL, 1995-98). In his nine seasons as a professional head coach, Ferguson's teams never missed the playoffs. He is a two-time John Brophy Award winner as ECHL Coach of the Year, winning the honor in consecutive seasons with the Florida Everblades in 1998-99 and 1999-2000.

A native of Kingston, Ontario, Ferguson's illustrious 17-year career as a head coach in the United States Hockey League (USHL) with Sioux City (1981-90) and Des Moines (1990-95, 2001-04) garnered 517 career wins, the third-most in league history. Ferguson guided Sioux City to a pair of Clark Cup championships and won three Clark Cups with Des Moines. He is a three-time Gold Cup winner (U.S. Junior 'A' National Champion), five-time USHL Coach of the Year and five-time USHL General Manager of the Year.

Bob and his wife, Lisa, have two children: Brett and Kaylee. Brett and his wife, Amanda, have the family's three grandchildren: Caleb, Aidan and Reid. The family resides in San Diego.

Jillian Reddin

Director, Hockey Operations

Jillian Reddin, daughter of Susan and Henry Samuelli, enters her 16th season with the Anaheim Ducks organization, her 10th with the San Diego Gulls. Primarily responsible for player contracts, transactions, immigration, travel and the Collective Bargaining Agreement, Reddin regularly coordinates with the Anaheim Ducks Hockey Operations department. She is also an Alternate Governor for the AHL Board of Governors.

Reddin previously spent three seasons in the same role with the Norfolk Admirals (2012-14) and two with the Syracuse Crunch (2010-12). Prior to her stint with Anaheim's AHL affiliates, Reddin spent a year in the Ducks front office.

A native of Newport Beach, Calif., Reddin received a degree in Merchandise Marketing from the Fashion Institute of Design & Merchandising (Los Angeles).

Jillian and her husband, Colin, reside with their son in Encinitas.

Matt McIlvane

Head Coach, San Diego Gulls

Matt McIlvane enters his second season as head coach of the San Diego Gulls. Named to his current position on April 25, 2023, he became the fifth head coach in Gulls AHL history. In his first season as an AHL head coach with San Diego, the club went 26-35-11 for 63 points.

Prior to joining the Anaheim Ducks organization, McIlvane won five league championships as a head coach and assistant coach in Europe in his 10 seasons from 2013-23. He previously served as head coach of EC Red Bull Salzburg of the ICE Hockey League (International Central European Hockey League) from 2019-23, the top-tier league in Austria, featuring additional teams from Hungary, Italy, and Slovenia. McIlvane led Salzburg to back-to-back league championship in 2021-22 and 2022-23, and he also won an ICE Hockey League title as assistant coach with Salzburg in 2013-14. He was the youngest head coach in Salzburg's history when he was hired at age 33 in 2019, leading the club to a 94-42-22-19 record in his four seasons (.650%) and a 31-8 mark in the postseason (.795%).

Prior to his role with Salzburg, McIlvane spent five seasons with EHC Red Bull München in Germany's Deutsche Eishockey Liga (DEL) from 2014-18, serving as associate coach in 2018-19 and assistant coach the prior four seasons. McIlvane helped München to three straight championships in 2016, 2017 and 2018, tied for the longest championship streak in DEL history. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach with the Orlando Solar Bears (ECHL) in 2012-13 and the Danville Dashers of the Federal Prospects Hockey League as General Manager and head coach (2011-12).

The Naperville, Ill. native helped Germany to a silver medal at the 2018 Winter Olympics in Pyeongchang as an assistant coach, the country's first-ever Olympic silver medal in hockey and third medal overall (two prior bronze). He also served as an assistant coach for Germany at the 2021 World Championship.

McIlvane played four seasons as a professional from 2008-12, with his career cut short due to injury. Selected by Ottawa in the eighth round (251st overall) of the 2004 NHL Draft, he appeared in 12 career AHL games with Peoria (2010-11) and Binghamton (2008), earning 1-3=4 points. He appeared in 14 DEL contests with Eisbaren Berlin in 2008-09, recording 1-3=4 points in 14 games. He also scored 11-13=24 points in 62 IHL games with Bloomington in 2009-10 and appeared in two games with Cincinnati (ECHL) in 2011-12. Prior to his professional career, he spent four years at Ohio State University (Big Ten), collecting 15-37=52 points in 156 games from 2004-08, serving as captain his senior season in 2007-08.

Dave Barr

Assistant Coach

Dave Barr is in his first season as Assistant Coach for the San Diego Gulls. Barr spent 2023-24 as Assistant Coach for the Chicago Wolves. Prior to joining Chicago, he served as Head Coach for the Vienna Capitals of the ICEHL from 2021-23, Austria's top professional league, leading Vienna to a combined 45-34-12 record in two seasons. Barr also helped Team Canada to gold as Head Coach at the 2021 U-18 World Championship, a team that included former Gulls and current Anaheim Ducks Mason McTavish and Olen Zellweger.

Barr spent parts of 11 seasons as an Assistant Coach in the National Hockey League (NHL) from 2008-20 with Colorado, Minnesota, New Jersey, Buffalo and San Jose, as well as one season as an Associate Coach for the Florida Panthers in 2016-17. He helped the Devils reach the Stanley Cup Final in 2012, and helped guide the Sharks to back-to-back playoff appearances in 2018 & 2019.

Barr began his coaching career in the International Hockey League in 1995, serving as a Player-Assistant Coach for the Orlando Solar Bears from 1995-97 before joining the Houston Aeros as an Assistant Coach from 1997-00. He served as Head Coach and Director of Hockey Operations for one season in 2000-01 before being named the General Manager of the Aeros after the team joined AHL in 2001, leading them to a Calder Cup in the 2002-03 season.

A Toronto, Ontario native, Barr was the Head Coach of the Guelph Storm of the Ontario Hockey League (OHL) from 2004-2008, as well as General Manager from 2003-08. Under his guidance, Guelph won the OHL Championship in 2004 and made the OHL playoffs five straight seasons. He was named the OHL Coach of the Year in 2005-06 after leading the Storm to a 40-24-4 record. In Guelph, he oversaw the development of numerous future NHL players, including Drew Doughty, Ryan Callahan, Dan Girardi and Ben Chiarot.

Prior to his coaching career, Barr had a 13-year NHL career from 1981-94 with Boston, New York Rangers, St. Louis, Hartford, Detroit, New Jersey and Dallas, posting 128-204-332 points with a +84 rating and 520 penalty minutes (PIM) in 614 career games. He skated in 71 career Stanley Cup Playoff games and recorded 12-10-22 points and 70 PIM. Barr also appeared in 158 career AHL games with Erie, Baltimore, Adirondack and Utica, earning 46-113-159 points and 120 PIM.

Kris Sparre

Assistant Coach

Kris Sparre is in his third season as Assistant Coach for the San Diego Gulls. He joined the organization after serving as associate coach for the Flint Firebirds (OHL) in 2021-22, helping the club to a franchise best 42-21-1-4 record and their first Western Conference Finals appearance.

Prior to his time in Flint, Sparre was an assistant coach for Salzburg of the Champions Hockey League (ICEHL) from 2019-21, assisting the club to a 43-23-11 record and a berth in the ICEHL semifinals in 2021 while serving on the staff with current Gulls head coach Matt McIlvane. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach for the OHL's Niagara IceDogs from 2016-19, helping guide the club to postseason appearances in each of his three seasons behind the bench.

A native of Mississauga, Ontario, Sparre played nine professional seasons from 2008-16. He earned 32-43-75 points and 187 PIM in 257 DEL games with Iserlohn, Ingolstadt, Berlin and Dusseldorfer. He also appeared in 65 ECHL games with Idaho and Columbia, collecting 17-22-39 points.

Jeff Glass

Goaltending Coach

Jeff Glass enters his third season as Goaltending Coach with the San Diego Gulls. Glass joined the organization in 2022 after a 17-year professional goaltending career, concluding with a two-year stint with the Gulls.

Glass appeared in 15 NHL contests with the Chicago Blackhawks in 2017-18, going 3-7-3 with a .898 save percentage (SV%) and a 3.36 goals-against average (GAA). He spent parts of nine seasons in the AHL, posting a 78-98-13 record with a 3.26 GAA, .900 SV% and six shutouts in 218 career AHL games with San Diego (2018-19 & 2020-22), Toronto Marlies (2016-17 and 2018-19), Rockford IceHogs (2016-17 & 2017-18) and Binghamton Senators (2005-09).

A native of Calgary, Alberta, Glass also earned a 6-4 record with a 2.43 GAA and .912 SV% in 11 Calder Cup Playoff games with San Diego. During the 2019 Calder Cup Playoffs, Glass stopped a club record 51-of-53 shots to win the longest game in Gulls playoff history and fifth longest in AHL history, Game 1 of the Pacific Division Finals, May 3, 2019 at Bakersfield.

Selected by Ottawa in the third round (89th overall) of the 2004 NHL Draft, Glass spent seven seasons in the KHL with Barys Astana (Kazakhstan), Sibir Novosibirsk (Russia), Spartak Moskva (Russia), CSKA Moskva (Russia), Lada Togliatti (Russia) and Dinamo Minsk (Belarus). He posted a .912 SV% with 16 shutouts a 2.64 GAA .916 SV% in 218 career KHL games.

Lucas Hurtt

Video Coordinator

Lucas Hurtt enters his third season as Video Coordinator with the San Diego Gulls. Hurtt joined the organization prior to the 2022-23 campaign after serving as Assistant Video Coach for the New Jersey Devils for two seasons from 2020-22.

A native of Niagara Falls, N.Y., Hurtt served in various hockey operations roles with Boston College men's ice hockey (Hockey East) from 2015-20 and helped the Eagles to Hockey East regular season championships in 2018 and 2020. He earned a bachelor's degree in Political Science and English, in addition to a master's degree in Sports Administration, from Boston College.

TEAM HISTORY

The Tulsa Oilers have existed on and off since 1928, with the first installment of the team playing in the American Hockey Association. The original Oilers played in the state-of-the-art Tulsa Coliseum, ceasing operations in 1942 as a result of World War II.

The second Oilers franchise was the shortest to date, participating in the original USHL from 1945-51.

The team returned in 1964, joining the Central Professional Hockey League, which would later become the CHL, a league owned and operated by the NHL. The Oilers were three-time Adams Cup champions during their time in the CHL, lasting until the league's final season in 1984. Several NHL alumni and five members of the Miracle on Ice team played for the Oilers during this era. Some alumni include John Vanbiesbrouck, Don Cherry, Pat Quinn and Rick Bowness.

Tulsa would be without hockey from 1984 until 1992, when the current iteration of the team was reborn. The Oilers began play in the newly formed CHL, winning the Ray Miron President's Cup in its first season. The Oilers continued to play in the CHL until the CHL, ECHL merger in 2014. Tulsa won its first Mountain Division Championship in 2018-19, finishing atop the Mountain Division in the regular season and reaching game seven of the ECHL's Western Conference Finals.

The Ducks and Oilers began their affiliation agreement in 2020. Head Coach Rob Murray is in his eighth season behind the bench in Tulsa in 2024-25, helping the club to Kelly Cup Playoff appearances in three of the last five seasons, including a berth in 2023-24. Recent Anaheim affiliates in the ECHL have also included Utah (2013-18), Fort Wayne (2012-13), Elmira (2010-12), Bakersfield (2008-10) and Augusta (2006-08).

THE 2023-24 SEASON

Anaheim completed the 2023-24 season with a 27-50-5 record for 59 points. A total of 16 Anaheim NHL Draft selections appeared in a game for the Ducks, including six NHL debuts and three from the last two drafts (Leo Carlsson, 2023; Tristan Luneau and Pavel Mintyukov, 2022). Anaheim concluded the season with points in three of the last five outings, posting a 2-2-1 record down the stretch. The Ducks finished among the top five teams in man-games lost during the campaign (306 total), while left wing Frank Vatrano was the lone skater to appear in all 82 games.

MIGHTY MILESTONES

The Ducks won a season-best six straight games Oct. 24-Nov. 5, the club's longest win streak since eight consecutive victories Oct. 31 to Nov. 16, 2021. Anaheim won five straight road games Oct. 24-Nov. 14, with four of those coming via third period comebacks, all one-goal wins. The Ducks swept their four-game road trip with a 4-3 win Oct. 30 @ PIT, marking the first perfect

Eastern time zone trip of four games or more since Dec. 17-23, 2013 (4-0-0 through DET, NJD, NYI, WSH). The Ducks earned victories at CBJ (3-2, OT), BOS (4-3, OT), PHI (7-4) and PIT (4-3). Anaheim also matched the franchise record for goals in a road game with a 7-4 win, Oct. 28 @ PHI.

CARDIAC COMEBACKS

Anaheim earned nine third-period comeback wins in 2023-24, six taking place on the road. Anaheim also had five multi-goal comeback wins with the Ducks one of three teams to record multiple two-goal, third period comeback wins. Anaheim tallied three comeback wins in a span of four games Oct. 24-30, the third time in club history the team has done so. The only prior instances came March 15-20, 2015 and March 20-26, 2011. Only 82 instances in NHL history have clubs won three games in a span of four contests after trailing in the third period.

FIRST GOALS

Anaheim led the NHL with seven skaters and five defensemen (fourth rookie D) scoring their first NHL goal. The seven skaters surpassed the five from Los Angeles and Vegas while Anaheim was one of two clubs (also LAK) to have double digits in the category. Anaheim's first goals were scored by Pavel Mintyukov (Oct. 15 vs. CAR), Leo Carlsson (Oct. 19 vs. DAL), Tristan Luneau (Nov. 30 vs. WSH), Jackson LaCombe (Jan. 20 @ SJS), Urho Vaakanainen (Jan. 27 @ DAL), Olen Zellweger (March 31 @ VAN) and Sam Colangelo (April 12 vs. CGY).

SILFVERBERG'S SWAN SONG

On April 11, Jakob Silfverberg announced his retirement from the NHL at the conclusion of the 2023-24 season. Silfverberg has appeared in 820 career NHL games with Anaheim (2013-24) and Ottawa (2012-13), earning 168-205=373 points. With Anaheim in 11 seasons, Silfverberg scored 158-196=354 points in 772 appearances. His 158 goals since his acquisition in 2013 are the most by a Ducks player. Among all-time Ducks leaders, he ranks in the top-10 in numerous offensive categories, including goals (fifth), appearances (fifth), shots (fifth, 1,706), points (seventh), GWG (seventh, 20), assists (eighth), SHP (third, 11-6=17) and SHG (third, 11).

FRANK THE TANK

Frank Vatrano set single-season career highs in points (60), goals (37) and assists (23), becoming one of five Ducks skaters to score 37 goals in a season (also Paul Kariya, Corey Perry, Teemu Selanne, Troy Terry). Vatrano reached the 30-goal, 20-assist and 60-point marks for the first time in his career. He led Anaheim in points, goals (37), PPG (13, career high), GWG (7), OTG (2), shots (272, career high) and PPP (13-7=20). With his 30th goal March 31 vs. CHI, he reached the milestone for the first time in his career, the 11th player in Ducks history to reach 30 goals in a season (fifth the last 10 years). He joined Corey Perry (three times: 2013-14, 2014-15, 2015-16), Rickard Rakell (twice: 2016-17, 2017-18), Ryan Getzlaf (31 in 2013-14) and Troy Terry (37 in 2021-22). Vatrano tied the Anaheim club record for most hat tricks in a season (Oct. 15 vs. CAR, Oct. 28 @ PHI, Apr. 18 @ VGK), while also becoming the lone skater in Ducks history to score a hat trick in the season finale. He tied Teemu Selanne (3) and Corey Perry (2010-11 and 2014-15) with three hat tricks, with two of his milestones including an even-strength goal, power-play goal and shorthanded goal. He is one of five players in NHL history (first in 28 years) to score two hat tricks in a single-season with goals at even-strength, on the power play and shorthanded, joining Mario Lemieux (twice, 1988-89 and 1995-96), Petri Skriko (1986-87), Bernie Nichols (1983-94) and Phil Esposito (1972-73). Vatrano's seven multi-goal games are tied for the most by a Ducks player in a season since 2014-15 (Corey Perry, 7).

LEO'S LAUNCH

Leo Carlsson scored 12-17=29 points in 55 games as a rookie, with his 12 goals tied for the most by a teenager in Ducks history (also Stanislav Chistov; 12 in 2002-03). Carlsson scored his first goal in his NHL debut Oct. 19 vs. DAL, the only 2023 NHL Draft selection to net a goal in his debut this season. At 18 years, 297 days, he was the second-youngest player in Ducks history to score in his debut, trailing only Mason McTavish (18 years, 256 days on Oct. 13, 2021). Among NHL rookies, he finished tied for second in PPG (4) and seventh in points per game among rookies to appear in half of their team's games (.53). He also led all Ducks rookies in goals and points.

GETTING GAUTHIER

Anaheim signed forward Cutter Gauthier to a three-year entry-level contract April 14. Acquired from Philadelphia for Jamie Drysdale and a 2025 second-round pick, Gauthier made his NHL debut in the season finale, recording a primary assist April 18 @ VGK. Gauthier led the NCAA with 38 goals at Boston College (Hockey East) in 2023-24, tied for the most goals in a single season in program history and the most by an NCAA player since 1999-00. Gauthier scored 38-27=65 points with a +23 rating in 41 games. Gauthier led Team USA to a gold medal at the 2024 World Junior Championship, co-leading the tournament in points (2-10=12) and assists. He was named the Best Forward and to the 2024 tournament All-Star Team.

KILLER'S CORNER

In his debut season as a Duck, Alex Killorn earned 18-18=36 points in 63 games, with his 18 goals fourth among team leaders to finish with his fourth-best goal per game pace in his 12th season. Killorn recorded his 500th career point (215-286=501 in 864 GP) with an assist April 7 vs. STL. He missed 19 games due to injury this campaign, his first season missing more than two games since 2014-15. Following his return to the lineup following knee surgery Feb. 17, Killorn was second among Ducks leaders in points (12-5=17) and goals in the final 29 games.

GUD TIMES

In his first season with Anaheim, Radko Gudas ranked tied for third among all NHL skaters in road plus/minus (+20), registering a plus or even rating in 29 of 32 road games he played. He became one of 24 players in NHL history (plus/minus began being tracked in 1959-60) and the sixth Duck to begin a season with 24 straight road games with a plus or even rating (first minus in game 25). He has been a plus or even player each season dating to the start of 2016-17 (+90). He led all Ducks skaters in plus/minus (+14), hits (232) and blocked shots (154) this season. With his sixth goal Jan 9 @ NSH, he tied his single season career-high in his

2023-24 ANAHEIM DUCKS

35th GP (six in 2016-17 w/ PHI in 67 GP).

THE DOSTWALL

Goaltender Lukas Dostal led all NHL rookies in saves (1,181), was second in appearances (44), third in starts (38) and fourth in wins (14). He set the Ducks rookie record for goaltender appearances in a single season, surpassing the 40 by John Gibson in 2014-15. He also set new records by a Ducks rookie goalie, including saves, games started, shots faced (1,310) and TOI (2,322:49). He set a Ducks record for saves in a win, stopping 52-of-55 shots March 1 vs. NJD, including his first career penalty shot save on Jack Hughes with 2.1 seconds left in regulation. He is one of eight rookie goaltenders in NHL history to make 52 saves in a win (55, Jan. 3 vs. TOR).

THE RISE OF TROY

roy Terry co-led Anaheim in assists (34) and led even-strength points (16-25=41), and was second in points (20-34=54). He scored 20 goals for the third straight season, the eighth player in Ducks history to do so. Terry also reached the 30-assist milestone for the third straight season (also 38 in 2022-23 and 30 in 2021-22). He and Cam Fowler are two of eight skaters in club history to record 30 assists in three straight seasons, joining Ryan Getzlaf (13 times, 2006-19), Teemu Selanne (five times, 1996-01), Steve Rucchin (four times, 1996-00), Corey Perry (three times (2008-11), Chris Pronger (2006-09), Paul Kariya (1998-01).

FOWLER'S FEATURE

Cam Fowler ranked 16th among NHL skaters in TOI/GP (24:25), the highest average in his career (14th season). Fowler co-led Ducks leaders in assists (34) and paced Ducks defensemen in points (5-34=39) and assists. It marked the fifth straight campaign he has led Anaheim defensemen in scoring, the most consecutive seasons a blueliner has paced the club in points while also the most overall seasons leading club D in scoring (eight overall: 2011-12, 2013-14, 2019-20, 2020-21, 2021-22, 2022-23, 2023-24). Fowler reached the 30-assist plateau for the fourth time in his career, joining Chris Pronger (2006-07, 2007-08 and 2008-09) as the only defensemen in club history to record consecutive straight 30-assist seasons. Fowler appeared in his 900th career NHL game Oct. 26 @ BOS, the 14th defenseman since 2000 to reach 900 games prior to his 32nd birthday.

MINTY'S MOMENTS

Pavel Mintyukov ranked fourth among all NHL rookies in assists (24), while he was third among all NHL rookie NHL defensemen in points (4-24=28) and assists, and tied for fifth in goals. Among Anaheim defensemen, he was second in points and assists. His 24 assists were tied for the eighth most by a Ducks rookie in a single season, tied fourth among all-time Ducks rookie defensemen behind only Cam Fowler (30 in 2010-11), Jamie Drysdale (28 in 2021-22) and Francois Beauchemin (26 in 2005-06).

THE 2022-23 SEASON:

The Ducks completed the 2022-23 season with a 23-47-12 record for 58 points. Six players made their NHL debut during the campaign, including Pavol Regenda (Oct. 12 vs. SEA), Justin Kirkland (Dec. 20 @ LAK), Nikita Nesterenko (Mar. 21 vs. CGY), Ollie Eriksson Ek (Apr. 8 @ ARI), Drew Helleson (Apr. 9 vs. COL) and Jackson LaCombe (Apr. 11 vs. VAN). Defenseman Cam Fowler and center Ryan Strome were the only Ducks to appear in all 82 games.

20-GOAL SCORERS:

The Ducks had four skaters with 20-plus goals, including Troy Terry (23), Trevor Zegras (23), Adam Henrique (22) and Frank Vatrano (23). The four 20-goal scorers were the most the team has had in one season since 2015-16 when Corey Perry (34), Ryan Kesler (21), Rickard Rakell (20) and Jakob Silfverberg (20) each hit the milestone. Both Terry (23 in 2022-23 and 37 in 2021-22) and Zegras (23 in 2022-23 and 2021-22) have recorded back-to-back 20-goal campaigns for the Ducks, the first pair of Anaheim teammates to post consecutive 20-goal seasons since Ryan Kesler (three seasons from 2014-15 to 2016-17) and Jakob Silfverberg (two seasons from 2015-16 to 2016-17).

RECORD HOMESTAND:

The Ducks hosted a franchise record 10-game homestand from Dec. 21 - Jan. 13 spanning 24 days). The homestand was tied for the third-longest in NHL history, trailing 12 straight at home by Tampa Bay (2010-11) and California (1975-76). The 24 days during the stretch were also the third most in league history, trailing Winnipeg (22 days, 2017-18) and Vancouver (22, 1981-82). Anaheim's longest prior homestand was eight games (three times).

GIBSON'S HISTORICAL FEATS:

John Gibson became Anaheim's all-time franchise saves leader Mar. 10 @ CGY, with his 13th save and 11,814th of his career passing Guy Hebert (11,813). Gibson did so in his 423rd career appearance, 18 fewer than Hebert. His 1,783 saves were the most by any NHL goaltender in his first 53 games of a season since Gump Worsley stopped 1,893 shots for the NYR through 53 games in 1962-63 (60 seasons ago). Worsley (three times: aforementioned 1962-63, 1,854 in 1960-61 and 1,853 in 1955-56 all with NYR) and Jacques Plante (1,874 in 1963-64) are the only goaltenders to stop more shots through 53 games in NHL history. Among all-time NHL goalies with 10 appearances in a single season, Gibson set an NHL single-season record for most shots against per 60 minutes (39.6). He stopped 50-plus shots in three February games (53, Feb. 10 vs. PIT; 51, Feb. 20 @ FLA; 51, Feb. 25 @ CAR), becoming the second NHL goaltender since 1955-56 (since shots began being tracked) to register three outings with 50-plus saves in a single month (also Gump Worsley, Jan. 1963; three times). He is one of three goaltenders in NHL history with three outings of 50-plus saves in a single season (Worsley and Al Rollins (1955-56)). Gibson is now tied for second in NHL history with six career 50-save games, trailing only Gump Worsley (7). Gibson ranked third among all NHL goalies in saves (1,783) and led the league in games with 50-plus saves (3).

CAM'S CAREER YEAR:

Cam Fowler skated in an NHL record 38:55 TOI Apr. 8 @ ARI, surpassing the only other mark in NHL history above 38:00 by Dennis Wideman (38:05), Jan. 18, 2014 w/ CGY @ VAN (TOI began being tracked in 1997-98) and his prior personal high of 35:11 Jan. 9, 2022 vs DET. Fowler set a new single-season career high in points (10-38-48) and assists, and was one goal shy of matching his career output in 2016-17. He became the third defenseman in Anaheim history to reach 40 points three times (also 2021-22 and 2010-11), joining Scott Niedermayer (four times) and Chris Pronger (three times).

THE 2021-22 SEASON:

Anaheim completed the 2021-22 season with a 31-37-14 record for 76 points. The Ducks season included an eight-game win streak (Oct. 31-Nov. 16), several landmark moments in his final season from Ryan Getzlaf, a breakout season from Troy Terry (37 goals) and multiple "viral" goals from Trevor Zegras, who set several rookie club records.

GETZLAF'S GOODBYE:

Ducks captain Ryan Getzlaf appeared in his final career NHL game April 24 vs. St. Louis. Getzlaf retired as Anaheim's all-time leading scorer in both the regular season (282-737-1,019) and playoffs (37-83-120). He is one of 12 players in NHL history to have captained the same team for 10 years and scored 1,000 career points. He is one of 13 players in hockey history to win two Olympic gold medals and a Stanley Cup championship, and one of 46 NHL players to record 1,000 points with a single franchise (more than 7,400 players have played in the NHL to date). Getzlaf retired ranked in the top 100 on the NHL's all-time points (88th) and assists (49th) lists, and was one of 58 players in NHL history with 700 assists.

TERRY TIME:

Troy Terry set career highs in points (37-30-67), goals, assists, PPG (8) and GWG (7), leading Anaheim in scoring, goals and GWG. He became the fifth Ducks player to score 35 goals in a season, joining Teemu Selanne (five times), Paul Kariya (four times), Corey Perry (three times) and Bobby Ryan (once), and the first since 2013-14 (Perry, 43). He is also the ninth player in Ducks history to record 60 points and ninth to score 30 goals and add 30 assists (last: Rakell, 34-36-69 in 2017-18). He recorded a career-best 16-game point streak from Oct. 18-Nov. 18 (12-10-22), the third longest in Ducks history and the longest since Corey Perry's club record of 19 games in 2009-10 (10-16-26).

CALDER CANDIDATE

Trevor Zegras recorded 23-38-61 points in 75 games,

setting Ducks single-season rookie records in scoring and assists, surpassing Bobby Ryan (31-26-57 in 2008-09) for points and Cam Fowler (30 assists in 2010-11) in helpers. He is also Anaheim's all-time leading rookie scorer with 26-48-74 points all-time. He was named a finalist for the 2021-22 Calder Trophy, awarded "to the player selected as the most proficient in his first year of competition." He is the third player in franchise history to be named a Calder Trophy finalist, joining Bobby Ryan in 2008-09 (finished second in voting) and Paul Kariya in 1994-95 (finished third in voting). Zegras completed the regular season leading all NHL rookies in points per game (.81, minimum 40 points), PPG (9), co-leading in GWG (5), while ranking second in points, tied for second in goals and third in assists. He also led all NHL skaters with six shootout goals. He was one of 15 NHL rookies the last 10 seasons (since 2012-13) to record 60 or more points, and the third American to do so (also Auston Matthews and Clayton Keller). At 21 years and 41 days, Zegras became the youngest player in Anaheim history to lead the club in assists.

VIRAL MOMENTS:

Trevor Zegras scored two lacrosse-style goals, Apr. 1 at Arizona and Jan. 27, 2022 at Montreal, one of two players in NHL history to score two such goals (also Carolina's Andrei Svechnikov: Oct. 29, 2019 vs. Calgary and Dec. 19, 2019 at Colorado). His goal Apr. 1 marked the fifth lacrosse-style goal all-time in the NHL, with Zegras (twice), Svechnikov (twice) and Nashville's Filip Forsberg (Jan. 14, 2020 vs. Columbus) the only three NHL players to pull off "The Michigan" goal. On Dec. 7 at Buffalo, Zegras assisted on Sonny Milano's goal with a lacrosse-style "alley-oop" pass, lifting the puck onto his stick and flipping it over the net, with Milano batting the puck out of mid-air to score. It is one the only instance in NHL history a goal has been scored with a lacrosse-style pass from behind the net. The Zegras-Milano "alley-oop" goal was viewed more than 60 million times over a 48-hour span across various social and digital media platforms from Dec. 7-9.

THE 2020-21 SEASON:

The Ducks concluded the 2020-21 season with a 17-30-9 record and 43 points...the season was condensed to 56 games due to the COVID-19 pandemic, with Anaheim playing in the seven-team West Division (Arizona, Colorado, Los Angeles, Minnesota, San Jose, St. Louis and Vegas).

LEADING THE WAY:

Max Comtois (16-17-33) led Anaheim in scoring and goals, and ranked second in assists...Comtois became the second-youngest player in Ducks history at 21 years and 120 days to lead the team in scoring, behind only Paul Kariya's 18-21-39 points in 1994-95 (20 years, 199 days)...he was also the second-youngest NHL player to lead his team in scoring and goals, behind only Brady Tkachuk in scoring (OTT: 17-19-36) and Joel Farabee in goals (PHI: 20).

ONE-GOAL GAMES:

Anaheim played in a league-high 29 one-goal games (51.8%), Anaheim's highest percentage of one-goal games since 2016-17 and 2010-11 (53.7%, 44-of-82)...the Ducks tied a club record, playing in eight straight one-goal from Feb. 22-Mar. 8, 2021, matching the previous mark set Feb. 28-Mar. 19, 2009...only St. Louis had a longer streak of nine straight one-goal games in 2020-21 (Feb. 13-Mar. 12)...seventeen of Anaheim's 28 road games in 2020-21 were decided by one goal (60.7%), the most among all NHL clubs...Anaheim also played in a club record seven straight one-goal road games from Feb. 9-Mar. 6, surpassing the prior mark of six set on three prior occasions (last: Mar. 20-Apr. 7, 2016).

MILLER'S TIME:

Ryan Miller announced his retirement from the NHL at the conclusion of the 2020-21 season on Apr. 29...he retired as the all-time leader among American-born goaltenders in wins (391), second in shutouts (44) and games played (795), and is one of six goalies in NHL history to win 30 games in seven straight seasons (2006-12)...Miller is the only player in hockey history to be named the top goaltender in the NCAA, American Hockey League, Winter Olympics and the NHL...Miller won the 2010 Vezina Trophy as the NHL's top goaltender, was named the MVP and Best Goaltender in the 2010 Olympics, the 2005 AHL Baz Bastien Memorial Award as the AHL's best goaltender, and the 2001 Hobey Baker Award as the NCAA's top collegiate player...Miller appeared in 18 NHL seasons with Anaheim, Vancouver, St. Louis and Buffalo from 2002-21, posting a 391-289-88 record with a 2.64 GAA and .914 SV% in 796 career NHL games.

MR. 700 AND 1,100:

Ryan Getzlaf recorded his 700th career assist Mar. 18 vs. ARI, becoming the 55th player in NHL history and the fourth active player to record 700 assists, joining Joe Thornton, Sidney Crosby and Nicklas Backstrom...Getzlaf leads Anaheim in career assists (703) and became the first member of the 2003 NHL Draft to reach 700 assists...Getzlaf also became the 14th active player and the first in Ducks history to reach 1,100 career games May 6 @ STL.

TEENAGE DREAM:

Rookies Jamie Drysdale (18 years, 344 days) and Trevor Zegras (19 years, 363 days) scored their first NHL goals 2:29 apart Mar. 18 vs. ARI...the two goals made Drysdale and Zegras the youngest set of teammates in NHL history to each score their first NHL goals less than 2:30 apart...Drysdale and Zegras are the second Ducks teammates 19 or younger to score in the same game, joining Oleg Tverdokhvo (19) and Chad Kilger (18) Nov. 5, 1995 vs. NJD...Drysdale's goal came in his NHL debut, and he added an assist on Zegras' goal to become the third defenseman in NHL history to record multiple points in his NHL debut at age 18-or-younger (Petr Svoboda, MTL; Oct. 11, 1984 @ BUF & Ray Bourque, BOS; Oct. 11, 1979 @ WPG)...Drysdale's goal marked only the fourth time in NHL history an 18-year-old scored a goal in his NHL debut (Bourque in the aforementioned game, Scott Stevens, WSH; Oct. 6, 1982 @ NYR & Jason Doig, WPG; Oct. 7, 1995 vs. DAL)...at 18 years, 344 days, Drysdale became the youngest Ducks player in 25 years and the second-youngest player in franchise history to score a goal in his NHL debut (Chad Kilger, Oct. 9, 1995 @ WPG; 18 years, 316 days).

2019-20 ANAHEIM DUCKS

No team photo due to COVID-19 pandemic

THE 2018-19 SEASON:

The Ducks concluded the 2019-20 season with a 29-33-9 record and 67 points. Anaheim had played 71 games until the regular season was paused Mar. 12 and eventually deemed completed May 26 due to the COVID-19 pandemic...going into Mar. 12, the Ducks had won three of their last five games and earned points in four of those contests (3-1-1, 7 pts).

TEAM LEADERS:

Adam Henrique led the club in points (26-17-43) and goals for the first time since joining the Ducks...Henrique's 26 goals marked his fifth 20-goal season and fell just four shy of his career high...Ryan Getzlaf paced the Ducks with 29 assists in a season he became the club's all-time leader in games played, the first player to appear in 1,000 games with Ducks and the NHL's all-time leader in overtime assists (24).

FINAL GAME POSTPONED GAME:

Anaheim's final game of the shortened season also represented the continuation of the postponed contest between the Blues and Ducks, originally set for Feb. 11 but rescheduled by the NHL due to a medical emergency that occurred at 12:10 of the first period involving defenseman Jay Bouwmeester...the contest followed the same 60-minute format of regular-season games and began with the score tied, 1-1, as it was at the time of the postponement...Adam Henrique (Anaheim) and Ivan Barbashev (St. Louis) provided the original goals, which carried over to the Mar. 11 rescheduled date..

FRANCHISE BEST:

Ryan Getzlaf became the franchise's all-time leader in games played Oct. 11 @ CBJ, surpassing Corey Perry (988) with his 989th career appearance...Getzlaf also became the first player in club history to play 1,000 games with Anaheim on Nov. 3 vs. CHI (see note below)...of his 1,053 career games, Getzlaf has served 700 of those as Anaheim's captain, the most in franchise history...he also passed Henrik Sedin (23) for the NHL's all-time lead in overtime assists following a 4-3 OT victory Feb. 25 vs. EDM.

CAPTAIN 1,000:

Ducks captain Ryan Getzlaf became the first Duck in franchise history to reach 1,000 games Nov. 3 vs. CHI...Getzlaf became the sixth NHL player in the last 40 NHL seasons to play their first 1,000 games with one franchise and win 548 (or more) of them (now at 568-362-127)...Getzlaf also became the eighth active player to appear in his first 1,000 career games with the same team, and the 53rd all-time (19th as a center)...with his appearance Nov. 3, Getzlaf was the 20th active skater and the 336th player in NHL history to reach the milestone...he also was the 12th player all-time to appear in his 1,000th game while a member of the Ducks.

TEAM 1,000:

6 2,000 The Ducks played their 1,000th all-time regular-season game in Anaheim Nov. 14 vs. San Jose at Honda Center...after the NHL awarded Anaheim and the Walt Disney Company a franchise on Dec. 10, 1992, the Ducks have posted a 547-341-136 all-time record (excluding "home" neutral site games)...the Ducks played their 2,000th game in franchise history Nov. 3 vs. Chicago, a 3-2 overtime loss.

LEADERBOARD CHECK:

Cam Fowler surpassed Scott Niedermayer for the franchise's all-time lead among defensemen in several categories during 2019-20...Fowler scored his 61st career goal Oct. 29 vs. WPG to become the club's all-time leader in goals by a defenseman...he started the season Oct. 3 vs. ARI by assuming the all-time franchise lead in GWG by a defenseman with his 14th game winner in a 2-1 victory...Fowler quickly followed up by becoming the first Anaheim defenseman to reach 1,000 career shots, Oct. 11 @ CBJ...he also earned his 300th career NHL point Feb. 7 @ TOR to become the first Ducks blueliner to reach the milestone.

IN NET:

John Gibson wrapped up the season tied for the 10th-highest career SV% (.918) among all-time NHL goaltenders with at least 200 games played...Gibson also finished 2019-20 tied for fifth among active goaltenders.

MILLER'S MOVES:

Ryan Miller earned his 386th career NHL win and surpassed Mike Vernon (385) for sole possession of 15th place on the NHL's all-time wins list in a 4-3 overtime win Mar. 4 @ COL...Mar. 6 vs. Toronto, Miller moved past Tom Barrasso (777) for sole possession of second place on the NHL's all-time games played list for U.S.-born goaltenders and on Feb. 17 in Calgary, Miller made 37 saves to surpass Gilles Meloche (21,138) for sole possession of 13th place on the NHL's all-time saves list.

THE 2018-19 SEASON:

The Ducks finished the season with a 35-37-10 record for 80 points. Anaheim went 5-1-1 in its last seven games, earning points in six of those seven contests (11 pts.)...only Columbus (6-1-0) had a better record in its final seven games of 2018-19. Anaheim also went 11-5-1 for 23 points in its last 17 games, which ranked tied for third among NHL teams in points during that stretch. The Ducks scored 57 goals in those final 17 games (tied for fifth in the NHL) and went 11-for-43 on the PP (25.6%, fourth in NHL).

YOUTHFUL IMPACT:

Young players made an impact at both the start and at the end of the season.

Troy Terry co-led NHL rookies in points (2-8-10) and assists from Mar. 5 until the night he was injured Mar. 29 at Calgary. Terry was named the NHL's Third Star of the Week for the period ending Mar. 10 after collecting 2-5-7 with a +5 rating in four games. Terry finished the week ranked third among NHL leaders in points, tied for third in assists, and tied for second in plus/minus.

Sam Steel led NHL rookies in goals (5-1-6) from the date of his Mar. 26 hat trick through the end of the regular season (see hat trick note below).

Max Comtois became the first Ducks player to score in his first two career NHL games from the start of a season and also became the second rookie in franchise history to record at least one point in each of his first three career NHL games. Comtois' goal 49 seconds into the season-opening game Oct. 3 at San Jose was the fastest to start an NHL career since 1989, when Buffalo's Alexander Mogilny scored 20 seconds into the first period Oct. 5, 1989 vs. Quebec. Comtois' goal, four seconds into his first shift, was the sixth-fastest goal to open an NHL career in NHL modern-era history (since 1943-44).

Six rookies made their NHL debuts with Anaheim in 2018-19, including Sam Steel, Max Comtois, Max Jones, Josh Mahura, Isac Lundestrom and Kiefer Sherwood.

ON THE BLUELINE:

During the 2018-19 NHL season, the Ducks led the NHL in games played by drafted defensemen (418). Anaheim also ranked second in most rookies (16), games played by rookies (325) and games played by defensemen aged 27-or-younger (449).

SIGNED & DELIVERED:

Jakob Silfverberg averaged over a point-per-game after he signed his five-year contract extension Mar. 2 in his final 17 games, Silfverberg recorded 8-11-19 points with a +10 rating to help the Ducks to a 11-5-1 record. Silfverberg finished the season leading the Ducks with a career-high 24 goals and ranked tied for second in points (24-19-43). On Mar. 12 vs. Nashville, Silfverberg scored his 103rd career goal as a Duck to surpass Andrew Coglian (102) for sole possession of eighth on the all-time franchise goals list.

NET PRESENCE:

John Gibson went 26-22-8 with two shutouts, a 2.84 GAA and .917 SV% in 58 games. Gibson led the NHL in shorthanded saves (285), ranked sixth in saves (1,685) and shots against (1,838), and 10th in appearances. Gibson, who was also tied for fourth among goaltenders in March wins (8-3-0), tied for ninth in most appearances with two goals-or-less allowed (28) during the 2018-19 campaign. Gibson collected his 100th career NHL win in Anaheim's 4-3 victory over Vancouver Nov. 21 to become the fourth Ducks goaltender to reach the milestone, joining Jean-Sebastien Giguere (206), Guy Hebert (173) and Jonas Hiller (162). Gibson also became the fastest to 100 wins with Anaheim in 196 games, besting Hiller (214 games), Giguere (248) and Hebert (254).

RECORD-SETTING PERFORMANCE:

Ryan Miller surpassed John Vanbiesbrouck (374) for the all-time lead among U.S.-born goaltenders in wins (375) Feb. 17 vs. Washington. Vanbiesbrouck had been the all-time leader since Jan. 6, 2000, when he passed Tom Barrasso with his 349th career win. Both goalies remained active yet Vanbiesbrouck did not relinquish the lead until Miller tied him Dec. 2, 2018. Miller concluded the 2018-19 season ranked 16th on the all-time wins list for NHL goaltenders. On Feb. 19 at Minnesota, Miller stopped all 31 shots to post his 44th career shutout, second among U.S.-born goaltenders all-time... that night Miller also became the fourth goaltender since 2013-14 to record a shutout at the age of 38 or older.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2017-18 SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks completed the regular season 44-25-13 for 101 points, finishing second in the Pacific Division, tied for fourth in the Western Conference and tied for eighth in the NHL (MIN)...with 101 points, Anaheim became the only NHL team to post 100+ points in each season from 2013-18.

THE FINISH:

The Ducks finished the regular season as one of the NHL's top teams, winning their last five regular-season games (tying with WPG for the longest active streak to end the season) and their last seven home games (second longest to WPG, 9)...the Ducks also went 10-1-1 with a .875 points percentage (second in the NHL to WPG) in their final 12 games...Anaheim also went 17-5-2 over the last 24 games (fourth in NHL) and 25-10-4 after the bye week (Jan. 13, tied for fourth in NHL)...over the last 47 regular-season games, the Ducks went 30-12-5 (also tied for fourth in NHL).

ON DEFENSE:

The Ducks finished the season allowing only 209 goals, third-best in the NHL...Anaheim was the NHL's top defensive team after the All-Star break, allowing only 73 goals in 32 games (league-leading 2.28 GAA), eight fewer than anyone else in the NHL (LA, 81 goals)...the Ducks got even stingier down the stretch, allowing only 49 goals in the last 24 games (leading-leading 2.04 GAA), 12 fewer than anyone else in the NHL (ARI, 61).

CLINCHED:

The Ducks clinched their sixth consecutive trip to the Stanley Cup Playoffs Apr. 4, equaling the second-longest streak in the NHL...only Pittsburgh had a longer streak with 12 (Minnesota also has six consecutive)...the Ducks entered 2018 playoffs with the most postseason wins in the Western Conference since 2014 (31-22) and rank tied for second in the NHL (Pittsburgh 40, New York Rangers 31).

RECORD-SETTING SEASON:

The Ducks established a franchise record with a .923 SV%, which co-led all NHL teams (NSH)...the previous team record for SV% in a single season was .921, set during the 1998-99 campaign...both Ryan Miller (.928) and John Gibson (.926) surpassed the individual single-season franchise record for SV% (.924, Jonas Hiller in 2010-11, Gibson in 2016-17)...Miller ranked fifth among NHL goaltenders in SV%, while Gibson ranked eighth in SV%, 10th in wins (31) and tied for ninth in shutouts (4)...from the All-Star break through the end of the regular season, Gibson led league netminders in GAA (1.95; min. 20 games) and SV% (.937; min. 20 games) to go along with a 14-4-2 record...Gibson concluded the regular season with a 21-7-3 record in his last 31 decisions.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2016-17 SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks clinched the 2016-17 Pacific Division for the fifth straight season with a 46-23-13 record and 105 points...the Ducks were the seventh different team in NHL history to win five consecutive division titles, joining the Colorado/Quebec franchise (9 straight from 1995-03), Montreal (8 from 1975-82), Detroit (8 from 2001-09), Edmonton (6 from 1982-87), Dallas (5 from 1997-01) and Vancouver (5 from 2009-13)...Anaheim was also the only team to win the Pacific Division five consecutive years since its creation in 1993-94...the Ducks won the division after falling nine points back of first place on three separate occasions, most recently being nine points behind San Jose on March 15 (91 San Jose points to 82 Anaheim points)...the Ducks eclipsed 100 points for the fourth consecutive season, joining the Chicago Blackhawks as the only teams to accomplish the feat.

DOWN THE STRETCH:

The Ducks went 29-11-7 for 65 points after the Holiday Break (games resumed Dec. 27), the second-best record in the NHL (WSH had 74 points)...the Ducks also allowed only 99 goals over that stretch, 12 fewer than anyone else in the NHL (WSH, 111 allowed)...the Ducks' penalty killing also led the NHL at 88.1% over that stretch...Anaheim also went 14-2-3 for 31 points from the end of its bye week on Mar. 3 through the remainder of the schedule, ranking second the NHL in points and wins (STL, 15 wins and 32 points).

STRONG FINISH:

Anaheim became the fifth team in league history to conclude the regular season on a 14-game (11-0-3) point streak...the Ducks were the first team to accomplish the feat since Pittsburgh finished the 1992-93 season with points in 18 straight games...the other three teams included Montreal (21-game point streak in 1979-80), Philadelphia (14 in 1974-75) and Buffalo (14 in 1979-80)...the 11-0-3 run was the third-longest standings point streak in club history and tied for the second longest in the NHL this season (Columbus 16, Washington also had 14).

AT HONDA CENTER:

Anaheim's 29-8-4 record and 62 points at Honda Center tied franchise records in both categories...in addition, the club allowed the fewest goals at Honda Center in club history (82)...the Ducks won their final six home games (6-0-0) and closed the season with a 10-game point streak (9-0-1) at Honda Center.

CLINCHED:

Anaheim was one of six NHL teams and the only Pacific Division club that has qualified for the postseason in the previous five consecutive seasons, joining Pittsburgh (11 straight), Chicago (9), New York Rangers (7), St. Louis (6) and Minnesota (5)...during the five-year stretch, the Ducks posted a 227-104-45 record, leading the NHL in point percentage (.684) and points (499) and tied for second in wins.

ON THE LEADERBOARD:

The Ducks ranked third among NHL teams in goals against per game (2.40) and fewest goals allowed (197), and fourth in PK% (84.7%) in 2016-17...the Ducks also led the league in fewest goals allowed in the third period (55)...at Honda Center, Anaheim ranked third among NHL clubs in home standings points (62) and home wins (29-8-4) and second overall in fewest home goals allowed (82).

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2015-16 SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks finished the 2015-16 regular season 46-25-11 for 103 points, ranking first in the Pacific Division, fourth in the Western Conference and sixth in the NHL...it marked the third consecutive year the club posted 100+ points, joining St. Louis and Chicago as the only NHL teams to do so from 2013-16...Anaheim went 6-2-2 in the last 10 games, 21-6-4 in the last 31 and 34-10-5 over the last 49 contests.

DUCKS WIN PACIFIC:

The Ducks won their fourth consecutive division title on the last day of the season with a 2-0 victory over Washington...Anaheim became the first NHL team to win four division titles in a row since Vancouver won five straight (Northwest Division) from 2009-2013...the Ducks joined San Jose (2007-11) as the only two franchises to win the Pacific Division title four years in a row since the division's creation in 1993-94...the Ducks won the division after trailing by 16 points at the halfway point of the season (41 games on Jan. 12), becoming the first team to erase such a deficit at the halfway point since New Jersey in 2005-06 (trailing Philadelphia by 19 points through 41 games).

AFTER THE HOLIDAY BREAK:

After the Christmas break, the Ducks went 34-10-5 for the best record in the NHL (.745 points percentage)...the Ducks led the league in wins (34), standings points (73), PP% (27.5%), PPG (42), fewest goals allowed (104), goals allowed per game (2.1) and goal differential (+50); ranked second in goals (154) and goals per game (3.1) and third in PK% (86.9%) following the break...the Ducks were the first team since 2010 and just the fourth since 2005 to post a .745+ win (73 points) percentage after the Christmas break in a full season (34-10-5)...the others being the 2007 Canucks (32-8-6, .761), 2010 Capitals (37-7-7, .767) and 2006 Red Wings (34-7-5, .793).

DUCKS CAPTURE FIRST JENNINGS TROPHY:

Allowing a league-low 192 goals, goaltenders John Gibson and Frederik Andersen won the 2015-16 Jennings Trophy and became the first Anaheim goaltenders to win the award in franchise history...Gibson finished 21-13-4 with a 2.07 GAA and .920 SV% in 40 games, with Andersen going 22-9-7 with a 2.30 GAA and .919 SV% in 43 contests...Gibson ranked tied for second among league leaders with a 2.07 GAA, which was also the lowest among qualified rookie goaltenders (min. 25 games played) since 2009-10 (Tuukka Rask w/ BOS, 1.97).

FIRST IN 3+ DECADES:

Anaheim was the first team since the 1984-85 New York Islanders to finish the regular season with the league's best PP% (23.2%) and PK% (87.2%)...the Ducks led the league in PP% after ranking tied for 19th on Jan. 13 (17.9%, 27-for-151)...the club scored power-play goals in 19 of its last 28 games (in which it had an opportunity), going 29-for-91 with the man advantage (31.9%, best in the NHL)...Anaheim went undefeated in regulation in 23 consecutive games (22-0-1) when scoring a PPG from Nov. 30-Mar. 5.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2014-15 REGULAR SEASON:

The Ducks finished with a 51-24-7 record for 109 points...Anaheim had the top record in the Western Conference for the second consecutive season (and second time in club history)...the Ducks posted the second-best record in franchise history, trailing only the 2013-14 club (53-20-8, 114)...Anaheim recorded its second consecutive 50-win season in franchise history and matched the club record for most road standings points (54) and wins (25-12-4)...Anaheim finished second among NHL teams in road points and road wins.

IT'S A RECORD:

The Ducks set an NHL single-season record for most wins when trailing in the third period (at any point) and matched the NHL mark for wins when trailing after two periods...a closer look:

MOST WINS WHEN TRAILING AT ANY POINT IN THE THIRD PERIOD IN NHL HISTORY

SITUATIONALLY:

The Ducks were one of two NHL teams with only one regulation loss when tied after two periods (9-1-5; third with a .767 points %)...Anaheim was also one of five teams that did not lose in regulation when leading after two (29-0-2)...in addition, the Ducks were 37-2-4 when allowing two goals-or-less in 2014-15 (18-0-2 at home, 19-2-2 on the road).

THE GAME OF ONE:

Anaheim set an all-time NHL record with 33 wins in one-goal games (33-1-7)...the Ducks also led the NHL in winning percentage (.805) in one-goal games and were the only NHL team with fewer than four one-goal losses in regulation...Anaheim established an NHL single-season record for most consecutive one-goal games without a regulation loss (33), going 26-0-7 from Oct. 11-Feb. 23...the Ducks also set an NHL record for most consecutive home wins by a one-goal margin (discounting losses or ties), with 11 in a row (five regulation, two overtime and four shootouts) from Nov. 12-Jan. 11.

IN THE BEGINNING:

Frederik Andersen joined Montreal's Bill Durnan as the fastest goaltenders in NHL history to 50 wins, accomplishing the feat in 68 career decisions on Mar. 3 at Arizona...Durnan also won 50 in 68 decisions on Dec. 16, 1944...Andersen finished the season with a 35-12-5 record with three shutouts, a 2.38 GAA and .914 SV% in 54 games, marking the second-most single-season wins in franchise history (J.S. Giguere with 36 in 2006-07).

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2013-14 SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks concluded the 2013-14 regular season with a record of 54-20-8, the best mark in club history...the Ducks finished with the top record in the Western Conference for the first time in franchise history and set season records for standings points (116), wins (54) and win/points percentage (.707)...the Ducks led the league in goals (263) for the first time in club history (excludes shootout tallies)...Anaheim established season bests for goals (263; previously 254 in 2006-07), wins (54; previously 48, 2006-07), home wins (29; previously 28, 2007-08), road wins (25; previously 22, 2008-09 and 2006-07), home points (62; previously 61, 2006-07) and road points (54; previously 49, 2006-07).

EXCLUSIVE COMPANY:

Of the Ducks' 54 wins, 51 came in regulation/overtime (ROW)...Anaheim and Boston (also 51 wins in 2013-14) are the only two NHL teams to record as many ROWs since 2005-06 (Detroit, 54).

COMEBACKS COMMON:

Anaheim posted 26 comeback wins in 2013-14, the most in the NHL since 2005-06 (Detroit and Nashville, 26)...the Ducks went 23-15-2 (.575 points percentage) when the opponent scored first, the most wins and best points percentage of any team in such situations in 2013-14.

HISTORIC STREAK:

Anaheim won 18 of 19 games (18-1-0) from Dec. 6-Jan. 15 to join Montreal (18-1-0, 1967-68) as the only two NHL teams to win 18+ games in a 19-game span.

HOME/ROAD:

The Ducks went a franchise-best 29-8-4 at Honda Center, setting a club record for home wins and home standings points (62) in a single season... Anaheim became the fourth team in 40 NHL seasons (since 1973-74) to record points in each of its first 22-plus home games (20-0-2) from Oct. 13-Jan. 15, joining PHI (19-0-7, 1979-80), NYI (19-0-4, 1978-79) and SJ (20-0-2, 2008-09) in that category...the Ducks, who were the last NHL team to suffer a home loss in regulation (Jan. 21 vs. WPG), established a club record with eight straight home wins to open a season...away from Honda Center, the Ducks concluded their road schedule setting franchise records for wins (25; previously 22, 2008-09 and 2006-07), points (54; previously 49, 2006-07), and goals (123; previously 115, 2008-09).

THE FINAL SEASON:

The NHL's oldest active player and oldest to ever compete in a Ducks uniform at 43 years and 92 days at the start of 2013-14, Teemu Selanne finished his regular-season career ranked 11th among all-time leaders in goals, tied for 37th in all-time assists, 15th in all-time scoring, third in all-time PPG, tied for third with Brett Hull in all-time GWG (110) and 22nd in all-time games...Selanne is the club's all-time leader in scoring (988), goals (457), assists (531), games (966), plus/minus (+120), PPG (182), PPP (410), GWG (77), shots (2,964) and OT goals (6).

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

A RECORD-BREAKING SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks won their second Pacific Division title with a 30-12-6 record for 66 points, marking their best winning percentage in club history (.688 over 2007's .671)...the 2012-13 Ducks also had the best points percentage in club history on the road with a 14-5-5 (.688) mark, also ahead of the 2007 team (.598)...the Ducks finished second in the Western Conference and third overall in the NHL, behind only Chicago and Pittsburgh...the club's third-place finish in the overall league standings was the highest in club history.

COMEBACKS:

The Ducks rallied from deficits 15 times to win a game, including a 12-10-2 record when opponents scored first...Anaheim, Pittsburgh (11-6-0) and Chicago (10-5-4) were the first NHL teams since 2009-10 to have a record over .500 in such situations...the last team prior to 2012-13 was Bruce Boudreau's Washington Capitals (16-8-6 in 2009-10)...the Ducks lost only two games in regulation when scoring the first goal (18-2-4).

HOME SWEET HOME:

Anaheim won 13 consecutive games at Honda Center from Jan. 26-Mar. 20, 2013, the longest home streak in franchise history...the consecutive wins matched the NHL's second-longest home win streak since 2009-10 (also Washington at 13 games in 2010-11 under Boudreau...Detroit had an NHL-record 23-game streak in 2011-12)...Ryan Getzlaf's 9-21=30 points earned at home ranked tied for third in the NHL.

HERE TO STAY:

On Mar. 8 and Mar. 18, 2013, Ryan Getzlaf and Corey Perry signed respective eight-year contract extensions through the 2020-21 season...Getzlaf led Anaheim in points, goals and assists (15-34=49), while ranking tied for 10th among NHL leaders in scoring and tied for eighth in assists...Getzlaf had a career-high 12-game scoring streak at Honda Center from Feb. 1-Mar. 20, 2013, scoring 7-15=22 points (+12)...Perry ranked second among team leaders with 36 points, led in PPG (5) and co-led in goals (15) and GWG (5)...his five GWG ranked tied for sixth in the NHL.

#8:

Teemu Selanne recorded two four-point games in 2012-13, just the third and fourth time an NHL player 42 years or older accomplished the feat...Selanne scored 1-3=4 points on Feb. 9, 2013 at St. Louis (at 42 years, 326 days) and 2-2=4 points on Jan. 19, 2013 at Vancouver, joining Gordie Howe (42 years, 326 days) with 1-3=4 points for Detroit on Feb. 20, 1971 vs. Buffalo, and Tim Horton (42 years, 3 days) with 0-4=4 points for Pittsburgh on Jan. 15, 1972 vs. Philadelphia.

The Anaheim Ducks finished the 2011-12 season with a 34-36-12 mark for 80 points...the club had the fifth-best record in the Western Conference with 54 points (24-15-6) from Jan. 1 to the end of the season...the club went 14-6-1 in its last 21 contests played at Honda Center (.690 win percentage)...over the last 44 games overall, Anaheim went 24-14-6...from the start of 2012, Corey Perry ranked fourth in goals with 23 (PIT's Malkin had 35, TB's Stamkos had 34 and NJ's Kovalchuk had 24)...in addition, Jonas Hiller co-led the league in starts and appearances (41), and ranked sixth in wins (20) and GAA (2.11).

BREAKING RECORDS:

Teemu Selanne (41 years old) completed his 20th NHL season and 13th with the Ducks, scoring 26-40=66 points in 82 games...his 26 goals made him the second-oldest player in NHL history to have 26+ goals in a single season...Selanne joined Gordie Howe as the oldest two players to have at least 60 points in one season...in addition, Selanne's 17, 20+goal seasons tied for the fifth-most in NHL history (many players)...his 82 games played made him the oldest player in NHL history (41 yrs, 279 days) to have appeared in all 82 games in a single season...only Nicklas Lidstrom (40 yrs, 347 days in 2010-11), Dave Andreychuk (40 yrs, 187 days in 2003-04), Mark Messier (40 yrs, 79 days in 2000-01) and Ron Francis (40 yrs, 36 days in 2002-03) appeared in all 82 games above the age 40.

BOUDREAU TAKES THE REINS:

Bruce Boudreau was named the eighth head coach of the Anaheim Ducks on Nov. 30...the Ducks were 27-23-8 under his leadership...he finished the 2011-12 season with a 228-111-48 record in 387 career NHL games with both Anaheim and Washington for a .651 win percentage.

ANOTHER BIG YEAR:

Corey Perry led the Ducks with 37 goals, leading all Western Conference players and ranking tied for sixth in the NHL...the 2010-11 Hart Trophy Winner had 15 goals in his last 32 games (post All-Star break)...Perry also ranked tied for third in the NHL in PPG (14).

MORE SELANNE:

Teemu Selanne surpassed Luc Robitaille on Mar. 25 vs. Boston for sole possession of fourth in all-time PPG at 248...in addition, his GWG on Mar. 14 vs. Detroit accounted for his 1,400th career point, as he became just the third European-born player to reach the milestone (Jaromir Jagr 1,653 and Stan Mikita, 1,467)...on Mar. 12, Selanne's goal moved him past childhood idol and fellow Finn Jari Kurri (1,398 career points) for sole possession of 19th in all-time points (second among active players behind Jagr)...at the close of the season, Selanne ranked 12th on the NHL's all-time goal scoring list (second among active players behind Jagr), 42nd in assists (fourth among active players) and sixth in career GWG (second among active players behind Jagr).

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2010-11 REGULAR SEASON:

The Ducks finished the regular season with a record of 47-30-5 for 99 points, ranking second in the Pacific Division and fourth in the Western Conference...the club's 47 wins were tied for the second-most in franchise history (48 in 2006-07 and 47 in 2007-08).

ANOTHER STRONG FINISH:

With 20 games left, the Ducks were 32-25-5 with 69 points and ranked 11th in the Western Conference...the Ducks went 15-5-0 over the last 20 games, climbing to fourth in the West...during that stretch, Corey Perry led the NHL in goals and points (19-12-31 with a +12)...the Ducks also won their last two games, 10 of their last 13 (10-3-0), and went 29-13-1 over the last 43 contests.

PERRY WINS THE HART:

Corey Perry won the 2010-11 Hart Memorial Trophy as "the player adjudged to be the most valuable to his team"...Perry was the first player from a Southern California team to win the Hart Trophy since Hall-of-Famer Wayne Gretzky earned the honor with Los Angeles in 1989...Perry was also just the third player from a California team to win the Hart, joining Gretzky and San Jose's Joe Thornton (2006)...his 50 goals also won him the Maurice "Rocket" Richard Trophy as the league's top goal scorer...he tied for the league lead in GWG (11, also Ovechkin), finished third in points (98), and tied for fifth in PPG (14) and SHG (4)

MORE PERRY:

Perry's 50 goals were the most by a Ducks player since Teemu Selanne scored 52 during the 1997-98 season...he became the third player in franchise history to reach the 50-goal mark and the first in the Western Conference to score 50-or-more since Calgary's Jarome Iginla in 2007-08 (50)...Perry established numerous franchise records in 2010-11, including game-winning goals, third-period goals, and shorthanded goals.

BETTER WITH AGE:

Teemu Selanne (40 years old in 2010-11) recorded 31-49-80 points in 73 games...25 of Selanne's 31 goals came in a tied game or a one-goal contest...he was one of 15 NHL players to average over one point-per-game (eighth with 1.10)...the second-oldest player on that list was Tampa Bay's Martin St. Louis (35 yrs.) who averaged 1.21 points-per-game...Selanne ranked third in the NHL with 16 PPG and tied for eighth in overall scoring...only two players in NHL history age 40+ have recorded more points: (Gordie Howe (DET), 1968-98, 103 pts., 40 yrs, 276 days; Johnny Bucyk (BOS), 1975-76, 83 pts., 40 yrs, 234 days...on Mar. 28 vs. Colorado, he became the first player in history age 40+ to record three goals and five points (3-2=5) in a single game and the fourth-oldest player in NHL history to record a 3+ goal game (also Howe, Bucyk & Lidstrom).

VISNOVSKY LEADS THE PACK:

Lubomir Visnovsky led NHL defensemen in scoring (68), assists (50) and points-per-game (.84), and ranked second in goals (18).

HILLER SHINES BEFORE SEASON CUT SHORT:

Jonas Hiller went 26-16-5 with five shutouts, a 2.56 GAA and .924 SV% before having his season cut short due to vertigo symptoms...he made only three appearances following the All-Star break, missing a total of 27 games during the second half of the season...Hiller finished tied for fifth among NHL goaltenders in SV% (.924)...he was named to the NHL 2010-11 All-Star team, the lone goaltender to represent the Western Conference...he was the second Swiss-born player to appear in an NHL All-Star Game (also Mark Streit in 2009).

THESEASON:

The Ducks finished the season with a 39-32-11 record for 89 points (11th in Western Conference)...the club went 23-14-4 for 60 points in the second half of the season (41 games), which equaled the eighth-best record in the league...Anaheim also finished with points in eight of the last nine games (5-1-3) and went 9-3-3 over the last 15 contests...the Ducks concluded the 2009-10 season with a 6-0-2 record in the last eight games at Honda Center and were 17-3-3 in the last 23 contests at home.

BY THE NUMBERS:

Right wing Corey Perry led the club in scoring with a career-high 27-49-76 points and was the only player to appear in all 82 regular season games for Anaheim...center Ryan Getzlaf led the team in assists (50) despite missing 16 games due to injury...defenseman Scott Niedermayer, who ranked tied for 11th in league defenseman scoring, led all Anaheim players in ice time (26:30) and paced all team blueliners in assists and points (10-38-48)...right wing Bobby Ryan had a career-high 35 goals in 81 games, leading the team in goals and ranking second in the NHL (behind only New Jersey's Zach Parise) among U.S.-born players...right wing Teemu Selanne finished the season ranked tied for third in the NHL in power play goals (14) and tied for eighth in goals-per game (.50), his highest mark since 2006-07 (.59)...with 27 goals on the year (27-21-48), 2009-10 marked Selanne's 14th season with 25 goals or more...Selanne had six goals in his last five games (6-2-8), 8-9-17 points in his last 13 and 9-12-21 points in his final 18 contests...center Saku Koivu earned 4-7-11 points with a +6 rating in his last five games...he also had 7-11-18 points in his last 13 and 8-12-20 in 19...Koivu, who scored the game-tying goal in two of his last three games (and the shootout winner on Apr. 3 at Los Angeles), ranked tied for 10th in the NHL in game-winning goals (6)...Koivu also eclipsed the 50-point mark for seventh consecutive season in 2009-10 (19-33-52)...defenseman Lubomir Visnovsky ranked tied for fourth in goals among NHL defensemen (with San Jose's Dan Boyle)...his five goals after his acquisition by Anaheim on Mar. 3 (did not play until Mar. 6) co-led all NHL defensemen (with Washington's Mike Green and Los Angeles' Drew Doughty).

TAKING THE REINS:

The Ducks were 23-13-4 in their last 40 games dating back to Jan. 5, which equaled the eighth-best record in the NHL...that stretch began with Jonas Hiller starting 31 of the final 40 games, including 19 straight from Jan. 5-Mar. 24...prior to that, Hiller started 26 of the first 42 games of the season, alternating starts with J.S. Giguere (the Ducks were 16-19-7 at that point of the season)...Hiller himself was 18-11-1 (2.58 GAA, .923 SV%) in his last 32 games from Jan. 5 to the end of the season.

After reaching the historic 600-goal plateau on Mar. 21 vs. Colorado and matching childhood idol and long-time friend Jari Kurri with 601 on Mar. 31 at Colorado, right wing Teemu Selanne scored two goals on Apr. 2 vs. Vancouver to grab sole possession of 17th place in all-time goals with his 602nd and 603rd goals...finishing the season with 606 career goals, Selanne became one of only 18 players in NHL history to score 600 goals and one of only three Europeans, following Jaromir Jagr (CZE) and Kurri (FIN).

RECORD STREAK:

The Ducks had a franchise-record 11-game home winning streak from Dec. 8-Feb. 10...the 11-game winning streak at Honda Center was the second-longest in the NHL in 2009-10, behind only Washington's 14-game streak at Verizon Center.

2010 OLYMPICS:

Anaheim Ducks players combined for seven medals at the 2010 Olympic Winter Games, the most in the NHL (San Jose was second with five)...the seven medals also tied the most ever by an NHL team...the only other NHL teams to have as many as seven medal winners were the 1998 Pittsburgh Penguins and the 2002 Detroit Red Wings...Anaheim Ducks players combined for three gold (Scott Niedermayer, Ryan Getzlaf, Corey Perry for Canada), two silver (Bobby Ryan, Ryan Whitney for USA), and two bronze medals (Saku Koivu and Teemu Selanne for Finland) in Vancouver.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE SEASON:

The Ducks finished the 2008-09 regular season with a record of 42-33-7 for 91 points, ranking second in the Pacific Division and eighth in the Western Conference. Anaheim went 20-18-3 at home and 22-15-4 on the road in the regular season. The Ducks qualified for the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year and seventh time in club history (1997, 1999, 2003, 2006-2009).

THE STANDINGS CLIMB:

After 69 games, the Ducks were 32-31-6, 12th in the Western Conference standings (13th by winning percentage). Anaheim rallied to make the playoffs by posting the best record in the NHL (by points and winning percentage) over the last 13 games, going 10-2-1 (21 points, .808 win%). The Ducks joined only the 1996-97 Ottawa Senators and 2006-07 New York Rangers as teams to rally from as low as 12th place to make the playoffs with 13 games-or-less remaining in the season...the 1996-97 Senators were 12th through 69 games and finished seventh, while the 2006-07 Rangers were 12th through 72 games and finished sixth.

STRONG FINISH:

The Ducks finished the 2008-09 regular season winning five of the last seven games (5-1-1), 10 of 13 games (10-2-1) and were 11-3-1 in the last 15 overall...the Ducks scored at least one power play goal in eight of the last nine games (13-for-35, 37.1%) and went 20-for-48 (41.7%) over the final 13...in the last five contests, the Ducks were 9-for-16 on the power play for a 56.3% success rate...in addition, the club recorded 65 goals over the last 13 games (4.2 per game), scoring at least five goals in five of those contests.

ROAD SUCCESS:

Anaheim finished the 2008-09 regular season by recording points in a team-record nine consecutive road games (7-0-2; 16 points), besting the previous mark of eight games set earlier in the year (7-0-1; Oct. 21-Nov. 30). The Ducks won six straight road games before losing in a shootout in the season finale on Apr. 11 at Phoenix, falling just one win shy of tying a club-record seven-game road winning streak from Nov. 28-Dec. 13, 2006...with a 22-15-4 road record, the Ducks tied a franchise record for most road wins in a single season (22-14-5, 2006-07).

LEADING THE WAY:

Center Ryan Getzlaf concluded the 2008-09 campaign ranked tied for third among NHL leaders in assists, tied for sixth in scoring (25-66-91) and tied for fourth in power play assists (28)...in addition to leading the club in assists and scoring, Getzlaf broke the Ducks single-season assist record (previously Kariya, 62) on his third helper of the night as part of a four-assist effort on Apr. 4 at San Jose...with two assists (0-2-2) on Apr. 2 at Vancouver, he set a single-season career high in assists (60), one game after establishing a personal best for points in a season on Mar. 31 at Edmonton (83).

HILLER STRONG IN NET:

Goaltender Jonas Hiller concluded the regular season ranked tied for seventh among NHL goaltenders in GAA (2.39) and tied for sixth in SV% (.919)...over his last 12 games, Hiller went 8-2-0 with a 2.44 GAA and .919 SV%, stopping 319-of-347 shots...prior to a 3-2 loss to San Jose on Apr. 5 at Honda Center, Hiller won seven consecutive decisions to tie Guy Hebert for the longest winning streak in franchise history (Hebert won seven straight games from Feb. 25-Mar. 22, 1995).

THE CAPTAIN LEADS THE WAY, AGAIN:

Scott Niedermayer concluded the regular season ranked second among all defensemen in scoring starting Jan. 1 (9-31-40, Mike Green of WSH had 23-27-50 points)...for the season, he ranked tied for third in the NHL in scoring and assists among defensemen...Niedermayer became Anaheim's all-time goal scorer among defensemen by surpassing Oleg Tverdokhovo with his 46th goal as a Duck on Mar. 8 vs. Minnesota...Niedermayer recorded his third three-point night of the season (1-2-3) on Mar. 31 at EDM, tying a single-game career high.

MOVING ON UP:

Right wing Teemu Selanne scored his 1,200th career NHL point with his overtime goal on Mar. 18 vs. Nashville...Selanne became the 45th player in NHL history to reach the milestone and only the sixth player born outside North America to reach the mark, joining Jaromir Jagr, Stan Mikita, Jari Kurri, Mats Sundin and Paul Stastny...he became the franchise's all-time games played leader with his 617th game as a Duck on Jan. 31 at Colorado...with his appearance that afternoon at Pepsi Center, Selanne surpassed former teammate Steve Rucchin for sole possession of first in all-time Ducks appearances.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE SEASON:

The Ducks completed the 2007-08 regular season with a mark of 47-27-8 record for 102 points, finishing second in the Pacific Division and fourth in the Western Conference. Anaheim eclipsed the 100-point mark for the second consecutive year, while setting new season club records for the fewest goals allowed (184) and most home wins (28). Anaheim finished the year winning eight of its last 10 (8-2-0) and 15 of the last 20 games (15-4-1). At Honda Center, the club went 12-1-0 in the last 13 games and 19-3-1 over the final 23 home contests. The club clinched a playoff berth for the third consecutive year and sixth time in franchise history on Mar. 26 vs. Los Angeles in a 2-1 shootout triumph.

DUCKS SELL OUT THE SEASON:

The Ducks' sellout vs. Phoenix on Apr. 6 (17,269) marked the club's 40th in 40 games at Honda Center in 2007-08, a complete sellout for the regular season. It was just the second time a local NHL team (Southern California market) had sold out a full (non-lockout) regular season. The 1991-92 Los Angeles Kings were the only other such team to do so at the 16,006-seat Forum. The Ducks set franchise attendance records last season for sellouts (40), average attendance (17,195) and percent capacity (100.12%). The Ducks broke the team record for consecutive regular season sellouts on Feb. 22 against the St. Louis Blues when they surpassed the previous record of 51 straight regular season sellouts set from Dec. 22, 1993-Oct. 20, 1995...the Ducks finished the regular season with a sellout streak of 74 games, the third-longest active regular season sellout streak among U.S.-based NHL teams (behind only Minnesota and the NY Rangers).

LEADERS BY ADDITION:

The Ducks went 20-5-1 after the return of right wing Teemu Selanne on Feb. 5 against the New York Islanders at Nassau Coliseum...the Ducks also had defenseman Scott Niedermayer and arrival of center Doug Weight...the Ducks owned the best winning percentage in the NHL after Selanne's return on Feb. 5 (.788) and the best winning percentage following Niedermayer's return on Dec. 16 (.708)...below is a closer look:

NHL STANDINGS BEGINNING FEB. 5

4.	Montreal	29	19	9	1	39	.672
5.	Pittsburgh	29	18	8	3	39	.672

WINNING AT HONDA CENTER:

The Ducks finished 28-9-4 at Honda Center in 2007-08, establishing a new franchise record for home wins in the regular season...the previous team record of 26 home wins was established during the 2005-06 season (26-10-5) and matched in the 2006-07 campaign (26-6-9)...the Ducks won a franchise-record 10 consecutive games at Honda Center from Feb. 17-Mar. 26, marking the longest home winning streak in the NHL in 2007-08.

THE TOP 10 LIST:

J.S. Giguere was one of only three goaltenders in the NHL in 2007-08 to rank among the top 10 in wins, goals-against average and save percentage...Giguere ranked second in GAA (2.12), third in SV% (.922) and tied for seventh in wins (35)...the only other two goaltenders who ranked among the top 10 in all three categories were New Jersey's Martin Brodeur and Minnesota's Niklas Backstrom.

HILLER SHINES:

Ducks goaltender Jonas Hiller closed the regular season on a strong note. From Mar. 1 through the end of the regular season, Hiller ranked second in the NHL with a .952 SV% (stopping 217-of-228 shots) and 1.55 GAA (11 GA/426 MIN) among goaltenders that played in at least five games (Hiller was 4-3-0 in those games).

WINNING WAYS:

Randy Carlyle (198-74-34) became Anaheim's winningest head coach in franchise history with a 2-1 victory over the New Jersey Devils on Feb. 8 at Prudential Center...Carlyle surpassed Ron Wilson's club record of 120 wins as a Ducks head coach with win No. 121 in his 223rd game behind the bench with Anaheim.

Teemu Selanne on Feb. 5 against the New York Islanders at Nassau Coliseum...the Ducks also had similar success when they welcomed the return of Doug Weight...the Ducks owned the best winning percentage in the NHL after Selanne's return on Feb. 5 (.788) and the best winning percentage following Niedermayer's return on Dec. 16 (.708)...below is a closer look:

RECORD-BREAKING SEASON:

After breaking nearly all major club records in 2005-2006, the Ducks followed suit with another record-breaking season...With a 48-20-14 record, the Ducks set new franchise records for wins (48) and standings points (110), reaching the 100-point mark for the first time in club history...Anaheim also set new club highs in goals (254 - does not include goals awarded for shootout wins), PP goals (89) and PP% (22.4%, 89-for-398).

STRONG FINISH:

The Ducks closed out the season earning standings points in six straight (4-0-2) and 17 of their last 20 games (13-3-4)...the club earned points in 12 of their last 13 home contests (8-1-4)...in addition, Anaheim recorded points in the last five consecutive (4-0-1) and seven of their last nine road games (5-2-2)...the Ducks recorded points in 62 of 82 games (110 of a possible 164).

HOT TICKET IN TOWN:

The Ducks finished the regular season having sold out 22 consecutive home contests (longest streak since 1998) and 24 of the last 25...the club recorded 25 total sellouts on the season, 13 more than it had in 2005-2006...the 25 sellouts matches the most since the 1997-98 season...the Ducks averaged 16,377 fans per game, an 8.2% increase over last year (15,131)...the club's average attendance and percent capacity (95.4%) were also the highest since the 1997-98 season.

WEST COAST WINNERS:

The Ducks recorded 106 points with their win Mar. 31 @ STL, breaking Los Angeles' 32-year record for most points by a West Coast team in NHL history...below is a look at the top nine West Coast teams in NHL history to eclipse 100 points:

TOP POINTS IN NHL HISTORY BY WEST COAST TEAMS

Team	Year	GP	Pts
Anaheim	2006-07	82	110 (48-20-14)
San Jose	2006-07	82	107 (51-26-5)
Los Angeles	1974-75	80	105 (42-17-21)
San Jose	2003-04	82	104 (43-21-18)
Vancouver	2002-03	82	104 (45-23-14)
Vancouver	2006-07	82	105 (49-26-7)
Los Angeles	1990-91	80	102 (46-25-10)
Vancouver	2003-04	82	101 (43-24-15)
Vancouver	1992-93	84	101 (46-29-9)

*The California/Oakland Seals' best finish was in 1968-69 with 69 points

TOUGH TO BEAT:

Anaheim netminder J.S. Giguere finished the season with a record of 36-10-8...his GAA (2.26) was his lowest since the 2001-02 season (2.13) and his SV% (.918) was his best since 2002-03 (.920)...in 28 home starts, Giguere posted a 21-2-5 record with a 2.17 GAA (60 GA/1,660 min.) and .917 SV% (659-of-719 shots), having earned the Ducks points in 26 of those games...for the season, he ranked 10th in the NHL in wins, 5th in GAA and T-7th in SV%...in addition, with a win March 29 @ CBJ, Giguere broke his previous career-high and established a new franchise record for wins in a season (previous mark was 34 wins, set in 2002-03).

BETTER WITH AGE:

With a goal March 29 @ CBJ, Teemu Selanne became the oldest player in NHL history to score 45-plus goals in one season (finished with 48)...Selanne was born on July 3, 1970...Selanne was also the first player in NHL history age 35-or-older to record consecutive 40+ goal seasons (had 40 in 2005-06)...it marked the 7th time in his career he hit the 40 goal plateau, the most among active NHL players...among league leaders, Selanne finished 3rd in the NHL (1st in the Western Conference) in goals and T-11th in the NHL in points (94),...he finished 1st in the NHL in power play goals (25) and T-1st in game-winning goals (10), which include two overtime winners.

SPECIAL TEAMS TOP THE CHARTS:

The Ducks were the only team in the NHL this season to have a top-5 ranking in both power play and penalty killing percentage...the Ducks set a new club record for highest PP% in one season, finishing third in the NHL with a 22.4% success rate (89-for-398)...Anaheim finished fourth overall in PK%, killing 349-of-410 penalties on the campaign (85.1%)...the Ducks killed the last 22 consecutive opponent power play to end the season, going back to Mar. 28 @ CHI (did not allow a PP goal in the last five games).

LIGHTING THE LAMP:

The Ducks scored three-or-more goals in 54 of 82 contests in 2006-2007...during the final stretch, the Ducks scored three-or-more goals in 10 of their last 14 and 15 of their last 20 contests...Anaheim recorded 258 team goals, T-3rd in the Western Conference.

CLAMPING DOWN:

The Ducks were especially tough to score against during the third period in 2006-2007...Anaheim allowed only 64 goals in the final period of regulation, the second-least in the NHL...below is a look at the top five teams in the NHL who allowed the least amount of goals in the third period:

Team	Goals Allowed
Minnesota	55
Anaheim	64
Dallas	64
Detroit	64
New Jersey	67

2006-07 ANAHEIM DUCKS

NORRIS FINALISTS:

Ducks defensemen Scott Niedermayer and Chris Pronger were both Norris Trophy finalists...Niedermayer (15-54=69) and Pronger (13-46=59) both finished the season with 50-plus points, marking the first time in club history two defensemen hit that plateau (prior to the 2006-07 season, no pair of Ducks defensemen had each recorded 40-or-more points):

- Captain Scott Niedermayer led all NHL defensemen in scoring, becoming the first Anaheim blue-liner to do so...he was also tied for first in assists among defensemen.
- Despite missing 16 games due to injury, defenseman Chris Pronger finished the season tied for sixth in points, sixth in assists among NHL defensemen and fourth overall in avg. TOI...Pronger led the Ducks in plus/minus...in addition, he ranked first in points-per-game (.89) among NHL defensemen.

IRONMAN:

Samuel Pahlsson became the Ducks’ all-time Ironman with 275 consecutive games played...on Jan. 9 @ NSH, he passed Oleg Tverzdovsky to move into first place on the Ducks’ all-time consecutive games played list...Pahlsson played in all 82 games in each of the last three seasons and has not missed a game since being a healthy scratch on Feb. 5, 2003 @ Edmonton...in addition, Pahlsson is currently 7th in the NHL on the active games played list...Andy McDonald is now in 2nd place on the Ducks all-time consecutive games played list, having played in 243 consecutive games...below is a list of most consecutive games played list in Ducks history and the longest “Iron Man” streaks NHL:

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

PLAYOFF BOUND:

The Ducks finished the regular season with a record of 43-27-12, good for 98 standings points and a sixth place finish in the Western Conference...the club clinched a playoff spot on Apr. 10 @ VAN, the fourth post-season berth in club history.

A RECORD-BREAKING SEASON:

The Ducks set club-records in wins (43) and points (98), eclipsing the previous marks of 40 and 95, respectively, set in 2002-2003... Anaheim's 28 wins at HOME (26-10-5) also set a club-record, breaking the record of 23 in 1996-97 (23-12-6)...the Ducks also set club-records for goals scored with 251 (not including team goals awarded in shootouts) and power play goals with 87...all of these marks were broken again the next season (2006-2007).

STEADY CLIMB:

On Jan. 13, the Ducks were 10th in the Western Conference (19-16-7, 45 points) and eight points out of the last playoff spot (occupied at the time by Colorado)...from that point on, Anaheim had a record of 24-11-5 for 53 points...the Ducks became just the fourth NHL team to qualify for the playoffs when trailing the 8th place position by 8 points-or-more anytime after Jan. 1...the first three teams to do so were the NY Islanders (1993-94 - finished 7th), Ottawa Senators (1996-97 - finished 7th) & Vancouver Canucks (2001-2002 - finished 8th)...the San Jose Sharks followed suit by becoming the fifth such team to accomplish the feat...the NHL standings switched to the current format in 1992-93.

ANOTHER GREAT SEASON:

Ducks Captain Scott Niedermayer established then career highs in points, assists and games played with 13-50-63 points in 82 games in 2005-2006... his assist and point totals were new franchise records for a defenseman (records he broke again the following season)...Niedermayer finished the season ranked 6th in the NHL in points and T-4th in assists by a defenseman...in his Morris Trophy winning season of 2003-04, Niedermayer scored 14-40-54 points in 81 games...in January, he was named to Canada's Olympic Team but elected not to play so he could have arthroscopic knee surgery during the Olympic Break...after the Olympic Break, he scored 4-17=21 points in 25 games in leading the Ducks to a 16-8-1 record...he was one of four Ducks' players to play in every game, marking the first time in his career he played all 82 games.

FLASHY FINN:

Ducks right wing Teemu Selanne scored 40-50-90 points in 80 games with a +28 rating...he led the Ducks in goals, points, plus/minus, power play goals (18) and shooting percentage (15.0%)... after leading Finland to the Silver Medal at the 2006 Winter Olympics (was named best forward in the tournament), Selanne had 14-22=36 points with a +8 rating in his last 25 games (only Thornton and Cheechoo of SJ had more points)...his 40 goals are the most he scored in one season since 1998-1999, when he scored 47...he finished the season ranked T-13th in the NHL in points, T-10th in goals.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

DUCKS COMPLETE BEST SEASON IN TEAM HISTORY:

The Mighty Ducks finished the 2002-2003 season with a record of 40-27-9-6 for 95 points, good for 2nd in the Pacific Division and 7th in the Western Conference (tied in points with Minnesota, who earned the #6 seed by virtue of two more wins)...Anaheim set club records for wins and points in one season, surpassing the old records held by the 1996-97 Ducks (36-33-13 for 85 points)...the Ducks also finished 13 games over .500, after never being more than five games over .500 at any point during a season until this year (high-water mark was 14 games over, 40-26-9-5 after winning Apr. 1 @ NSH)...the Ducks clinched their third playoff berth in team history (also '97 & '99) on Mar. 24, when Calgary defeated Phoenix at the Saddledome...about 90 minutes later that evening the Ducks made the Phoenix loss moot, completing a 5-0 shutout vs. Columbus at -the Pond.

QUITE A TURNAROUND STORY IN ANAHEIM:

The Mighty Ducks finished the regular season posting the largest improvement in the NHL...the Ducks improved by 26 points from 01-02 to 02-03...below is a closer look:

2001-02 MIGHTY DUCKS OF ANAHEIM

2001-02 SEASON:

The Ducks finished the season 29-42-8-3 for 69 points...Anaheim went 15-13-2-0 in the last 30 contests...the Ducks had the best defensive season in franchise history...they had a team GAA of 2.39 (ranking ninth in the NHL) allowing just 198 goals the entire season...the previous club records were 206 goals allowed for a 2.48 GAA set in 1998-99...Anaheim also had the best penalty kill in club history...the PK unit killed 284-of-330 (86.1%) penalties, bettering the club record of 84.5% set in 1998-99...the fewest PP goals the club had allowed in a season was also set in 98-99, when it gave up 60 power play markers...in 2001-2002, the team shattered that record by allowing just 46 power play goals...Goaltender J.S. Giguere finished 2001-2002 with the fifth-best goals against average (2.13) and tied (with Burke & Khabibulin) for the fifth-best save percentage (.920) in the NHL...he shattered the club record for lowest goals-against average, well ahead of Guy Hebert's 2.45 GAA in 1998-99...Paul Kariya finished the 2001-2002 regular season as the Ducks leader in goals (32), points (57), power play goals (11), game-winning goals (8) and shots (289)...defenseman Keith Carney led the team with a +14 rating in his first season with the Ducks...Head Coach Bryan Murray finished the 2001-2002 regular season ranked seventh in all-time coaching wins...he moved into seventh place with his 501st win on Jan. 26 @ Nashville (3-1 final)...his historic 500th NHL coaching win came the previous night on Jan. 25 @ Dallas in a 6-1 triumph (eighth coach in NHL history with 500 wins)...Murray also became the eighth coach in NHL history to coach 1,000 games on Nov. 28 vs. Edmonton.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

1998-99 SEASON:

The Mighty Ducks finished the season with a mark of 35-34-13 for 83 points, good for sixth in the Western Conference...the Ducks were a franchise-high five games over .500 five times (latest being a 34-29-12 record after a 2-2 tie @ the NYI on Apr. 3)...the club's 83 points were 18 more than they had in 1997-98 (65 points), the third largest increase in the NHL...Anaheim lost only 12 of its last 34 games (18-12-4) and finished one win shy of equaling the club-record for wins in one season...the club led the league in power play percentage with a 22.0% mark (83-for-378)...the Ducks' 79 PPG's from Nov. 1 through the end of the regular season were 15 more than anyone else in the NHL...Anaheim was 28-3-7 when leading after two periods...home record was 21-14-6 (7-3-2 in last 12)...the Ducks established a club-record seven-game winning streak from Feb. 20-Mar. 7... Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne combined to average 2.66 points-per-game, leading the league...Teemu Selanne's 47 goals earned him the first-ever Maurice "The Rocket" Richard Trophy, awarded to the NHL's highest goal scorer...Paul Kariya's 429 shots were the second-highest total in NHL history...Fredrik Olausson set club-records for defensemen in goals (16), assists (40) & points (56)...Guy Hebert and Dominic Roussel combined for a .921 SV%, the second-highest in the league...Hebert received most of the workload, ranking second in the NHL in games (68), and second in minutes (4083), while also ranking eighth in wins (31), and tied-for-fourth in shutouts (6)...Kevin Haller and Paul Kariya were the only two players to appear in all 82 regular season games.

1997-98 SEASON:

The Ducks finished the season 26-43-13 for 65 points...the club went 6-7-4 over the last 17 games... Anaheim enjoyed the most success vs. the Atlantic Division, going 7-3-4 (.643 winning percentage) - marking the second best winning percentage vs. any division in franchise history (record is 66.7%, set in 1995-96 when the Ducks went 8-4-0 vs. the Northeast)...Anaheim had three players that ranked among NHL league leaders (including rookie leaders) in several categories (Selanne, Rucchin & Cullen)...the Mighty Ducks and Vancouver Canucks opened up their '97-98 NHL regular seasons with a two-game set in Tokyo on Oct. 3-4. The games marked the first NHL regular season contests outside of North America...Teemu Selanne's sensational season included an 11-game goal scoring streak, three hat tricks, 10 game-winning goals, a club-record 13 goals in a month (November), a hat trick in the All-Star game, a Bronze Medal at the Winter Olympics, and a league-leading 52 goals (tied with Peter Bondra)...Selanne also became just the fourth player in NHL history to record at least 25% of his teams goals in one season...Paul Kariya suffered a season-ending concussion on Feb. 1 vs. Chicago and appeared in only 22 games on the season.

1995-96 SEASON:

Final Record: 35-39-8, 78 points (fourth, Pacific)...nearly qualified for a Western Conference playoff spot (the Ducks actually finished tied-for-8th in the conference with Winnipeg, but lost the tie breaker because the Jets had more wins)...Anaheim's 35 wins and 78 points marked new club records for one season...the Mighty Ducks finished out the season strong, going 6-1-1 in their last eight games and 12-3-2 in their last 17 games...the Ducks did a lot of their late-season damage at home, going 11-1-2 in their last 14 home games...Anaheim also had a 15-6-3 record in the last 24 contests and a 17-8-3 record in the last 28...the Ducks went 33-31-8 over the last 72 games after starting the season 2-8-0...the Mighty Ducks' home record was 22-15-4 (22 home wins was a franchise record for one season)...Anaheim ended the season with a club-record nine-game home unbeaten streak (8-0-1)...the Ducks went 11-1-2 in their last 14 at the Arrowhead Pond and 13-5-3 in their last 21...road record was 13-23-4...Anaheim had one of the best records in the NHL since March 1 (12-4-3); the second-best in the Western Conference...the Mighty Ducks earned 34.6% of their points on the season in the team's 19 games after March 1...Paul Kariya became the first Mighty Duck to make First Team NHL All Star, earning a spot on the 1995-96 squad at left wing. He also won the Lady Byng Trophy for the first time in his career...Here are a few facts of how Anaheim's acquisition of Teemu Selanne affected the Mighty Ducks...after Feb. 7, the day the trade went down: Anaheim earned a record of 17-9-3 (11-1-

2 at home, 6-8-1 on the road)...the team earned club-records in overall winning streak (six games, Mar. 8-22), home winning streak (five games, Mar. 8-Apr. 3), home unbeaten streak (Mar. 8-Apr. 14, 8-0-1) and overall unbeaten streak (seven games, 6-0-1, Mar. 10-24)...the Ducks' power play went 29-145 for a .200 success rate (team had only gone 31-281 for .110 before trade)...Anaheim had three hat tricks (two by Selanne, one by Garry Valk). The Ducks had only one in their history before the arrival of Selanne (Terry Yake - Oct. 19, 1993 @ NYR)...Selanne's offensive numbers with Anaheim were 16-20-36 points in 28 appearances (1.29 points-per-game)...Paul Kariya's offensive numbers were 21-23-44 points in 29 appearances (1.52 points-per-game) after Selanne joined Anaheim...The Mighty Ducks were one of only three NHL clubs (also Colorado and Pittsburgh) to finish with two players in the top eight scoring leaders in 1995-96 (Paul Kariya, 50-58-108 pts. and Teemu Selanne, 40-68-108 pts.)...Anaheim was one of only eight teams in the NHL with a .900-plus team save percentage (.906) and a team goals-against-average (GAA) below 3.00 (2.97)...Anaheim finished tied-for-fifth in the league in save percentage and 10th in the league in GAA...Anaheim goaltending combined for a .952 save percentage and 2.08 GAA in 19 games from March 1 to the end of the season...Individually, Guy Hebert finished fourth in the league in save percentage with .914 on the season and tied-for-fifth in the league in shutouts with four (three of which came in his last 14 games).

ATTENDANCE

The Anaheim Ducks have recorded 433 sellouts at Honda Center since their inaugural NHL season in 1993-94. Anaheim has increased its attendance each of the last two seasons, seeing more than a 4% increase in 2023-24 to 91.5% capacity and seven sellouts, the most in a season since 2018-19. The Ducks recorded their 400th all-time shutout in the club's 2018-19 home opener Oct. 8, 2018 vs. Detroit. Anaheim hosted its largest crowd in club history in 2012-13, welcoming 17,610 fans for a 4-2 victory over Chicago on March 20, 2013. The Ducks had a club-record 78-game (63 regular season, 15 playoff) sellout streak from 2006-08, including all 40 home games in 2007-08, it was just the second time a Southern California NHL team had sold out a full (non-lockout) regular season. The Ducks set franchise attendance records for sellouts (40), average attendance (17,195) and percent capacity (100.12%) in 2007-08. Anaheim broke the team record for consecutive regular season sellouts on Feb. 22, 2008 when it surpassed the previous record of 51 straight regular season sellouts set from Dec. 22, 1993-Oct. 20, 1995.

2007 STANLEY CUP CHAMPIONS

Henry & Susan Samuelli, Michael Schulman, Brian Burke, Tim Ryan, Bob Wagner, Bob Murray, David McNab, Al Coates, Randy Carlyle, Dave Farrish, Newell Brown, Francois Allaire, Sean Skahan, Joe Trotta, Tim Clark, Mark O'Neill, John Allway, James Partida, Rick Paterson, Alain Chainey, Scott Niedermayer (Captain), Rob Niedermayer, Chris Pronger, Teemu Selanne, Sean O'Donnell, Brad May, Todd Marchant, J.S. Giguere, Andy McDonald, Samuel Pahlsson, Shawn Thornton, Ric Jackman, Joe DiPenta, Kent Huskins, Chris Kunitz, George Parros, Joe Motzko, Ilya Bryzgalov, Francois Beauchemin, Travis Moen, Ryan Carter, Drew Miller, Ryan Shannon, Dustin Penner, Ryan Getzlaf, Corey Perry

By securing their first Stanley Cup championship in franchise history on June 6, 2007, the Anaheim Ducks also became the first team from California to win the Stanley Cup. Their appearance in the Final marked just the fifth time since 1926 that a West Coast team competed for the Stanley Cup (also Vancouver (1982 & 1994), Los Angeles (1993) & Anaheim (2003)). The Ducks were the first West Coast team to win the Stanley Cup since the 1925 Victoria Cougars and the first U.S. team to win it since the 1917 Seattle Metropolitans.

The Anaheim Ducks secured the Stanley Cup in just 21 games, posting a 16-5 record. With the 1992 Pittsburgh Penguins, the Ducks were the 5th (tied) fastest run to winning the Stanley Cup in NHL history since the best-of-seven series was implemented in 1987.

The Ducks posted a 12-2 record in games decided by one goal...the club tied the NHL play-off record for the most one-goal victories in one postseason. The 2003 Mighty Ducks of Anaheim had 12 one-goal victories during their Stanley Cup Final run and the 1993 Montreal Canadiens also accomplished this feat as they went on to win the Stanley Cup...in addition, the Ducks were tied for second in lead-changing, game-winning goals that occurred in the third period or overtime.

The 2007 Champions had the largest contingency of players (11) in their first or second NHL year on one Stanley Cup roster. The 1986 Montreal Canadiens are the only team that comes close to the Ducks number of first or second year players on a Stanley Cup winning roster with 10. Below is a list of Ducks that were in their first or second NHL season that played in at least one game with the club during their playoff run: Ilya Bryzgalov, Francois Beauchemin, Ryan Carter, Ryan Getzlaf, Kent Huskins, Chris Kunitz, Drew Miller, Dustin Penner, Corey Perry, Aaron Rome and Ryan Shannon.

TEEMU SELANNE

BORN: JULY 3, 1970, HELSINKI, FINLAND

SEASONS WITH ANAHEIM: 1995-2001 & 2005-2014

HOCKEY HALL OF FAME INDUCTION: NOV. 13, 2017

HONORED BY DUCKS: JAN. 11, 2015

Teemu Selanne finished his Ducks career as the franchise's all-time leader in almost every offensive category, including goals (457), assists (531), points (988), plus/minus (+120), games (966), power-play goals (182), game-winning goals (77), overtime goals (6) and shots (2,964). He is also the club playoff leader in goals (35), power-play goals (15), game-winning goals (8), shots (274) and games (96).

Selanne helped lead Anaheim to California's first Stanley Cup championship in 2007, was named the inaugural Maurice "Rocket" Richard Trophy winner in 1998-99 and won the Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy Winner in 2005-06, all as a member of the Ducks.

Selanne ranks in the top-15 among all-time NHL leaders in goals (11th with 684), points (15th with 1,457), power-play goals (third with 255), and game-winning goals (tied for third with 110). In 22 NHL seasons, Selanne recorded 22 regular season hat tricks (13 with Anaheim, plus one playoff hat trick with Winnipeg). As a member of the Jets, he won the 1992-93 Calder Memorial Trophy after breaking the single-season rookie record for goals with 76, shattering Mike Bossy's previous record of 53. A 10-time NHL All-Star, Selanne was also a two-time First Team All-Star, a two-time Second Team All-Star (1997-98, 1998-99) and also named to the 1992-93 NHL All-Rookie Team.

Selanne was a six-time Olympian for Finland, tying the record for the most appearances by a men's hockey player. He won a medal in four of his six trips to the Olympic Winter Games, matching the all-time Olympic record. Named the 2014 Olympic MVP, a 2014 and 2006 Olympic All-Star, and the Best Forward at the 2006 Olympic Games, Selanne holds the record for the most points by an Olympian in men's hockey with 24-19=43 points.

RETIRED NUMBERS

PAUL KARIYA

BORN: OCTOBER 16, 1974, VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA

SEASONS WITH ANAHEIM: 1994-2003

HOCKEY HALL OF FAME INDUCTION: NOV. 13, 2017

HONORED BY DUCKS: OCT. 21, 2018

Paul Kariya was Anaheim's first-ever selection (fourth overall) in the 1993 NHL Draft. He scored 300-369-669 points with a +52 rating and 213 PIM in 606 career games with the Mighty Ducks. Among franchise leaders, Kariya leads in points-per-game (1.10), co-leads in shorthanded goals (16), ranks second in power play goals (107), third in goals, and fourth in scoring and assists.

The club's captain from 1996-2003 and a two-time Lady Byng Memorial Trophy winner in 1996 and 1997, he went on to lead Anaheim to Game 7 of the 2003 Stanley Cup Final against New Jersey, recorded 100-point seasons in 1995-96 and 1998-99 and recorded the first 50-goal season in club history in 1995-96. Kariya led in Anaheim in numerous offensive categories in his nine season, including scoring (six times), power-play goals (six times), goals (five times) and assists (four times).

Over a 15-year NHL career, Kariya collected 402-587-989 points with a +31 rating and 399 PIM in 989 games with Anaheim, Colorado, Nashville and St. Louis. Kariya was named to the NHL's First All-Star Team three times (1996, 1997, 1999) and Second All-Star Team two times (2000, 2003), while also earning a spot on the NHL's All-Rookie Team in 1995. At the international level, Kariya represented Canada at the Olympic Winter Games in 2002 (gold) and 1994 (silver), World Championships in 1996 (silver) and 1994 (gold) and World Junior Championship in 1993 (gold).

NIEDERMAYER

SCOTT NIEDERMAYER

BORN: AUGUST 31, 1973, EDMONTON, ALBERTA

SEASONS WITH ANAHEIM: 2005-2010

HOCKEY HALL OF FAME INDUCTION: NOV. 11, 2013

HONORED BY DUCKS: FEB. 17, 2019

Scott Niedermayer spent five seasons with the Ducks from 2005-10, and was the captain of the Stanley Cup championship team in 2007 when he won the Conn Smythe Trophy as playoff MVP. He scored 60-204-264 points in 371 regular-season games with Anaheim, most among Ducks defensemen all-time, and had 34 points (eight goals, 26 assists) in 56 playoff games. In 2006-07, he set the Ducks franchise record for most points (69) and assists (54) by a defenseman.

In 18 seasons with Anaheim and New Jersey, Niedermayer scored 172-568-740 points in 1,263 NHL games. He is a four-time Stanley Cup champion, winning one Cup with Anaheim (2007) and three with New Jersey (1995, 2000 & 2003). He is the 2004 James Norris Memorial Trophy winner, a three-time First Team All-Star (2004, 2006, 2007), six-time NHL All-Star (1998, 2001, 2004, 2007, 2008, 2009), and 1993 NHL All-Rookie Team member. His 13 regular-season overtime goals are the most by a defenseman in NHL history.

The first player in hockey history to have won a Stanley Cup, Olympic gold medal, World Championship, World Cup, Memorial Cup and World Junior Championship, Niedermayer is also the only player in hockey history to win four Stanley Cups and two Olympic gold medals.

Niedermayer helped lead Canada to gold medals at the 2002 and 2010 Olympic Winter Games, serving as captain in 2010. He won a 2004 World Championship, 2004 World Cup title and 1991 World Junior Championship. He also won the 1992 Memorial Cup with Kamloops (WHL) and was named Memorial Cup MVP.

Niedermayer, who had his No. 27 retired by the New Jersey Devils on Dec. 16, 2011, became the eighth player in NHL history to have his number retired by two NHL teams.

MEDIA RESOURCES

All media materials, including gameday materials and publications, can be found via the Ducks media website at AnaheimDucks.com/media. Included are game notes, NHL stats, rosters, game statistics, team publications, prospect reports and more. To be in line with the NHL Green initiative, the team prints an extremely limited number of materials for all home games, with all game statistics available online only with the exception of coaches and TV/audio rightsholders. Team line sheets will be printed and delivered to those present in the press box prior to puck drop.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

All interview requests should be sent to Alex Gilchrist or Steve Brown. Interview requests are not required for general locker room availabilities (morning skate, postgame, practices) but are required for requests that are outside of the scope of general locker room availabilities.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials must be worn and visible inside Honda Center at all times. Game credentials are reserved by the club for members of team and league rightsholders, affiliated television and radio networks, and members of the Professional Hockey Writers Association (PHWA). The Anaheim Ducks are unable to provide access to blog sites or podcasts due to space constraints and demand in our press box. Credential or other access-related requests will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

All members, including those holding season credentials and those requesting single-game credentials are required to RSVP for a seat to Steve Brown no later than 24 hours before puck drop to ensure a seat in the press box.

Season Passes are issued to print, radio and television media members who cover the Ducks on a regular basis as part of their work requirements.

Single-Game Passes: Credentials must be requested in via email to Steve Brown (sbrown@anaheimducks.com) or at the Ducks' media resources website at least 24 hours in advance of game time and will be granted on a first-come, first-served basis.

Media Will Call: Credentials must be picked up at the morning skate from the Ducks Communications staff or at media will call, located at the Northwest Suite Concierge of Honda Center. Media Will Call is open three hours prior to the start of a game. The media entrance is also located at the Northwest Concierge.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking is now located in the northeast corner of Arena Corporate Center (ACC) in Lot 3. All media, broadcast personnel, team scouts, visiting team staff and working personnel shall park in the designated media parking area. To access Lot 3 in ACC, please use Katella Ave. and proceed north on Douglass Road, turn into ACC at the stoplight north of Honda Center. Please follow the designated walking paths from Lot 3 adjacent to Stanley Cup Way or on Douglass Road and proceed south to the media entrance. All credential holders needing parking should contact Steve Brown or Tessa Bramble.

PHOTOGRAPHERS & CAMERA POSITIONS

Photo credentials will also be issued in the same manner as media credentials. Photographers on assignment will be designated a photo position by team photographer Deb Robinson (debrobinsonphoto@aol.com), with locations for the game posted one hour prior to puck drop in the photography work room, located on the Service Level near the visiting locker room. All photographers must comply with space assignments and shooting regulations. Photographers must shoot from designated areas only. The room is also available to edit photos or store your equipment while at Honda Center.

BROADCAST & LIVE SHOTS

Please contact a member of the Ducks Communications staff for all broadcast and live shot requests. Requests must be submitted by noon on all game days.

All games at Honda Center will be televised locally on Bally Sports or nationally by ESPN or Turner Sports on TNT. Filming of any activity inside the Arena bowl beginning 30 minutes prior to puck drop, along with any game footage, is strictly prohibited.

GAME DAY MORNING SKATES

Morning skates will be held at Honda Center, with start times confirmed by the Ducks communications staff. Credentialed media members can enter the arena via the Southeast Concierge adjacent to the team store. Parking is available in Main Lot 1 only for the duration of morning skate. The Ducks will typically skate at 10 a.m. for a 7 p.m. scheduled start, but the practice can be optional at the head coach's discretion. If you have specific interview requests, we ask that you be present for the start of the skate in case certain individuals do not skate. Visiting teams will typically skate at 11:30 a.m. Please contact a member of the visiting team's PR staff to confirm time and player/coach availability.

GAME DAY MEDIA AVAILABILITY PROCEDURES

Please contact a member of the Ducks Communications staff for specific player interview requests on game days.

Morning Skate: Players will be available in the main Ducks locker room while the head coach will be available in the hallway adjacent to the Ducks locker room.

Postgame: Shortly after the conclusion of the game, the Ducks will make a representative number of key players by request and the head coach available for interviews. Players will be available in the main Ducks locker room and the head coach will be available in the hallway adjacent to the Ducks locker room.

PRACTICES

The majority of non-game day practices will be held at Great Park Ice in Irvine on Rink 3 or FivePoint Arena (Rink 4). Players will be available in the main Ducks locker room, while the head coach will be available in the designated media area outside of the main locker room. If a practice is held at Honda Center, players will be available in the main Ducks locker room and the head coach will be available in the hallway adjacent to the Ducks locker room. Parking is available in front of and on the south side of the facility for free. Please enter via the main entrance. No livestreams or long-form video recordings of practice are permitted.

PRESS BOX

The press box is located on the North end of Honda Center, accessible from the Northeast and Northwest Concierge elevators. A seating chart for the press box is located on televisions at the East and West ends of the Press Box. Seating is provided on a priority, first-come, first-served basis.

MEDIA WORK ROOM

Home and visiting media members attending morning skates and games at Honda Center will have the ability to use the Press Dining Room on the event level as a media workroom. Workstations, power and connectivity will be provided for all media members.

PRESS DINING

The Press Dining Room is open three hours prior to every game. The Press Dining Room can be accessed on the north Service Level of Honda Center. Please use the Northeast or Northwest Concierge elevators, which also access the Press Box and media entrance. Press Dining offers a fully catered meal for a fee of $10.

WIRELESS INTERNET

Complimentary high-speed wireless internet is available throughout Honda Center and in the Press Box. To access our network, select "OCVIBE_Guest" and once prompted, please follow the instructions to register and connect to complimentary WiFi.

STATISTICAL INFORMATION

In addition to the Ducks media resource website, the NHL offers a variety of in-depth statistics and information.

Media.NHL.com: Dedicated to serving accredited NHL media, this password-protected site features archives of news releases, media advisories, transcripts, publications, game notes, box scores, daily stat packs, league statistics, player pronunciations and other relevant information from the League and its teams. Each team also has their own page on the media site, which includes schedules, headshots, pronunciations and the contact info for their respective PR staffs.

NHL.com/stats: All NHL stats, both current and historic are available. The site includes stats for skaters, goalies and teams, with the ability to filter by team, year and more. In addition, for all games the league's NHL Stats Live Updates page features game-specific stats and historical data for each team, while updating player-specific milestones in real-time at www.media.nhl.com/live-updates. If there is a stat you are interested in looking up, but are unsure how, please contact Steve Brown.

Records.NHL.com: Updated on a daily basis, included are skater, goaltender, head coach and team records (on both League and franchise levels), all-time standings for the regular season and playoffs, extensive franchise histories, lists of major NHL team and individual awards, sortable, pick-by-pick histories of the NHL Draft; and more.

TELEVISION INFORMATION

VICTORY+

A Parent Media Co. Inc. (APMC), owner of Victory+, is the home of all regional Anaheim Ducks games. All local games will be available to stream free of charge to fans on Victory+, a newly formed sports network and direct-to-consumer streaming service, created for Ducks fans by APMC.

Victory+ features Brian Hayward in the booth for his 31st season as the Ducks television analyst while John Ahlers calls his 23rd season of Ducks hockey as the club's play-by-play announcer. Aly Lozoff will serve as host throughout the season while Guy Hebert returns as the television studio host.

All Victory+ games will feature exclusive live shows prior to and immediately following all home and road telecasts. Lozoff will lead discussion alongside Hebert who offers viewers insightful and entertaining analysis, while Hayward joins Hebert to provide analysis for all home broadcasts. In addition, Lozoff will offer updates and reports throughout each telecast on the sports network.

With the launch of Victory+ in September 2024, fans within the Ducks' regional television territory can enjoy games free of charge and additional content wherever they are on their preferred device. Victory+ is available for download on smart TVs, tablets and smart phones, ensuring fans outside the Ducks' regional territory are still able to enjoy Victory+ to watch a robust menu of additional content provided by the team.

In a revolutionary step for sports fan engagement, the service will be offered as a free ad-supported streaming service, making it accessible without barriers and enhancing the fan experience with a low-latency feed and high ad-fill rate for a superior viewing experience. Utilizing APMC's ad-tech solution Safe Exchange™ will allow both direct and programmatic ads on the service ensuring advertisers can have full access to the engaged audience base.

FOX PLUS (KCOP CHANNEL 13)

FOX Plus will televise 65 Ducks games on over-the-air television in the Ducks region. FOX 11 Plus is the exclusive over-the-air home of the Anaheim Ducks beginning with the 2024-25 NHL season. Ducks games on FOX Plus feature John Ahlers, Brian Hayward, Guy Hebert and Aly Lozoff.

KTTV FOX 11 and KCOP Channel 13 (FOX Plus) are part of the FOX Television Stations, which owns and operates 29 full power broadcast television stations in the U.S. These include stations located in nine of the top ten largest designated market areas (DMAs), and duopolies in 11 DMAs, including the three largest DMAs (New York, Los Angeles and Chicago). Of these stations, 18 are affiliated with the FOX Network. In addition to distributing sports, entertainment and syndicated content, our television stations collectively produce over 1,200 hours of local news every week. These stations leverage viewer, distributor and advertiser demand for the FOX Network's national content.

John Ahlers

Television Play-By-Play

John Ahlers is in the midst of his 23rd season as the Anaheim Ducks' play-by-play voice. He has called 1,476 regular-season Ducks games since joining the club prior to the 2002-03 season, along with numerous NHL games for NBC Sports Network over his career. Ahlers called his 1,000th regular-season Ducks game on Nov. 12, 2017 vs. Tampa Bay.

For each of the past three seasons, Ahlers has handled the play-by-play for Sports USA's national radio coverage of the Stanley Cup Final, as well as numerous Stanley Cup Playoff games for the network.

Each season, Ahlers is a significant contributor to the team's award-winning Ducks S.C.O.R.E. program, an educational initiative that impacts over 25,000 elementary school students. He teaches the students the value of teamwork in sports, in school and in life. Using team-building exercises that relate to hockey, this interactive presentation demonstrates the importance of working effectively with others to achieve success in all endeavors. Ahlers can also be seen and heard at many of the Ducks community relations events, where he works as host and emcee.

Prior to joining the Ducks, Ahlers served as radio play-by-play voice for the Tampa Bay Lightning from 1999-02. A 36-year broadcast veteran with 2,723 games behind the microphone (including 1,803 in the NHL), he also worked as host of the Lightning's television pre-game show and Lightning Weekly, a magazine format program aired on Florida's Sunshine Television Network.

Prior to his stint with Tampa Bay, Ahlers spent five seasons as the television and radio voice of the International Hockey League's Detroit Vipers. During that time, he also worked as broadcaster of the IHL Game of the Week and Turner Cup Finals for Fox Sports Net. While with the Vipers he received numerous awards, including the IHL Broadcaster of the Year award in 1995 and Emmys for Best Sports Broadcasts in 1995 and 1998. With Anaheim, Ahlers won an Emmy in 2003 for Best Live Sports Broadcast during Game 4 against Detroit in the first round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

A graduate of Michigan State University, Ahlers has the call for NFL and NCAA college football games on Sports USA Radio Network for the 13th consecutive season in 2024. He has also served as the voice of the Salt Lake Golden Eagles (IHL) and the Louisville IceHawks (ECHL), as well as Michigan State and Colorado College hockey.

John and his wife, Cindi, were married in the summer of 2008. The couple resides in Trabuco Canyon.

Brian Hayward

Television Color Analyst

The original television analyst for the Anaheim Ducks, Brian Hayward is in his 31st season with the club. He has called 1,974 regular-season Ducks games since joining the team and celebrated his 1,000th Ducks broadcast on Jan. 16, 2011 vs. Edmonton. Over the past 30 years, he has earned a reputation as one of hockey's most articulate and informative analysts. Hayward has also been an active member of the Orange County community since joining the Ducks, participating in numerous charitable events on behalf of the club. He celebrated his 30th season with the franchise in 2023-24 as part of the club's 30th anniversary.

Hayward has previously called national games for NBC, ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and CBC. He appeared as an analyst for "NHL on NBC," which included work at the 2014 Stadium Series Game at Dodger Stadium and the 2006 Olympic Winter Games in Torino, Italy. He also served as color commentator for the 2004 World Cup of Hockey on ESPN's telecasts of the event. In 1998, he was a roving reporter during the Stanley Cup Final for ESPN, where he had the distinction of interviewing President Bill Clinton during a game in Washington.

After earning All-American honors as a goaltender at Cornell in 1982, Hayward went on to play 11 NHL seasons with the Winnipeg Jets, Montreal Canadiens, Minnesota North Stars and San Jose Sharks. In 1984-85, Hayward established a franchise record by winning 33 games with the Jets.

In Montreal, he teamed with Patrick Roy to win the William M. Jennings Trophy three consecutive years (1987-89) as the team allowing the fewest goals over the course of the regular season. Hayward also appeared in the Stanley Cup Final in 1986 with Montreal and 1991 with Minnesota.

A member of the inaugural San Jose Sharks in 1991-92, Hayward gained experience as an analyst on select Sharks games while sidelined with injuries. When a back injury forced a premature end to his playing career, he became a full-time broadcaster with the Ducks.

A native of Toronto, Ontario, Hayward holds a degree in business management from Cornell. He resides in Anaheim Hills with his wife, Angela. His daughter, Courtney, and her husband, Bobby, currently live in Manhattan Beach.

Guy Hebert

Television Studio Analyst

Guy Hebert is in his 11th season as the Anaheim Ducks Television Studio Analyst, proving insightful and entertaining analysis during the broadcast's pregame, postgame and intermissions. Hebert began his broadcast career in 2014 with Bally Sports as the Ducks' studio analyst.

The original Mighty Duck as the first player in team history following the 1993 Expansion Draft, Hebert started the Ducks' first game in franchise history, making 36 saves, Oct. 8, 1993 vs. Detroit. He played 10 NHL seasons with Anaheim, St. Louis and the New York Rangers from 1991-2001, appearing in 491 games while posting a 191-222-56 record, 28 shutouts, a 2.82 goals-against average (GAA) and .909 save percentage (SV%).

In eight seasons with Anaheim (1993-2001), Hebert went 173-202-52 with a 2.76 GAA, ranking third in Ducks franchise history in wins and appearances (441), and second in shutouts (27). In 1998-99, Hebert led the NHL in saves (1,949) while setting career-highs in wins (31) and SV% (.922), while he finished in the top 10 in Vezina Trophy voting three times and was named an NHL All-Star in 1996-97. He led Anaheim to its first Stanley Cup Playoff series win with a Game 7 shutout (3-0) vs. Phoenix in 1997.

Internationally, he helped Team USA to a gold medal at the 1997 World Cup and bronze at the 1996 World Championship. He also represented Team USA at the 1990 Goodwill Games and 1998 Winter Olympics in Nagano.

Hebert previously served as the director of the Ducks' alumni association and has helped the Anaheim Ducks Foundation to serve its mission to facilitate and support programs that produce positive change for children and families throughout Southern California.

A native of Troy, N.Y., Hebert resides in Corona Del Mar. He and his wife, Sarah, have one daughter, Madeline.

Aly Lozoff

Television Host

Aly Lozoff enters her sixth season as a broadcaster with the Anaheim Ducks, her first season serving as Television Host. In her role, she covers all locally broadcast home and road games, including pre, post and intermission reports in addition to creating exclusive on-demand content for Victory+.

Lozoff is also a national television reporter for Turner Sports, working NHL on TNT games during the regular season and Stanley Cup Playoffs. A four-time Emmy Award winner, she previously covered the Vegas Golden Knights on AT&T SportsNet as their inaugural Rinkside Reporter and host of the club's weekly Knight Life show from 2017-19. Prior to that, she served as the Quebec bureau reporter for Sportsnet in Canada. She has hosted various weekly sports shows throughout her career and has strived to build a sterling reputation as a respected member of the media.

Bilingual in English and French, Lozoff also holds three law degrees and works as Legal Counsel during the offseason. Lozoff earned a Sports Management Certificate from Columbia University, a Certificate from the China University of Political Science and Law and is a member of both the Quebec Bar Association and the Law Society of Ontario.

A native of Montreal, Quebec, Lozoff has served as the Director of Financial Resource Development and as a Major Gifts and Corporate Partnerships Officer for various foundations and organizations in her hometown. In her spare time, Aly enjoys volunteering as a mentor in her community, giving broadcast and public speaking workshops to aspiring students.

Aly and her husband, Avy, reside in Anaheim Hills with their daughter, Shany.

Steve Carroll

Ducks Stream Play-By-Play

Steve Carroll is in the midst of his 26th season as the audio play-by-play voice of the Anaheim Ducks in 2024-25, having called 1,792 regular-season games since joining the club. A veteran of 49 years as a play-by-play announcer, Carroll joined the Ducks in 1999-00 and called his 1,000th regular-season broadcast with Anaheim on Mar. 2, 2013 vs. Phoenix. He also celebrated his 20th season with the franchise in 2018-19.

After landing his first play-by-play job as voice of the Mineral Area Junior College Men's Basketball Team (Flat River, Missouri) in 1976, Carroll has gone on to broadcast in several sports at both the college and professional levels. The long list of baseball teams includes the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, the Nashville Sounds (Triple-A), Huntsville Stars (Double-A) and Iowa Cubs (Triple-A). He has been employed in nine states and has called action in every state with the exception of Alaska and Idaho. At one point in the mid-1990s, Carroll was in Nashville broadcasting for five teams in three sports while freelancing for a newspaper. His work included covering the Nashville Knights of the ECHL and Vanderbilt University basketball and football (radio and television).

Carroll joined the Ducks after spending the previous two seasons handling the radio play-by-play duties for the New Orleans Brass of the ECHL, including serving in the communications, media relations and corporate sales departments. He also called games for the New Orleans Zephyrs, a Triple-A affiliate of the Houston Astros, from 1996-98. In addition, he handled play-by-play for the New Orleans Storm professional soccer team.

Carroll has previous NHL broadcasting experience with the Philadelphia Flyers, serving as radio play-by-play announcer for the 1995-96 season. He also called action for the New Haven Nighthawks of the AHL during the 1985-86 season and the Des Moines Buccaneers (USHL) from 1981-85.

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Carroll is also a contributor to AnaheimDucks.com, the club's official team website. On behalf of the team, he has served as an emcee at several charity events during the regular season and in the summer months. Along with his work with the Angels in 2011 as co-host of "Angels Today," Carroll also co-hosted "This Week in Angels Baseball" for two years on Adelphia Cable in Southern California.

Steve and his wife, Rhonda, reside in Ladera Ranch with their two dogs, Sam and Dixie.

Emerson Etem

Ducks Stream Color Analyst & Content Contributor

Emerson Etem enters his second season as the Audio Color Analyst and Content Contributor for Ducks Stream in 2023-24. Etem joins Steve Carroll in the Anaheim Ducks audio broadcast booth for all pre-, regular and postseason games hosted on Ducks Stream. In addition to his role as color analyst, Etem will join Alexis Downie and Kent French as a content creator and host with Ducks Stream.

Selected by Anaheim in the first round (29th overall) of the 2010 NHL Entry Draft (held in Los Angeles), Etem made his NHL debut with Anaheim in 2012-13.

The Long Beach, Calif. native is the highest-drafted Southern California born-and-trained player in Ducks history and was the third-highest player born in Southern California to be drafted.

Etem spent three years (2021-24) as the owner, general manager and head coach of the Long Beach Shredders of the USPHL Premier, a tier III junior league. Following his eight-year professional playing career, Etem served as the general manager and head coach of the Missoula Junior Bruins of the NA3HL (North American 3 Hockey League).

As a member of the Ducks in two separate stints (2012-15 & 2016-17), Etem scored 15-16-31 points in 115 regular season games, adding 6-2-8 points in 23 Stanley Cup Playoff contests. He recorded 22-24-46 points in 173 career NHL games with Anaheim, the New York Rangers and Vancouver Canucks across six seasons from 2012-17. He also appeared in 145 career American Hockey League (AHL) games, earning 57-42-99 points. He led the Norfolk Admirals, Anaheim's primary development affiliate in the AHL, with 24-30-54 points in 2013-14.

Etem spent three seasons with the Medicine Hat Tigers of the Western Hockey League (WHL) from 2009-12, scoring 143-109-252 points in 202 career games. In 2011-12, he led the WHL with 61 goals and was named to the WHL East First All-Star Team. As a WHL rookie in 2009-10, he scored the most goals by a league rookie (37) and was named Medicine Hat's Rookie of the Year. Etem represented Team USA at back-to-back World Junior Championships (2011 & 2012), helping his country to bronze in 2011. He also spent the 2008-09 season at the U.S. National Team Development Program (USNTDP), combining for 27-21-48 points with the U-17 and U-18 teams.

Etem and his wife Danette have two children, including their son, Laulo and daughter Alaia. The family resides in Long Beach.

Alexis Downie

Host & Content Producer

Alexis Downie is in her third season as the Host & Content Producer for the Anaheim Ducks. In her role with Ducks Stream, she hosts numerous fan-centric shows and provides news and various team information. Beginning in 2023-24, Downie added hosting pregame and postgame shows for all 82 games on Ducks Stream. She also conceptualizes, records and produces video and audio airing on the 24/7 audio channel and Ducks digital platforms.

Downie helped launch the platform Sept. 22, 2022 and has contributed to nearly 400 hours of content hosting in the network's first two years. In 30 years of Ducks hockey, Downie is the lone female on-air broadcaster to serve as a color analyst between the benches, making her first appearance Jan. 28, 2023 vs. Arizona.

Downie spent the previous three years as a reporter with Stadium, hosting and producing the National Hockey League (NHL) show, Ice Breakers. She covered the 2021 and 2022 Stanley Cup Finals, 2022 Winter Classic, while also providing content for the Stadium/Bally Sports brand across various social and digital networks.

She served as the rinkside reporter and analyst for the Chicago Steel of the United States Hockey League (USHL) for two seasons (2020-22). She was also a reporter for the BIG EAST Conference in 2021-22, providing live reports on FOX Sports and the BIG EAST Digital Network.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Downie earned a bachelor's degree in journalism and a minor in sports journalism at Michigan State University.
